LEXINGTON GROWS WITHOUT WATCHING

LEXINGTON WHEATFIELD

VOL. II

LEXINGTON, OREGON, THURSDAY NOVEMBER 15, 1906

NO. 8

CHAFF FROM THE STRAW STACK

Dont knock.
 They may laugh who win.
 East or West, home is best.
 Every fool wants to give advice.
 He is a man who acts like a man.
 For one pleasure a thousand pains.
 Gluttony kills more thaa the sword.
 A lost good name is never retrieved.
 Everyone feels that his own burden is heavy.
 Every bird thinks its own nest is beautiful.
 Never write your own remarks on a borrowed book.
 He is a worthless being, who lives only for himself.
 Fair, good, rich and wise is a woman four stories high.
 In every rank, great or small, 'tis industry supports us all.
 The man without an idea generally, has the greatest idea of himself.
 When you are about doing a dishonorable act, consider what the world will think of you when it is completed.
 A man, who does not examine his own conduct, will be sure to find some good natured friends ready to do it for him.
 Somebody says there is a decided difference between perseverance and obstinancy. One is a strong will and the other is a strong won't.

LOCAL NEWS

Yes, Lexington grows. You don't have to watch it.
 J. T. McMillan had his subscription date put one year ahead, last Friday.
 FOUND—The best place in Morrow county to get commercial printing is at The Wheatfield Printery.
 A cold taken at this time of the year is generally hard to get rid of but it will not be able to withstand Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar. That will cure all colds, coughs, croup, whooping cough, etc, by driving them out through the bowels. If you have a cold, try it and if not cured get your money back. No opiates. Sold by W. P. McMillan's drug store.
