Entered as second-class matter October 6, 1905, at the post office at Lexington, Oregon, under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

THURSDAY OCTOBER 25, 1906.

The people of Lexington were greatly surprised last Monday morning to find a sign reading, "Going Out of Business", on the front of Leach Bros' store. W. E. Leach, manager of the large store was seen by the Wheatfield man and was informed that it was the intention of the firm to go out of business. Mr. Leach has been in active business in Lexington the past ten years, part of the time under the firm name of Nichols & Leach, afterwards the interests of Mr. Nichols was purchased and the style was changed to Leach Bros'. We believe that we voice the sentiments of everyone in saying that we regret very much that this firm has decided to close out their stock and quit business, yet we hope that the Leach Brothers may prosper wherever they may decide to locate and in all of their undertakings. See their announcement in this issue.

Upon complaint of Mesdames C. A. Johnson and Julius Subert, five boys were arrested and brought before Recorder White last Monday. Four of the number plead guilty to the crime of insulting ladies on the streets and using vile and profane language. The fifth one plead not guilty and his case will be called for trial next Saturday afternoon.

HOLLOWE'EN SOCIAL

The caps may be any color or any style desired, and any kind of pie they wish to make. One of each of these pairs of caps will be auctioneered to the gentlemen, and after they are sold each gentleman will eat a pie with the lady wearing the mate to his cap. Every one is expected to remain after the pies are eaten to have a pleasant social time with music, games, etc.

OREGON JOURNAL
MONEY FOR BOYS
Boys—at least one in every town, large or small, in the Oregon country—can earn money, and earn it easily, selling THE DAILY and SUNDAY JOURNAL. No money is required to make the start, and only the ability to hustle is needed. To any boy who will try the plan we will send 10 copies of THE SUNDAY JOURNAL, to be sold at 8 cents each. After that all papers that are required will be delivered to him by mail or express at wholesale prices, and he becomes a "full fledged newspaper dealer." You can start any time, and if successful handling THE SUNDAY JOURNAL, this order can be sent in for THE DAILY JOURNAL.
THE SUNDAY JOURNAL contains ALL THE NEWS, and many special features of interest to men and women, and, besides, has all the children's comic pages carried by the big Sunday papers of the east.
JOURNAL boys are making as much as $10 to $15 a week in small towns in the Northwest. Don't you want to try it?
$25 IN CASH!
In some places, will be divided monthly, in addition to the regular profits, among those JOURNAL boys who do the best work—who increase their orders the largest percentages. In this way the boys in the smaller places will have as much chance to earn this extra money as those in the larger towns. Get in THE JOURNAL procession! THE JOURNAL PUBLISHER!
