LEXINGTON IS A PRETTY GOOD TOWN

LEXINGTON WHEATFIELD

VOL. II LEXINGTON, OREGON, THURSDAY MAY 9, 1907 NO. 33

NEW HERD LAW FOR MORROW CO.

The new herd law that goes into effect in Morrow county, May 25th, is the same as the Sherman county law that has been in effect the past few years. The law is to prevent all stock from running at large in any part of the county and provides for the taking up and impounding of such stock by any person. Parties taking up such stock are required, without unnecessary delay, to give notice of such taking up, which notice shall contain a concise description of such animals, with the marks and brands so that the owner may identify the same, and shall also state that such stock will be sold unless redeemed, giving time and place of sale, either by delivering a copy of such notice to the owner in person if residents of the county and are known to the person so taking up,

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy

There is probably no medicine made that is relied upon with more implicit confidence than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. During the third of a century in which it has been in use, people have learned that it is the one remedy that never fails. When reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take. For sale by W. P. McMillan's Drug Store.

TWO CENT PREMIUM FOR LEXINGTON BUTTER

Returns from Spokane received by W. E. Leach, Secretary of the Lexington Creamery Co., state that Lexington butter sold at a premium of 2 cents above the market and that it is of extra fine quality. These parties state that they can use three to four hundred pounds per week at the advance. The butter-maker, Mr. Keefer, feels highly honored over this premium and it is evident that Lexington has one of the best factories and butter-makers in the state.

Davis: High School team, Jas. Pointer, Alonzo Tyler and Amanda Waid.

Next week the 8th grade class takes the 8th grade state examination. There are six members in regular attendance and Linda Gray from Strawberry expects to come here to take the examination.

Good Words for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

People everywhere take pleasure in testifying to the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mrs. Edward Phillips of Barclay, Md., writes: "I wish to tell you that I can recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My little girl, Catherine, who is two years old, has been taking this remedy whenever she has had a cold since she was two months old. About a month ago I contracted a dreadful cold myself, but I took Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and was soon as well as ever." This remedy is for sale by W. P. McMillan's Drug Store.
