Yes, Lexington grows You don't have to watch it.

Society ladies have two different faces—one for home use and the other for company.

FOUND—The best place in Morrow county to get commercial printing is at The Wheatfield Printery.

The accounts of John B. White have been left with The Wheatfield man for collection. All persons knowing themselves indebted to him will please call and make settlement as soon as convenient.

The Wheatfield has just completed arrangements with the Oregon Journal whereby we are able to furnish the Oregon Daily Journal, including the Sunday issues and The Wheatfield, one year $7. The Daily Journal and Wheatfield one year $5. The Semi-Weekly Journal and The Wheatfield one year $1.75.

In the treatment of piles it becomes necessary to have the remedy put up in such a form that it can be applied to the parts affected. Man Zen File remedy is encased in a collapsible tube with nozzle attached. It cannot help but reach the spot. Relieves blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles. 50c with nozzle guaranteed. Try it. Sold by W. P. McMillan.

The Wheatfield has been very fortunate in completing a clubbing rate with Sunset Magazine, the magazine of California and all the far West. We can now offer our subscribers, Sunset Magazine, which includes a copy of "The Road of a Thousand Wonders", and The Wheatfield, one year for $1.75. Subscribe today and take advantage of this exceedingly liberal offer.

By special arrangement we are able to offer the following clubbing rates in connection with The Wheatfield:

Weekly Oregonian - $2 00
Semi Weekly Journal - 1 75
McCall Magazine - 1 25
(The Queen of Fashions)

The right is reserved by the publishers of the above papers to cancel these prices at any time. In order to secure these reductions subscriptions should be sent in at once.

SCHOOL NEWS

Notice has been sent to the teachers that a local institute will be held at Lexington, Saturday, April 27, commencing at 10:30 A. M. Following is the program: "Thoroughness in School Work." Prof. D. V. S. Reid. "The Teacher outside of the School Room" R. B. Wilcox. "History in Grades" Prof. W. C. Howard. School Discipline" Supt. S. I. Stratton. Discussions open to all.

The last meeting of the Social Club was held at the home of Mr. W. G. Scott. A very pleasant evening was spent, and the Club is especially grateful to Mr. and Mrs. Scott for their kindness in entertaining them. The debate on the question of Jackson's policy was won by the Jackson supporters by a vote of two to one. The winning team was Abnzo Tyler, Jas. Pointer and Amanda Waid. Every one enjoyed the debate except—we had not better go into detail as it is understood that the differences have been settled satisfactorily to (2) all concerned.

SOCIAL RIDGE

Seeding is over and harrowing the grain is the order of the day.

Harrison Flower commenced working for C. E. Van Winkle last Monday.

G. M. Allyn, wife and family spent last Sunday with friends on Black

News.
W. T. Campbell and wife, C. E. Van Winkle and wife, G. M. Allyn, Theo. Cork, L. E. Fridley and C. N. Fridley all of Social Ridge, spent last Friday afternoon in Lexington listening to the address given by Mr. Willis, of Pendleton.

Mrs. W. T. Campbell received a very pleasant surprise last Saturday morning. A gentleman walked up to the door and wanted work but the turned him away saying they did not need any more men. But he did not leave immediately and still she did not recognize him and he had to make himself known. It was her brother, Bryce Young, from the Saskatchewan Territory, Canada, whom she had not seen for 21 years. She was looking for him some time this spring but not so soon. Mr. Young is going to spend the summer with his sister here and two other sisters, one who resides near LaGrande, Oregon and the other at Walla Walla, Wash.

OPPRESSIONS DEARER WERE had so seriously affected my right lung, writes Mrs. Fannie Connor, of Rural route 1, Georgetown, Tenn., "that I coughed continuously night and day and the neighbors' prediction—consumption—seemed inevitable, until my husband brought home a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery, which in my case proved to be the only REAL cough cure and restorer of weak, sore lungs." "When all other remedies utterly fail, you may still win in the battle against lung and throat troubles with New-Discovery, the REAL cure. Guaranteed by W. P. McMillan, druggist. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
