

GENTRY'S BARBER SHOP
 J. E. GENTRY, Proprietor.
FIRST CLASS SHAVING AND HAIRCUTTING
 Agent for Crescent Steam Laundry
 Shop one door west Lexington Bank
LEXINGTON, OREGON.

W.P. McMILLAN

Drugs
 Stationery
 Confections
 School Supplies
 Toilet Articles
 Etc. Etc.

LEXINGTON, OREGON

LOCAL NEWS

Cut the unsightly weeds.
 Threshermen are busy these days.
 Dr. M. A. Leach, Dentist, Heppner
 A nice refreshing shower fell Sunday evening.
 Boost Lexington the best town in Morrow county.
 E. D. Brown and family moved into town last Monday.
 Dan P. Doherty spent a few days in town this week.
 Mrs. N. S. Phelps is reported as quite ill this week.
 E. M. Larkin spent a few days in Lexington this week.
 Karl Beach left for the mountains last Sunday morning.
 When you know any news, give it to a Wheatfield reporter.
 One of J. S. Baldwin's children has been quite ill the past week.
 W. E. Leach and family are spending this week in the mountains.
 Eph Eskelson and family are in the mountains for a weeks recreation.
 Dr. Higgs, Specialist, eye, ear, nose and throat. Heppner, Oregon.
 Barnett & Co. have inaugurated a week Bargain Sale. See their advertisement.
 R. L. Benge, wife and little daughter are enjoying life in the mountains this week.
 Get your stationery at the Wheatfield Printery and your business will never become stationary.
 Attorney S. E. Notson and family, of Heppner, are the guests of Lexington friends today.
 Mrs. Caroline French, of Heppner, spent last Tuesday with her daughter, Mrs. R. J. Howard.

FOUND—The best place in Morrow county to get commercial printing is at The Wheatfield Printery.

C. F. Overbaugh, Traveling Freight Agent for the O. R. & N., spent a few hours in Lexington this week.

A. K. Fuller has his harvesting and threshing completed. His grain made an average of nearly 14 bushels per acre.

We will always be glad to get news items from the surrounding country. We want some good correspondents in the country.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Calkin spent last Saturday and Sunday in Ione. Mrs. Calkin remained to visit relatives for a few days.

Mrs. Daniel Potter, of Lewisville, Wash., sister of Mrs. R. J. Howard, is spending a few weeks with relatives and friends in this county.

Prof. R. B. Wilcox was in town Tuesday and informed The Wheatfield that school would commence the first Monday in September.

A sample of water taken from the Lexington water system was sent to the State Board of Health for analysis. The returns show that the water is good drinkable water and free from all bacteria.

B. F. Swaggart was in town yesterday to meet his wife who arrived from Pendleton on yesterday's train. Mr. Swaggart said he was well satisfied with his crop this year taking the season into consideration.

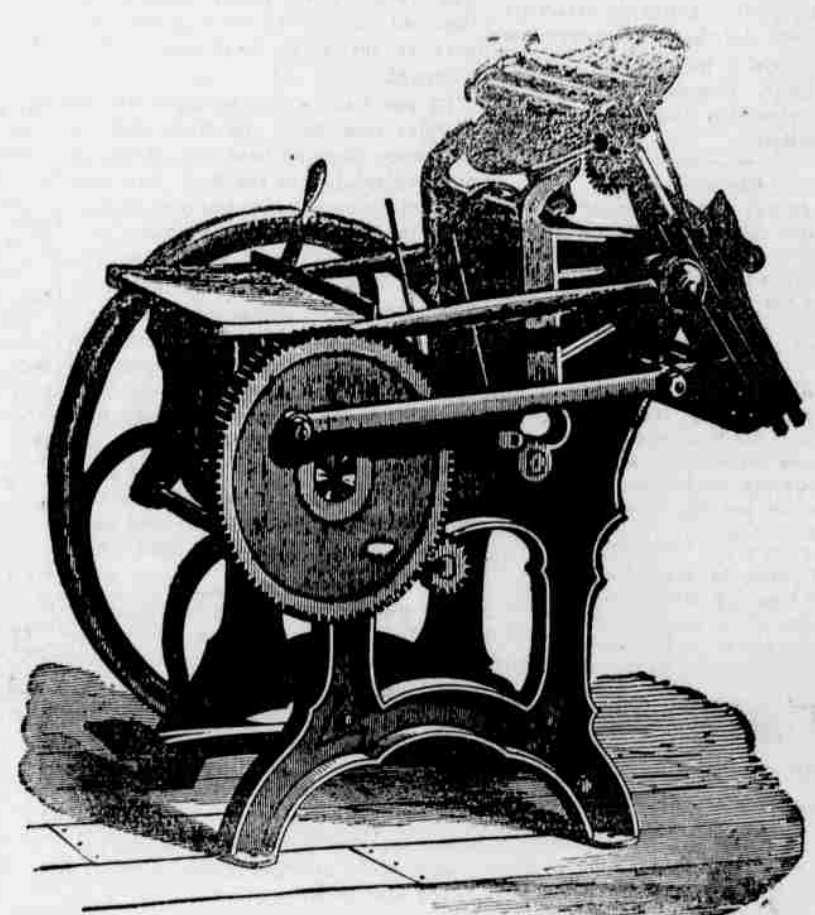

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Howard last Saturday morning, which lived only a moment after birth. The mother's life was saved by close medical attention and the constant care of the nurse. The little infant was taken to Heppner Sunday morning where it was interred in the Heppner cemetery.

A Mr. Hynd, an old gentleman, living in the Sand Hollow country, got turned around last Saturday and started for home in the opposite direction from what he should have went. He wandered over the country all day and

This Space Reserved For
W. G. SCOTT & CO.
 Lexington, Oregon.

LEXINGTON MEAT MARKET
 FAIRCHILD & MARLATT, Proprietors.
FRESH AND SAUSAGES
SALT AND MEATS LARD

HIGHEST MARKET PRICE PAID FOR HIDES
 LEXINGTON, OREGON.

TRY THE WHEATFIELD FOR YOUR JOB WORK

finally reached the home of Mr. Wiles at South Springs by night. When he did not appear at home by the time he should have arrived there an alarm was given and searching parties were organized who spent the night searching for the lost man. Mr. Wiles took him to his home early Sunday morning.

Mont Ward, of Condon, uncle of Mrs. Wm. A. Graham, spent last Saturday and Sunday in Lexington. Mr. Graham accompanied him home where he has accepted a position as foreman on one of Mr. Ward's ranches. Mrs. Graham will remain in Lexington a few weeks and continue to receive medical treatment. Mrs. Graham was almost an invalid when she came to Lexington, but under the skillful care of Dr. Hunter has made great improvement and expects to be in perfect health when she leaves here.

OUR EXCHANGES

Heppner Times—
 A. Andrews returned Monday from an extensive visit with his sister at Ashland and his daughter at Coos Bay. Mrs. Andrews did not accompany her husband but will remain a few weeks longer with her daughter, Mrs. Louis Putnam, before returning. Mr. Andrews reports a very pleasant visit; also that the Coos Bay country is building up very rapidly.

Ten dollars apiece for grouse is a pretty high price, but that is the price paid for a couple by C. A. Minor last week. It appears that Mr. Minor was not aware of the fact that the time for the open season for grouse hunting was changed by the last legislature, and for that reason was "run in" by Deputy Game Warden V. H. Heath. The open season for grouse hunting now begins August 15 instead of August 1.

It is so easy to find fault with the good things possessed by others.

WHEAT BOUGHT.

Wharton buys wheat and barley. Market quotations received daily. E. D. Brown will represent me at Lexington. Phone or call on him for prices. Quotations today are:

Blue Stem	58
Club	56
Red wheat	53

Summer Diarrhoea in Children

During the hot weather of the summer months the first unnatural looseness of child's bowels should have immediate attention, so as to check the disease before it becomes serious. All that is necessary is a few doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy followed by a dose of castor oil to cleanse the system. Rev. M. O. Stockland, Pastor of the first M. E. Church, Little Falls, Minn., writes: "We have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for several years and find it a very valuable remedy, especially for summer disorders in children." Sold by V. P. Holdman's Drug Store.

THE WHEATFIELD
 ONE YEAR ONE DOLLAR