Several of Lexingtons sports, understanding that there was to be some fun at lone last Sunday, traveled to the "Hub" to see the wheels move. It was reported that there was a purse of $10. hung up for the man who would ride their "outlaw cayuse" and Lexington and Clark's Canyon riders were after that purse. After reaching lone it was learned that this "outlaw" was tied up in the stable and the owner, who was away from home, had left strict orders that he was not to be taken out. We will bet a pint of milk with the cream on that the parties who went from here can ride this "outlaw" and do it easy.

Experiments at the Oklahoma Agricultural college illustrate what can be done in the dairy business in any section where a sufficient number of cows are kept to warrant starting a factory and when the farmers will stand by the factory and have confidence in its management and see to it that it is managed successfully.

The patrons have always been willing to deliver sweet cream to the creamery, and to this one fact is attributed much of the success. The butter has been placed on nearly every market in the south and west, and it has never been wanting a buyer. It sells at the top of the market, which enables the creamery to pay a premium for the cream received. Herein lie the hopes of the successful development of dairying in Oklahoma. The price that the farmers receive for their cream depends upon the quality of the product of the factory, and it should be the highest aim of the cream producers whether they patronize an independent creamery, a centralized creamery or are shareholders in a cooperative creamery to deliver to the creamery the best cream that they can possibly produce.

Milk and cream take up odors and taints from unclean vessels in which they may be placed or from any substance emitting tan odor. They are easily spoiled and made unwholesome for food if any dirt or filth gets into them, or if they are covered up tight so that fresh air does not get into them to remove the odors and gases which may be forming in them.

A Guernsey's Great Record.
The third test recently concluded of the Guernsey cow Dolly Bloom shows the remarkable total of 17,297.51 pounds of milk, with an average test of 4.84 per cent of butter fat, an equivalent of 836.21 pounds of butter fat. In the three years in which she has been tested, in two of which she was but a heifer, she gave 38,813.92 pounds of milk and 1,914.1 pounds of butter fat, or an average of 12,927.97 pounds of milk and 638 pounds of butter fat for each of the three years, and considerably more than 6,000 quarts of very rich milk for the three years, including the two years' heifer record.

The feed of the past year's test may be inferred from the ration for February, which was for each day: Three pounds mixed wheat feed, three and three-quarter pounds gluten, three and three-quarter pounds oilmeal, three pounds middlings, three and three-quarter pounds oats, with about twenty-five pounds of stlage and a varying amount of mixed hay, carrots and turnips. The quantity of feed was about the same from month to month, but the kinds of grain were varied. In the summer she had access to good pasturage in addition to the grain ration.

This cow is a member of the well known herd at Langwater farms, North Easton, Mass. Dolly Bloom's wonderful record, says American Cultivator, places her at the head of the Guernsey breed.

RELIEF FROM RHEUMATIC PAINS

"I suffered with rheumatism for over two years," says Mr. Rolland Curry, a patrolman, of Key West, Fla., "Some times it settled in my knees and lamed me so I could hardly walk, at other times it would be in my feet and hands so was incapacitated for duty. One night when I was in severe pain and lame from it my wife went to the drug store here and came back with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I was rubbed with it and found the pain had nearly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than two weeks and found that it drove the rheumatism away. I have not had any trouble from that disease for over three months." For sale by W. P. McMillan's Drug Store.

WONDERFUL ECZEMA CURE

"Our little boy had eczema for five years," writes N. A. Adams, Henrietta Pa. "Two of our home doctors said the case was hopeless, his lungs being affected. We then employed other doctors but no benefit resulted. By chance we read about Electric Bitters; bought a bottle and soon noticed improvement. We continued this medicine until several bottles were used, when our boy was completely cured." Best of all blood medicines and body building health tonics. Guaranteed at W. P. McMillan's Drug Store. 50c.

Cool the Milk Quickly.

Too much care cannot be exercised to cool the milk quickly and keep it cool, as cleanliness and cold are the two main factors in the production of milk that will keep sweet for any reasonable time. Add to this a healthy herd of cows and healthy attendants and we have a summary of the necessary requisites for the production and care of clean milk.

A NARROW ESCAPE

G. W. Cloyd, a merchant, of Plunk, Mo., had a narrow escape four years ago, when he ran a jimson burr into his thumb. He says: "The doctor wanted to amputate it but I would not consent. I bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve and that cured the dangerous wound." 25c at W. P. McMillan's Druggist.
