

LEXINGTON WHEATFIELD

ODDFELLOWS ENTERTAIN

The Social given by the Odd Fellows was the most enjoyable event of the season. A short program was given in the fore part of the evening after which the hall was turned over to the young people for games and the older ones to visit. At 10:15 supper was announced and all repaired to the Lodge hall above, where an elegant repast was served, W. E. Leach acting as toast master. An address of welcome was delivered by C. R. McAllister. Rev. T. P. Graham gave a short talk on Odd Fellowship. Mrs. E. E. Thomas gave an interesting talk on Rebekahs. After supper all returned to the lower hall where all enjoyed themselves with games and dancing until midnight when all dispersed each saying that it was one of the most pleasant evenings they had ever spent.
