MOST BEAUTIFUL WOMAN LIVES IN OUR OWN LAND

JOURNAL INAUGURATES CONTEST TO PROVE THAT OREGON HAS THE FAIREST OF WOMEN

The Oregon Journal has inaugurated a contest to prove that Oregon women are the most beautiful in America. The contest is now on and will continue over an indefinite period, or rather, until the most beautiful Oregon woman has been found and decided upon by a competent jury of awards, the members of which are to be announced later.

It was through a contest inaugurated several months ago by the Chicago Tribune that the present contest was started. Oregonians, and for that matter, people everywhere, know that Oregon has the most beautiful women in America, and that is tantamount to saying the most beautiful in the world. The Journal is one of twenty-three papers in different sections of the country seeking the most beautiful woman in America, and it wants photographs of all the pretty women in the state.

It is expected that thousands of photographs will be considered in the search for the most beautiful woman in Oregon; it is probable that scores of them will appear in the Illustrated Magazine of the Sunday Oregon Journal. It will be an honor well worth the winning to be known as the most beautiful woman in Oregon—which will mean the most beautiful woman in the world.

But the Oregon Journal is going still further in this contest. The purpose will be to find the three most beautiful Oregon women. And as a compliment in exchange for the privilege of publishing these pictures, three substantial prizes are to be awarded the trio of beautiful women, who in the judgement of the jury of awards, are deserving of first, second and third recognition. To the most beautiful woman a check for $75. will be sent; to the second $50; and to third $25.

Actresses and professional models are to be excluded from this beauty contest.

The Wheatfield has been selected by the Oregon Journal as its representative for this vicinity, to assist in this beauty contest by receiving and forwarding the photographs. Send or bring in the photographs at once. The contest will be made thorough before closing, the woman you have in mind may be the one the jury of awards may think the most beautiful.

If you are good you will be happy, but you will miss lots of fun.

A dress does not always make a woman, but often breaks a man.

THE TOWN OF LEXINGTON THE MOST CENTRAL POINT IN MORROW COUNTY, AND ONE OF ITS BEST TOWNS

LEXINGTON is situated on the Heppner branch of the O. R. & N., thirty-five miles from the main line, is located on the most beautiful spot on Willow creek and is in the center of the best wheat producing section of the county. Lexington has a population of 350, an excellent graded school, 2 churches, splendid water system, electric lights, creamery, flouring mill, good hotel, newspaper, numerous secret societies and a number of good substantial business buildings.

Investors who are seeking profitable and safe investments cannot do better than cast their lot with the people of this little community, as is shown by the following:

H. N. Burchell came to this county with his parents, Mr and Mrs. H. E. Burchell, in 1897. He took up Government land and lived on and made proof on his 160 acres. Today he owns 1120 acres of good land, nearly all of which is under cultivation. In addition to this he owns a complete outfit for farming, a lot of first class farm horses and 6 head of registered Jerseys. All of this has been accumulated in the past 10 years. Seven years ago he was married and now has a nicely furnished home. Mr. Burchell thinks that getting married is the most important thing he has done since coming to this county.

When a fellow falls in love with a girl, he can easily get out of it—all he has to do is marry her.

There is said to be a man in Chicago named Damrich—perhaps his financial rating is not what his name indicates.
