Entered as second-class matter October 6, 1905, at the post office at Lexington, Oregon, under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

THURSDAY AUGUST 9, 1906.

Almost every merchant agrees that prosperity is induced by prosperity—in other words, nothing succeeds like success. Prosperity will not induce a continuance of itself if it is concealed. Make it known that you are prosperous. It is one of the functions of advertising. Not alone the merchant profits by prosperity advertising. The city which announces its phenomenal growth, the state which shows its statistics of advancement, benefit by their advertising methods. The news paper is the natural and the best medium for advertising.—Oregon Tradesman.

An influential citizen of Ione has requested us to overlook the ravings of the long eared muddle brained insect that pretends to preside over the destiny of the Proclaimer. This party says: "Carter is not to blame, he doesn't know any better and is keeping Ione in a muddle continually. He is hurting the entire county." We refrain from making any reply to the jumbled item in the last issue of the Proclaimer, and we do not care to bring ourself down to the low level of the man behind the "mouthpiece".

SENTENCE SERMONS

By Henry F. Cope.

Convenience often poses as conscience.

The honest cask does not fear the knocker.

Unless you lay out your work, your work will lay you out.

It doesn't take many braces to make a binder

The chesty man seldom has accommodations for a full grown heart.

The tears that accompany a choking up process are not always those of repentance.

You cannot prove your grit by throwing sand into the world's sores.

The things you look at in private determine what you look like in public.

Jump at a conclusion and you will find confusion.

Many a door of opportunity is closed to a man on account of his imagined chest measure.

Many a man think he is spiritual because he has forgotten how to be natural.

While sympathy waits for second thoughts selfishness gets the floor.

You can discount the patriotism that never warms up till the pocket-book is in danger.

Trouble is the only thing that comes in answer to the prayer for something to turn up.

The man who has brains back of his forehead never needs to bother as to how the front of it looks.

Unnecessary Expense

Acute attacks of colic and diarrhoea come without warning and prompt relief must be obtained. There is no necessity of incurring the expense of a physician's service in such cases if Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is at hand. A dose of this remedy will relieve the patient before a doctor could arrive. It has never been known to fail, even in the most severe and dangerous cases and no family should be without it. For sale by W. P. Mc Millan's Drug Store.

No man ever made enough money to build a mausoleum for his guilty past.

The man who is sitting hard on thorns in his own lot has a fine appreciation of his neighbor's roses.

Lacks Chin, but Not Grit.

It is generally believed that a man of force must have chin. Not only the mentum, but the entire mandible, must be well developed. Yet here is John Redmond, the new leader of the Liberal party in England, with no chin to speak of, one of the most ambitious men in public life, distinctly clever, always fighting against heavy odds, always coming up smiling after every defeat and finally accomplishing. John Redmond declared war against Great Britain many years ago, provoking shouts of laughter on both sides of the house of commons. There is no laughter now, only wonder and obedience.—New York Press.

Price List of Wives.

Here is a partial list of the prices at which wives are purchased in the world's market: Kaffiriani, South Africa, price of wife, two to ten cows; Uganda, South Africa, box of cartridges and six needles; Karak, pair of old shoes; Tartary, Asia, her weight in butter; Tirmo, pound of ivory or jackknife; Kamehatka, Asia, from one to ten reindeers; Mishensis, Asia, from one hog to ten oxen; Ceylon, Asia, box of matches; Navajo, Mexico, upward of twelve horses; Unyoro, South America, merchandise on the installment plan; Upernivik, Greenland, whetstone or file.

His Seniority.

A deputation of Australian unemployed called recently on Mr. Carruthers, the premier, at Sydney. Two of the leaders wanted to speak first. Said one, "I claim the right to speak before you on the grounds of seniority."

"On grounds of what?"

"Seniority. Why, I have been connected with the unemployed for fifteen years!"

Fires in Coal Mines.

The use of milk of lime for quickly and effectively extinguishing fires in coal mines is recommended by Inspector Wolfgang Kummer, a German. The suggestion is not new, but has been newly tested with satisfactory results. The emulsion—which can be used with hand or power pumps—runs into and fills the crevices of the coal or mineral.

City Ownership of Hens.

The Mundesley (England) parish council, which struck out a new line in municipalization by starting a poultry farm, has realized profits on the first year's working which are equal to a reduction in the parish taxes of a cent and a fifth on the dollar.—Chicago Journal.

LUCKIEST MAN IN ARKANSAS

"I'm the luckiest man in Arkansas," writes H. L. Stanley, of Bruno, "since the restoration of my wife's health after five years of continuous coughing and bleeding from the lung; and I owe my good fortune to the world's greatest medicine, Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which I know from experience will cure consumption if taken in time. My wife improved with first bottle and twelve bottles completed the cure." Cures the worst coughs and colds or money refunded. At W. P. McMillan druggist, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

A HEALING GOSPEL

The Rev. J. C. Warren, pastor of Sharon Baptist Church, Belair, Ga., says of Electric Bitters: "It's Godsend to mankind. It cured me of lame back stiff joints, and complete physical collapse. I was so weak it took me half an hour to walk a mile. Two bottles of Electric Bitters have made me so strong I have just walked three miles in 50 minutes and feel like walking three more. It's made a new man of me." Greatest remedy for weakness and all Stomach, Liver and Kidney complaints. Sold under guarantee at W. P. McMillan's Drug Store Price 50c.
