Mule raising is the best money making proposition in Oregon, says B. F. Swaggart. I have a few fine young Jacks to dispose of and in payment for them I will take mule colts at $100 each at weaning time. I keep at the East Oregon Jack Farm the stallion, Milwaukee, that won the blue ribbon at the Lewis & Clark Fair. Milwaukee stands at $25 for the season with privilege of returning. Also six fine Oregon Jacks. It has been fully demonstrated that they excell the eastern Jacks for both size and quality of mules. I insure for $10.

Strawberry Flat, many finishing last week. The warm weather is pushing the grain right along and prospects are quite favorable at present, although the unplowed ground is drying out very rapidly.

The Strawberry Sunday School closed at the end of the quarter. There were but few attending and they thought best to close for a while and perhaps reorganize again this fall, that maybe people will take more interest by that time. However there is singing every Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock and preaching every first Sunday at 11 a. m.

The Strawberry school closed last Friday after a five months session. There were quite a number of visitors present and all enjoyed the program in which the teacher, Mr. Earl McCormick, took part the same as his pupils. Mr. McCormick followed out the good old rule of Missouri by giving each pupil a bag of candy. He has given perfect satisfaction and he like the children were very sorry that they must part. Visitors were invited to speak. Mr. H. A. Arnsmeier gave a talk on governing public schools also dwelt on the subject of our county superintendent not visiting the school as he ought to
