LAME BACK

This ailment is usually caused by rheumatism of the muscles and may be cured by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm two or three times a day and rubbing the parts vigorously at each application. If this does not afford relief, bind on a piece of flannel slightly dampened with Pain Balm, and quick relief is almost sure to follow. For sale by W. P. McMillan's Drug Store.

CHAFF FROM THE STRAW STACK

By The Wind Stacker

"You had better ask for manners than money," said a finely dressed gentleman to a beggar who asked for alms. "I asked for what I thought you had the most of" was the reply of the mendicant.

A rustic in the West of England was, some years ago, asked on his deathbed if he were not afraid to meet God. "No" he said, "I'm not afraid to meet He. It's that 'ere old black 'un I'm afraid to meet!"

"Mr. Smith, I wish to speak to you privately. Permit me to take you apart for a few moments."

Smith—(who wasn't the least frightened)—"Certainly, sir, if you'll promise to put me together again.

"Did you present your account to the defendant?" inquired a lawyer of his client. "I did, sir." "And what did he say?" "He told me to go to the devil." "And what did you do then?" "Why, then—I came to you."

It took just four one dollar bottles to completely cure the cough and restore me to good sound health," writes Mrs. Eva Uncapher, of Grovertown, Stark Co., Ind.
