CHAFF FROM THE STRAW STACK

Dont knock.
 Please pay the printer.
 Boo! It's cold! Skiddoo! 23!
 It is easy to poke another man's fire.
 It's a shame to take the money—but we need it.
 A fault finder sours the milk of human kindness.
 Printing is our business. We want yours. See?
 Many a cheerful looking s'pper covers an aching sole.
 What do you think about the good old summer now.
 Learn to labor while you wait if you would work wonders.
 At any rate, the fool is never stingy with his ignorance.
 No, madam, the shingles do not attack one on the roof of the mouth.
 This is not very good weather for the ice man. Its the coal man again.
 The truly wise one believes nothing he sees and remembers nothing he hears.
 A kid asked us this question: "What is grass?" Whiskers on the face of the earth.
 It is natural that we should learn to crawl when we are babies, but some men never get over it.
 The fellow who makes hay while the sun shines doesn't have to borrow an umbrella when it rains.
 Some men are so lucky that when they steal an umbrella they find it is one that was stolen from them some time ago.
 Hogs are getting to be hogs these days. We have lots of fine hogs in Oregon, but they are not the right kind.
 You can tell the merits of a theatrical organization by the number of brindle pups they pilot about on a string. The more pups the poorer the show.
