

LEXINGTON WHEATFIELD

LOCAL NEWS

Miss Sylvia Booher returned last evening from a two weeks visit with relatives at Athena.

Editor Hicks, of The Heppner Times, was a passenger on Mondays' train to Portland and the coast. Mr. Hicks will purchase considerable new material for The Times before returning.

The Wheatfield family was given another treat this week by being supplied with vegetables from the gardens of B. M. Booher and Dr. Hunter. We are at home every day to receive "garden truck".

L. S. Gilbreath, of the Kerr Gifford Warehouse, informs The Wheatfield that new wheat will be on the market next week. Mr. Gilbreath is of the opinion that a great deal of the wheat will grade number one.

The Wheatfield has just completed arrangements with the Oregon Journal whereby we are able to furnish the Oregon Daily Journal, including the Sunday issue, and The Wheatfield, one year $7. The Daily Journal and Wheatfield one year $5. The Semi-Weekly Journal and The Wheatfield one year $1.75.

The hailstone continues to show a steady, healthy growth. A few years ago hailstones the size of pigeon eggs aroused our interest; later we were called on to admire some as large as hens' eggs, and now we give the tribute of pleased surprise to hailstones as large as oranges. We confidently look forward to the time when some enthusiastic correspondent, writing of the mammoth wonders of the county fair, will throw conservatism to the winds and tell us of the prize pumpkin nearly as big as a hailstone.—Portland Journal.

COUNTY ASSESSOR WAYLAIN

J. W. Coulter, of Leslie, S. D., Assessor of Stanly County, relates the following: "I was waylaid by a complication of throat and lung troubles, bronchitis, asthma and a terrible cough, which had affected me for years, when I was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery. Relief came almost immediately, and in a short time a permanent cure resulted." No other medicine compares with as a sure and quick cure for cough and colds. It cures after all other remedies have failed. Every bottle guaranteed at W. P. McMillan's drug store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

CHAFF FROM THE STRAW STACK

Honesty lasts longest.
 Observation is a good teacher.
 Some are wise. Some are otherwise.
 Who loses his temper is in the wrong.
 He who deceives you once is never trusty.
 There is as much to be gained by thinking as by reading.
 Observe the face of the wife to know the husband's character.
 Never make a verbal agreement when it can be reduced to writing.

MAY LIVE 100 YEARS

The chances for living a full century are excellent in the case of Mrs. Jennie Duncan, of Haynesville, Me., now 70 years old. She writes: "Electric Bitters cured me of Chronic Dyspepsia of 20 years standing, and made me feel as well and strong as a young girl." Electric Bitters cure Stomach and Liver diseases, Blood disorders, General Debility and bodily weakness. Sold on a guarantee at W. P. McMillan's drug store. Price only 50c.

Give praise where praise is due, but deal out censure with a sparing hand.

Use yourself to thinking, and you will find that you have more in your head than you thought for.

Bill Nye, the humorist, once had a cow to sell, the story goes, and advertised her as follows: "Owing to my ill health, I will sell at my residence, in township 19, range 18, according to the government's survey one plush raspberry cow, aged 8 years. She is of undoubted courage and gives milk frequently. To a man who does not fear death in any form she would be a great boon. She is very much attached to her present home with a stay log chain but she will be sold to any one who will agree to treat her right. She is one fourth short horn and three fourths hyena. I will also throw in a double-barrel shot gun, which goes with her. In May she usually goes away for a week or two and returns with a tall red calf with wabby legs. Her name is Rose. I would rather sell her to a non-resident."

BEATS THE MUSIC CURE

"To keep the body in tune," writes Mrs. Mary Brown, 20 Lafayette Place Poughkeepsie, N.Y. "I take Dr. King's New Life Pills. They are the most reliable and pleasant laxative I have found." Best for the Stomach, Liver and Bowels. Guaranteed by W. P. McMillan druggist. 25c.
