LEXINGTON GROWS WITHOUT WATCHING

LEXINGTON WHEATFIELD

VOL. I

LEXINGTON, OREGON, THURSDAY JULY 26, 1906

NO. 44

COUNTY NEWS.

One Proclaimer—

Mrs. C. C. Chick, accompanied by aged mother, Mrs. E. A. Sherwin, arrived Tuesday from Hardman and have taken up their residence in the house on Main St., formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Everitt.

Miss Audrey Woolery was in Lexington the first of the week soliciting subscriptions for the Pacific Northwest. She found the business men there very courteous and she came home with a good list of new subscribers from that place.

Heppner Times—

The first home grown peaches of the season were brought in from Butter Creek yesterday by A. E. Westenberg. While the peach crop on the creek is not large this year the fruit is an excellent quality.

W. T. Campbell, who was in town Saturday from his ranch south of Lexington, thinks grain in his locality has been injured not more than 25 per cent or probably less. In other words, wheat that was estimated at 25 to 35 bushels per acre will be cut down to 20 or 25 bushels.

C. A. Minor, who was in town Tuesday, said the grain crop on the Penland ranch is looking fine and is not injured in the least by the heat. He commenced heading this week, but is short of help and has ordered a binder. With this he can leave the grain in the shock until he can get to it without injury to the grain.

Heppner Gazette—

The Heppner ice plant is running full time. The plant is taxed to its fullest capacity to supply the demand.

Judge T. W. Ayers and wife and the Thornton boys left Friday morning for Newport where they will spend some time at the seaside.

Don't cultivate the habit of looking for something to worry about. You may some day have your search rewarded.

COUNTY ASSESSOR WAYLAI

J. W. Coulter, of Leslie, S. D., Assessor of Stanly County, relates the following: "I was waylaid by a complication of throat and lung troubles, bronchitis, asthma and a terrible cough, which had affected me for years, when I was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery. Relief came almost immediately, and in a short time a permanent cure resulted." No other medicine compares with as a sure and quick cure for cough and colds. It cures after all other remedies have failed. Every bottle guaranteed at W. P. McMillan's drug store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Read The Wheatfield and be happy.
