LOCAL NEWS

We will always be glad to get news items from the surrounding country. We want some good correspondents in the country.

The Wheatfield has just completed arrangements with the Oregon Journal whereby we are able to furnish the Oregon Daily Journal, including the Sunday issue, and The Wheatfield, one year $7. The Daily Journal and Wheatfield one year $5. The Semi-Weekly Journal and The Wheatfield one year $1.75.

GROUP

A reliable medicine and one that should always be kept in the home for immediate use is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will prevent the attack if given as soon as the celd become hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears. For sale by W. P. McMillan's Drug Store.

Remenyi's Koula.

On one of his early concert tours of the west, before the famous violinist, Eduard Remenyi, was thoroughly familiar with the railway routes of the United States, he inquired in Chicago concerning the best way to reach a town in Illinois.

"C. B. and Q.," replied the hotel clerk without looking up.

Remenyi was quite dazed. But, says the contributor of the story to the memoir of the violinist, his sense of fun carried him through.

"Ah!" he said gravely. "Then I will go D. A. T."

It was the clerk's turn to be puzzled.

"What does that mean?" he said, looking up this time.

"Well, what did you mean?" demanded Remenyi.

"Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, of course."

"Ah! I meant day after tomorrow."

Sermon Stealers.

"Sermon stealers," said a minister, "ought to be careful. They ought to read over several times the sermons that they steal before delivering them."

"I know a young man of twenty-one or twenty-two who preached a stolen sermon he had not read over, and in a most impressive part he found himself declaiming, 'My friends, when I first came among you more than forty years ago these thin, white locks were thick and brown and this bent back,' etc."

"Another sermon stealer, preaching in a village of about 100 souls, said, before he could check himself, 'In the teeming streets of this great metropolis.'"—London Mail.

By the Barrel.

She is an English woman and a new domestic in a boarding house. She was rolling a heavy barrel along the basement hall when one of the boarders passed her.

"What have you there, Annie?"

"The hash barrel, sir."

"The what?"

"The hash barrel."

"Great Scott! I knew we ate a lot of it, but I didn't think she bought it by the barrel."

SELLS MORE OF CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY THAN OF ALL OTHERS PUT TOGETHER

Mr. Thos. George, a merchant at Mt. Elgin, Ontario, says: "I have had the local agency for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy ever since it was introduced into Canada, and I sell as much of it as I do of all other lines I have on my shelves put together. Of the many dozens sold under guarantee, I have not had one bottle returned. I can personally recommend this medicine as I have used it myself and given it to my children and always with the best results." For sale by W. P. McMillan's Drug Store.
