Charlie Van Winkle was at William Padbergs on January 11th.

The cold weather does not prevent a good attendance at Sunday School.

Joe Hughs went to lone and near Cecil the last week.

Emery, Dilpha and Jay Hiatt have been sick during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Padberg and little son, Irving went to lone on New Years and spent a week at her father's home.

Two parties have been given during the past two weeks. One at Art Hunts and the other at Alton Baseys. The latter served oyster soup, which is all right this cold weather.

CURED OF LUNG TROUBLE

"It is now eleven years since I had a narrow escape from consumption," writes C. O. Floyd, a leading business man of Kershaw, S. C. "I had run down in weight to 135 pounds, and coughing was constant, both by day and by night. Finally I began taking Dr.

King's New Discovery, and continued this for about six months, when my cough and lung trouble were entirely gone and I was restored to my normal weight, 170 pounds." Thousands of persons are healed every year. Guaranteed at W.P. McMillan's drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Mary Eunice, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Helms, died suddenly last Thursday morning.

Funeral services were held in the M. E. Church South Friday afternoon, Rev. J. C. White, of Strawberry, officiating, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Lexington cemetery. Little Mary was born September 13, 1906 and had never been considered a healthy child but death coming suddenly was a great shock to her parents, who have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community.

Disillusioned.

Little Jonathan Edward had often begged his mother to take him to church. That was his heart's desire. So one fine Sunday morning mother took little Jonathan Edward, who, all agreed, was marked for the ministry, to a neighboring sanctuary. There was much in the church to arrest the lad's attention. He seemed to be deeply impressed, and then, becoming thoughtful, he turned and asked in a rather loud whisper, "But, mother, where's the monkey?"

When mother recovered her presence of mind she said: "Why, my dear, there's no monkey in church. What made you think of such an absurd thing?"

"Why—why—you said there was an organ in church, and I thought there would be a monkey too."—Buffalo Commercial.

A Lost Rebuke.

"George," said she in a tone of bitter rebuke, "as far as I can see you are going to the dogs."

"You're never contented, Maria," returned her erring husband. "You made me give up horses, and here you are complaining about dogs. Do I object to your cats and your canaries? No, madam! I would scorn to interfere with your pets, and I beg of you to respect my preference for nobler animals."

His Heartbreaking Task.

"Darling," said the new bride, "I had a terrible feeling of sadness come over me this afternoon at 4 o'clock—a sort of feeling that you were doing something that would break my heart if I knew of it. Think, sweet, what were you doing now, this afternoon at 4 o'clock?"

"I was licking stamps," replied the husband promptly, "and pasting them on envelopes."—New York Press.
