RUSSIAN VERSUS TURK.

A Contest in Which Ivan Won With Laughable Ease.

Some years ago a Russian and a Turkish officer were having a dispute as to the superiority in discipline of their respective soldiers.

"I can prove to you on the spot," said the Russian, "how perfectly our men are trained," and he called his orderly, "Ivan!" "Sir," "Go to Mehemet's, buy me a pound of tobacco and come back at once."

The soldier saluted, turned on his heel and went out. "Now," said the Russian officer, taking out his watch, "my orderly is walking straight to the next corner, where he must turn; now he is turning; now he is opposite the white mosque; now he is crossing the maydan; now he is at Mehemet's; now he is buying the tobacco; now he is coming back; now he is on the block below us; now he is at the door; now— And the Russian called out, "Ivan!"

"Where's my tobacco?"
"Here, sir."

The Turkish officer, showing no sign of surprise at the precision of this Russo-tobacco movement, promptly broke out:

"Ho, ho! My soldier can do that every day in the week," and he called, "Muchtar!"

"Sir."

"Go to Ali Effendi's and see that you bring me a pound of tobacco. My pipe is empty."

"Instantly, sir."

Following the tactics of the Russian officer, the Turk pulled out his watch and went on: "Muchtar is in the street; now he is passing the palpooh bazaar; now it is noon and he is saying his prayers; now he is drinking at the stone fountain; now Ali Effendi hails him and asks him about my health; now Muchtar is paying for the tobacco; now he is coming back by another way; now he is on our street; now he is at the door; now—

"Muchtar!" shouted the officer.

"Sir."

"Where is my tobacco?"
"I haven't found my shoes yet!"

Philadelphia's Famous Scrapple.

To make Philadelphia scrapple stew two pounds of fresh pork until thoroughly done. Take the meat up and add enough water to the liquor in the kettle to make a quart. Remove the bones and chop the meat, then put it back in the kettle. Season, adding sage or summer savory and onion, if desired. Then sift in cornmeal, boiling slowly and stirring as if for mush. Make it thick enough to slice when cold. Turn into a dish, and when wanted for the table slice and fry in drippings. The quantity may be increased, as it will keep a long time in winter.

CLARK'S CANYON

N. Shaw is making trips to the mountains.

Mrs. Will Padberg and Mrs. John Padberg went to Ione last week.

The coyotes have been stealing Wm. Padberg's little pigs. He has put out poisoned horse meat to bait them.

Clark's Canyon school began October 1st. There are twelve pupils enrolled and Miss Margaret Hammer is instructor.

A Sunday school was organized October 7th at the Clark's Canyon school house. Mr. Green is superintendent. The hour is 2 p. m.

Mr. Harmer has returned from threshing. He feels as though his crop was a failure, but a Willamette Valley person would think it was good. What would a good crop be?

NOTHING TO FEAR.

Mothers need have no hesitancy in continuing to give Chamberlain's cough remedy to their little ones, as it contains absolutely nothing injurious. This remedy is not only perfectly safe to give small children, but is a medicine of great worth and merit. It has a world wide reputation for its cures of coughs, colds and croup and can always be relied upon. For sale by W. P. McMillan's Drug Store.

MONEY FOR BOYS
Boys—at least one in every town, large or small, in the Oregon country—can earn money, and earn it easily, selling THE DAILY and SUNDAY JOURNAL. No energy is required to make the sale, and only the ability to make it needed. To say they will sell you the glass we will send 10 copies of THE SUNDAY JOURNAL, to be sold at 5 cents each. After that all papers that are required will be delivered to him by mail or express at wholesale prices, and he becomes a "full fledged newspaper dealer." You can start any time, and if successful handling THE SUNDAY JOURNAL, can order can be sent in for THE DAILY JOURNAL.
ALL THE NEWS, and many special features of interest to man and woman, and besides, has all the children's comic pages narrated by the big Sunday papers of the coast.
JOURNAL boys are making as much as $5 to $8 a week in small towns in the Northwest. Don't you want to try it?
$25 IN CASH
No extra price will be divided monthly, in addition to the regular price, among those JOURNAL boys who do the best percentages. In this way the boys in the smaller places will have as much chance to earn this extra money as those in the larger towns. Get in THE JOURNAL process: THE JOURNAL, "winner."
Address: THE JOURNAL, Portland, Or.

Everyone should subscribe for his home paper, in order to get all the local news, but to keep in touch with the world's daily events should also read

Saving His Dignity.
The ceremonial of the Chinese court, which used to include complete prostration before the throne, was once the occasion for a display of cool audacity. In the eighteenth century a Persian envoy refused to go through the degrading ordeal, and directions were given to the officials to compel him by stratagem to do so. On arriving one day at the entrance to the hall of audience the envoy found no means of going in except by a wicket, which would compel him to stoop very low. With great presence of mind and considerable audacity the ambassador turned around and entered backward, and thus, according to his own conception of etiquette, saved the dignity of his country from outrage.

HUMAN BLOOD MARKS.
A tale of horror was told by marks of human blood in the home of J. W. Williams, a well known merchant of Bac, Ky. He writes: "Twenty years ago I had severe hemorrhages of the lungs, and was near death when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. It completely cured me and I have remained well ever since." It cures Hemorrhages, Chronic Coughs, Settled Colds and Bronchitis, and is the only known cure for Weak Lungs. Every bottle guaranteed by W. P. McMillan, Druggist. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
