LOCAL NEWS

Robt. VanHorn and family moved into town last Monday. They are occupying C. W. Christenson's residence on Knob Hill.

The skating rink is open each evening and is well patronized. A number of new beginners have been on the floor the past week.

Dr. J. B. Sennett, the Morrow county optician, will be in Lexington on Friday and Saturday of this week. If you need glasses, call and see him.

Rev. T. P. Graham will preach at Liberty school house next Sunday both morning and evening. His appointment there being changed from the 1st Sunday to the 3rd.

Grover Swaggart returned from Arlington last Friday, having bagged an even dozen geese. The Wheatfield family was remembered with a fine young goose for our table.

James Carty and family, who spent the past few months at Mr. Carty's old home in Ireland, returned to Lexington last Saturday. Mr. Carty has returned to Morrow county to stay.

B. F. Swaggart was in town yesterday and said, that while it was rather early for predictions for the winter, he says all indications at this time point to an open winter with plenty of moisture.

Subscriptions to the Pacific Northwest will be received at this office. Subscription price 50 cents per year, three years for $1. Subscriptions re-

A sour stomach, a bad breath, a pasty complexion and other consequences of a disordered digestion are quickly removed by the use of Ring's Dyspepsia Tablets. Two days treatment free. Sold by W. P. McMillan's drug store.

Several members of the Creamery Co. are making a canvas among the ranchers to see how many cows can be secured for the Creamery. At the business meeting last Saturday it was decided to start the Creamery at once if enough cows could be secured.

Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar the original laxative cough syrup acts as a cathartic on the bowels. It is made from the tar gathered from the pine trees of our own country, therefore is the best for children. It is good for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc. Try our free offer. Sold by W. P. McMillan's drug store.

The dance last Friday evening, was one of the most enjoyable affairs of the season. The new hard wood floor in the hall is equal to any dancing floor in the state. A number from lone attended and all seemed to enjoy themselves to the fullest extent. The next dance will attract a much larger crowd.

POSTMASTER ROBBED

G. W. Fouts, Postmaster at River-ton Ia., nearly lost his life and was robbed of all comfort, according his letter, which says: "For 20 years I had chronic liver complaint, which led to such a severe case of jaundice that even my finger nails turned yellow; when my doctor prescribed Electric Bitters; which cured me and have kept me well for eleven years." Sure cure for Biliousness, Neuralgia, Weakness, and all Stomach, Liver, Kidney and Bladder derangements. A wonderful Tonic. At W. P. McMillan's Drug store. 50 cents.

THE WHEATFIELD
PRINTS THE NEWS

THE OREGON JOURNAL
MONEY FOR BOYS
Boys—at least one in every town, large or small, in the Oregon country—can earn money, and earn it easily, selling THE DAILY and SUNDAY JOURNAL. No money is required to make the start, and only the ability to make it needed. To any boy who will try the plan we will send 10 copies of THE SUNDAY JOURNAL, to be sold at 4 cents each. After that all papers that are required will be delivered to him by mail or express at wholesale prices, and he becomes a "full fledged newspaper dealer." You can start any time, and if successful handling THE SUNDAY JOURNAL, then orders can be sent in for THE DAILY JOURNAL.
THE SUNDAY JOURNAL contains ALL THE NEWS, and many special features of interest to men and women, and, besides, has all the children's comic pages carried by the big Sunday papers of the east.
JOURNAL boys are making as much as $5 to $8 a week in small towns in the northwest. Don't you want to try it?
$25 IN CASH
An extra prize, will be divided monthly. In addition to the regular profits, among those JOURNAL boys who do the best work—who increase their orders the largest percentage. In this way the boys in the smaller places will have as much chance to earn this extra money as those in the larger towns. Get in THE JOURNAL procession: THE JOURNAL, Portland, Or.
Address, THE JOURNAL, Portland, Or.
