Dont knock.

Yes, Lexington grows. You don't have to watch it.

FOUND—The best place in Morrow county to get commercial printing is at The Wheatfield Printery.

The accounts of John B. White have been left with The Wheatfield man for collection. All persons knowing themselves indebted to him will please call and make settlement as soon as convenient.

The Wheatfield has just completed arrangements with the Oregon Journal whereby we are able to furnish the Oregon Daily Journal, including the Sunday issue, and The Wheatfield, one year $7. The Daily Journal and Wheatfield one year $5. The Semi-Weekly Journal and The Wheatfield one year $1.75.

In the treatment of piles it becomes necessary to have the remedy put up in such a form that it can be applied to the parts affected. Man Zan File remedy is encased in a collapsible tube with nozzle attached. It cannot help but reach the spot. Relieves blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles. 50c with nozzle guaranteed. Try it. Sold by W. P. McMillan.

The Wheatfield has been very fortunate in completing a clubbing rate with Sunset Magazine, the magazine of California and all the far West. We can now offer our subscribers, Sunset Magazine, which includes a copy of "The Road of a Thousand Wonders", and The Wheatfield, one year for $1.75. Subscribe today and take advantage of this exceedingly liberal offer.

Henry Padberg, father of Wm. and Louis Padberg, was in town yesterday. Mr. Padberg came to Morrow County in 1870, in search of wealth. He hauled lumber for his first house from the head of Butter Creek, and paid $22.50 per thousand for it at the mill. Hauled wheat to Walla Walla to exchange for flour, taking 8 days to make the trip to mill. Bought his groceries at Umatilla Landing, which point was the trading point for this entire interior country. Mr. Padberg has seen the country develop little realizing that the wilderness, as it then appeared, would ever develop into the rich country it has. Today he is well to do and is so situated that the needs of this life need not worry him in the least. What he has has been made in this country and as he expressed to us, "This country is good enough for me."

By special arrangement we are able to offer the following clubbing rates in connection with The Wheatfield:

Weekly Oregonian	-	$2 00
Semi Weekly Journal	-	1 75
McCall Magazine	-	1 25

(The Queen of Fashions)

The right is reserved by the publishers of the above papers to cancel these prices at any time. In order to secure these reductions subscriptions should be sent in at once.

"PNEUMONIA'S DEADLY WORK

had so seriously affected my right lung, writes Mrs. Fannie Connor, of Rural route 1, Georgetown, Tenn., "that I coughed continuously night and day and the neighbors' prediction—consumption—seemed inevitable, until my husband brought home a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery, which in my case proved to be the only REAL cough cure and restorer of weak, sore lungs." When all other remedies utterly fail, you may still win in the battle against lung and throat troubles with New Discovery, the REAL cure. Guaranteed by W. P. McMillan, druggist. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

OBITUARY

Catherine Francis Calvert, was born near Lexington, Ky., May 4, 1811. Departed this life March 22, 1907, at the home of her son J. Z. McAlister near Weldon, Iowa, at the ripe age of 95 years, 10 months and 11 days. She lived at Lexington; Ky., until she had reached young womanhood, when she moved to Washington Co., Ind., where she was united in marriage to Marshall McAlister, August 29, 1840.

In the spring of 1851, she with her husband moved to Iowa, where she resided up to the time of her death. To the above union were born five children John T. McAlister of Pullman, Washington, Jas. Z. McAlister of Weldon, Iowa, George Harvey McAlister of Le Roy, Ia., Wm. Bruce McAlister of Lexington, Oregon, Julia Catherine who died at the age of three years. She has ten grandchildren and nine great grandchildren living. At the age of seventeen she united with the Baptist church and remained a member of that church until the time of her death.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. George J. McClellan of the Friends church after which the remains were interred in the Matter cemetery followed to their last resting place by a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends.—Osceola, Ia., Sentinel.

Mrs. McAlister resided with her son W. B. McAlister, in this city two years returning to Iowa 21 years ago.

The mother who used to roast her coffee is in heaven.
