Get your stationery at the Wheatfield Printery and your business will never become stationary.

A number of final proof notices have been received and will be published in our next issue.

Don't forget the Third Eastern Oregon District Fair to be held at Pendleton, September 24 to 29.

FOUND—The best place in Morrow county to get commercial printing is at The Wheatfield Printery.

We will always be glad to get news items from the surrounding country. We want some good correspondents in the country.

Miss Grace Cole, of Walla Walla, arrived last Friday and assumed charge of the Intermediate department of the school Monday.

The dwelling of J. M. White was wired for electric lights last Friday. Mr. White has the honor of being the first to have his residence wired under the new rates.

Mrs. A. E. Beymer purchased the Hotel Lexington last Friday and took charge Saturday evening after supper. Mr. and Mrs. Doherty have moved into the building north of The Wheatfield.

S. E. Lee left Tuesday for an extended trip through Arkansas, Kansas and Missouri. He expects to be gone about one month. During his absence R. C. Warren will have charge of his real estate office.

Miss Agnes Hammer returned to Lexington Saturday last and resumed charge of the Primary department of the school Monday. Miss Hammer spent her summer vacation at Portland and Newberg.

Subscriptions to the Pacific North west will be received at this office. Subscription price 50 cents per year, three years for $1. Subscriptions received will be forwarded to Miss Audrey Woolery, at lone.

A young man weighing 15 pounds came to G. W. Allyn's home last Monday evening and made application for board and lodging. They found room for him and will endeavor to keep him with them.

The Wheatfield is in receipt of a letter from R. C. Phelps, who is now in the Walla Walla country, ordering The Wheatfield sent to him at Prescott, Wash. Royal says farm help is scarce there and that $3 per day is the lowest wages paid.

We have accepted the agency for the Columbia Phonograph Co. and have a stock of Disc and cylinder records on hand. Parties desiring Columbia Phonographs, any style, can secure them from us at the same price they would have to pay in Portland. We pay the freight.

J. T. Alexander, of Portland, has purchased the Geo. W. McKee ranch and will move his family onto it as soon as Mr. McKee can vacate. Mr. Alexander is now in the county making arrangements and getting acquainted with the people. Mr. McKee will move his family to Portland as soon as threshing is completed.

At the regular meeting of the Council last Monday evening the regular routine work was done and the Council granted permission to the Lexington Creamery Co. to put a drain pipe from the Creamery to the creek. Bills of J. B. White for $7.10 and W. G. Scott for $24 allowed. Ordinance relating to dog tax was repealed.

F. W. Sargent, recently of Hoquiam, Wash., formerly of Iowa, arrived in Lexington Monday evening to take charge of the Creamery as Superintendent and butter maker. Mr. Sargent has had some twelve years experience in butter factories and is a graduate of the Iowa State Dairy School, at Ames, Iowa. It is expected that the Creamery will start in about two weeks.

Lexington people were considerably surprised last Saturday evening, when a telephone message was received from Heppner, stating that L. S. Gilbreath and Miss Iona White were married. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbreath returned to Lexington Sunday morning, where they received the congratulations of a host of friends. Mr. Gilbreath is the manager of the Kerr, Gifford Co.'s local warehouse, and while he has only been in this county a little over one year he has gained the friendship of nearly everyone, by his honest and square dealings with all. The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. White, of this city, and is well and favorably known by all, having always taken an active interest in church and social affairs. The Wheatfield joins their many friends in wishing them a safe and prosperous journey along life's pathway.

WHEAT BOUGHT.

Wharton buys wheat and barley. Market quotations received daily. E. D. Brown will represent me at Lexington. Phone or call on him for prices.
