Dr. M. A. Leach, Dentist, Heppner Sheriff E. M. Shutt was in town yesterday.

Boost Lexington the best town in Morrow county.

Yes, Lexington grows. You don't have to watch it.

A. K. Fuller has the lumber on the ground for a new barn.

A good rain fell on upper Black horse Sunday evening.

A good rain fell last evening which makes the farmer smile.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Inskeep were Heppner visitors Monday last.

There has been wind enough this week to please the oldest inhabitant.

Geo. Sperry spent last Tuesday renewing old acquaintances in Lexington.

The first dance of the season will be given in Artisan hall tomorrow evening.

Mrs. John B. White and children returned from Missouri Monday evening.

Grover Swaggart went to Arlington Tuesday to enjoy a few days hunting geese.

John B. White went to Heppner Tuesday evening returning Wednesday morning.

James DeLong and Ed Berry repaired the residence of H. E. Burchell this week.

Get your stationery at the Wheatfield Printery and your business will never become stationary.

A stockholders meeting of the Creamery Company is called for next Saturday afternoon.

FOUND—The best place in Morrow county to get commercial printing is at The Wheatfield Printery.

Joe Eskelson was in town Monday and deposited another years subscription with The Wheatfield man.

The skating rink is the most popular place in town these days. The skates are all in use each evening.

Chas. Barnett, of Pendleton, came in Tuesday. He drove through with W. J. Wattenberger, of Butter Creek.

F. N. Moyer has purchased the interests of Fred Bengel and R. J. Howard in the livery business and takes possession today.

Wm. Copenhagen was in town yesterday purchasing supplies. He included a years subscription to The Wheatfield among the necessities of his home.

Subscriptions to the Pacific Northwest will be received at this office. Subscription price 50 cents per year, three years for $1. Subscriptions received will be forwarded to Miss Audrey Woolery, at lone.

A. M. Zink was taken suddenly ill last evening with a serious bowel trouble. It was thought for awhile that he would have to be taken to the hospital but at the time of going to press he was easier and a rapid recovery is now expected.

W. J. Wattenberger, of Butter Creek, came to Lexington Tuesday with the Shire Stallion, Prince. Mr. Wattenberger has just purchased a new horse from A. C. Ruby, of Pendleton, and brought Prince to Lexington for sale.

Eli Summers was a pleasant caller at Wheatfield headquarters last Saturday and paid us another years subscription. Mr. Summers says that his apple crop this season was the best for the past five years. The quantity was not so great but the quality was better.

J. L. Stamper, of Lewiston, Idaho, brother of Mrs. Andrew Reaney, spent several days with relatives in town this week. Mr. Stamper is a believer in creameries and spoke of parties in Idaho that buy all their feed for cows and make good money selling the cream.

We might apologize for the appearance of this edition of The Wheatfield, but we have done the best we could and have printed all the live local news we could find. If those who complain would help us by telling of local happenings that come to their notice we could get out a much more interesting paper. When one person has to be reporter, editor and devil, at the same time they are very apt to miss some of the society events.

A BALL IN IDAHO

An unknown exchange says that at a ball given a few years ago at Port Hill, Idaho, a dude cow boy from the sage-brush ranges adjacent to the Palouse was present. He insisted on calling for the dance, and his first effort ran about like this:

Git yo' little sage-hens ready;
Trot 'em out upon the floor—
Line up there you cusses! Steady!
Lively now! One couple more.
Shorty! shed that ol' sombrero.
Bronchol douse that cigarette,
Stop that cussin', Casimero,
'Fore the ladies! Now, all set!
S'lute your ladies, all together!
Ladies opposite the same—
Hit the lumber with your leathers!
Balance all, an' swing yo' dame!
Bunch the heifers in the middle!
Circle stags, and do-se-do—
Pay attention to the fiddle!
Swing her 'round, an' off you go!
First four forward! back to places;
Second foller—shuffle back!
Now you've got it down to cases—
Swing 'em till their trotters crack!
Gents all right a-heel and toin'!
Swing 'em, kiss 'em if you kin—
On to next, and keep agoin'
Till you hit yer pard's a'gin!
Gents to center, ladies 'round 'em

A MOUNTAIN OF GOLD

could not bring as much happiness to Mrs. Lucia Wilke, of Caroline, Wis., as did one 25c box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, when it completely cured a running sore on her leg, which had tortured her 23 long years. Greatest anti-septic healer of Piles, Wounds, and Sores. 25c at W. P. McMillan's Drug store.

Form a basket; balance all!
Whirlyer gals to where yo' found 'em
Promenade around the hall!
Balance to yer pards an' trot 'em
Round the circle double quick!
Grab an' kiss 'em while you've got 'em
Hold 'em to it if they kick!

Ladies' left hand to yer sonnies!
Alaman! Grand right an' left!
Balance all, and swing yer honies—
Pick 'em up an' feel their heft!
Promenade like skerry cattle—
Balance all an' swing yer sweets!
Shake yer spurs, make 'em rattle!
Kenol! Promenade to seats.

BLACK HORSE

Robert VanHorn and George Mead have been baling hay this week.

George Mead went to the mountains last week. He says ice froze about three quarters of an inch thick up there.

Robt. VanHorn and sister, Elva, of Willow Creek visited on Sand Hollow Sunday.

Most every body is putting in their fall grain.

The Black Horse Literary society was to organize Saturday night. There was only four present. We hope there will be a better attendance next Saturday night.

Miss Etta Mead has been having La Grippe. She says it goes pretty tough.

"All maidens are good," says the moralist; are the bad wives maidens turned sour?

IN TIME OF PEACE

In the first months of the Russo-Japan war we had a striking example of the necessity for preparation and the early advantage of those who, so to speak, "have shingled thier roofs in dry weather." The virtue of preparation has made history and given to us our greatest men. The individual as well as the nation should be prepared for any emergency. Are you prepared to successfully combat the first cold you take? A cold can be cured much more quickly when treated as soon as it has been contracted and before it has become settled in the system. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of colds and it should be kept at hand ready for instant use. For sale by W. P. McMillan's drug store.
