 The Mask Skating Carnival last Thursday evening was a success in every particular. A goodly number donned masks and enjoyed themselves on the floor. Sambo and Dinah made their appearance about eight o'clock and made merriment for the spectators and life a burden for the floor manager, as Dinah insisted on the floor manager taking part in the festivities and enjoying, at least a part of the good time of others. At nine o'clock the judges awarded the prizes. The prize for the best sustained gentleman character was awarded to Roy Munkers, who representes Frost, while Harry Munkers dressed as a lady, captured first prize for the best sustained lady character. L. A. Purdy representing Dinah, the colored lady from Portland, was an easy winner of the ladies second prize. Modesty forbids us mentioning the name of the party representing Sambo, who took second prize for gentlemen. The crowd entered into the spirit of merry making and all seemed to enjoy themselves to the utmost.

THE GRIP

"Before we can sympathize with others we must have suffered ourselves." No one can realize the suffering attendant upon an attack of the grip, unless he has had the actual experience. There is probably no disease that causes so much physical and mental agony, or which so successfully defies medical aid. All danger from the grip, however, may be avoided by the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy, not one case has ever been reported that has resulted pneumonia or that has not recovered. Sold by W. P. McMillan.
