At the adjourned meeting of the stockholders of the Lexington Creamery Company, held last Saturday evening John Iler, W. E. Leach, Andrew Reaney, R. L. Benge and Wm. Padberg were elected directors for the coming year. The directors meeting followed immediately and they organized by electing John Iler, President; R. L. Benge, Vice-president; W. E. Leach, Secretary and Treasurer. Communications from butter makers were read and it was decided to employ an Ohio man as butter maker to be here and ready to start the creamery by September 1st. It is expected to have cows enough pledged by that time to start with and we predict that within six months the number of creamery patrons will double.

In writing up the celebration at Heppner, Bro. Carter, of the lone Proclaimer, feeling the effects of the "red pop" he had imbibed, lets go the following:

sicians of a theatrical troop furnished some choice music during the day."

The facts are that it was decided by the management of the Heppner celebration to retain the best band for the second day's program, and the Lexington band secured the services of three players, cornet, slide trombone and a snare drummer, belonging to Ford's Show Co., to assist them. The lone band tried to employ these players but failed to make connections and did get two players from Heppner to assist them. The Lexington band is composed of men who have played together for a number of years and are able to take up a piece of music and play it at sight. The lone band is not in their class and is composed of persons, mostly beginners, and were out-classed. The members of the lone band treated the Lexington boys very gentlemanly, and we do not wish to be understood as saying anything to discourage them as they have made good progress since they organized, and believe that by another season they will be able to put up as good a grade of music as any band in this part of the country. We do believe that the business men or the members of the lone band approve of this slur cast by Bro. Carter, who is so narrow that he can see no good in Lexington and will resort to anything in an effort to cast a blur on Lexington and her people.

Modest Claims Often Carry the Most Conviction.

When Maxim, the famous gun inventor, placed his gun before a committee of judges, he stated its carrying power to be much below what he felt sure the gun would accomplish. The result of the trial was therefore a great surprise, instead of disappointment. It is the same with the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. They do not publicly boast of all this remedy will accomplish, but prefer to let the users make the statements. What they do claim, is that it will positively cure diarrhoea, dysentery, pains in the stomach and bowels and has never been known to fail. For sale by W. P. McMillan.
