NOTICE

The best way to build up your own town is to do your trading at home. Patronize your home merchants. If they succeed the chances are you will succeed. When you send a dollar to a mail order house you have the goods and they have the money. Trade at home and we keep both the goods and the money.

CHAFF FROM THE STRAW STACK

By The Wind Stacker

You cannot be of a sonny disposition if you have nothing else but daughters.

A woman may admit that her husband gets tight, but never like her shoes are.

When a lady attends an afternoon party, her husband will wait for supper with pleasure. Aber nit.

Almost every man knows just enough about cooking to be able to advise his wife how to cook. But it is a hard job to wash dishes when she is away from home.

A truly good wife is one who loves her husband and her country but does not try to run either.

The day before a man gets married is several hours longer than the day before the rent is due.

The man who will take an umbrella to church and leave it in the vestibule has the true christian faith.

A woman always feels a secret contempt for the woman who has on a bargain waist or skirt just like hers.

"Thou art fair, but thou art false" the maiden sadly said. Then she laid her blonde hair on the dressing table

A case of sad domestic infelicity is reported from an interior town. Just because he did not get up early enough for breakfast, the wife of a teamster emptied a basin of buckwheat over him and as he dodged out of the kitchen, plugged him with the salt cellar. He had her arrested for salt and battery.

When a woman gives a party it is regarded as a failure unless they have a lot of guessing contests. Why not have the guests to guess at what constitutes the filling in a modern sandwich. Unless it is plain ham without any frills, can you tell what is a sandwich these days. They are using everything from nuts to table varnish.

RELIEF FROM RHEUMATIC PAINS

"I suffered with rheumatism for over two years," says Mr. Rolland Curry, a patrolman, of Key West, Fla., "Some times it settled in my knees and lamed me so I could hardly walk, at other times it would be in my feet and hands so was incapacitated for duty. One night when I was in severe pain and lame from it my wife went to the drug store here and came back with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I was rubbed with it and found the pain had nearly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than two weeks and found that it drove the rheumatism away. I have not had any trouble from that disease for over three months." For sale by W. P. McMillan's Drug Store.

LEXINGTON

An incorporated town with a population of 350, is located on the Heppner branch of the O. R. & N., thirty-five miles from the main line, on the most beautiful spot in the fertile valley of Willow Creek. Lexington has an excellent graded school, two churches, a splendid water system, electric lights, creamery, flouring mill, good hotel, two general merchandise stores, drug store, two saloons, two blacksmith and repair shops, lumber and wood yard, large grain warehouses, barber shop, bank, livery stables, meat market, newspaper, numerous secret societies and a number of good substantial business blocks and beautiful residences. Lexington is the natural marketing point for a large portion of Morrow County's wheat crops, and the surrounding country is rapidly gaining prestige as a dairying community.

Lexington's greatest need is:

WONDERFUL ECZEMA CURE

"Our little boy had eczema for five years," writes N. A. Adams, Henrietta Pa. "Two of our home doctors said the case was hopeless, his lungs being affected. We then employed other doctors but no benefit resulted. By chance we read about Electric Bitters; bought a bottle and soon noticed improvement. We continued this medicine until several bottles were used, when our boy was completely cured." Best of all blood medicines and body building health tonics. Guaranteed at W. P. McMillan's Drug Store. 50c.

STOP THE EDITOR

The person who stops the editor on the street to tell him that he has been or is going away; that he contemplates building or that he is going to get married; that his wife will entertain company, has entertained company, has entertained friends, or perchance has presented him with an heir, or any other readable local news item is considered the salt of the earth and he is too. Would that every town had more such obliging individuals, then would our local columns be full of everything that our patrons desire to know. We would be equally as well pleased to have our farmer friends inform us of their company. If any thing happens in your neighborhood do not be afraid to stop us on the street and let us know it.

A NARROW ESCAPE

G. W. Cloyd, a merchant, of Plunk, Mo., had a narrow escape four years ago, when he ran a jimson burr into his thumb. He says: "The doctor wanted to amputate it but I would not consent. I bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve and that cured the dangerous wound." 25c at W. P. McMillan's Druggist.

is the language of the gods.

Don't be too quick to judge and don't be so dull of comprehension that you would have be knocked to take a hint.

Don't go barefooted waiting for your father's shoes when he dies, but to work and earn enough money to buy a pair.

Don't forget that when you die this old world will still wag on and not one in ten million will attend your funeral or even hear of your death.

Don't get a notion in your head that if the world will not devote itself in making you happy you will devote yourself in making the world unhappy.

Don't be afraid that your merit will not be discovered. People will you find if you are worth finding. A diamond is not so easily found as a quartz pebble, but people search for it all the more intently.

In the treatment of piles it becomes necessary to have the remedy put up in such a form that it can be applied to the parts affected. Man Zan Pile remedy is encased in a collapsible tube with nozzle attached. It cannot help but reach the spot. Relieves blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles. 50c with nozzle guaranteed. Try it. Sold by W. P. McMillan.

Settings by a Dairymaid

The buttermaker who takes enough pride in her product to stamp it neatly, wrapping each print in paper prepared for the purpose, usually has an article worthy of the care.

A tin pail is a very poor receptacle for taking butter to market in hot weather. A wooden pail or basket does not draw the heat.

How about the reputation of the best buttermaker if her goods go to the grocery and are placed in contact with the odor of fish, flesh and fowl? If she can sell direct to regular patrons, unjust reflections on her product from this cause are avoided.

If one has too little cream for churning, it may be converted into butter of excellent quality by beating in a bowl or crock. Use a fork, spoon or stirring stick and keep it very cold. If there is milk in it, the process is too slow to be profitable, but with pure cream it is comparatively little work, and there is no washing of churn afterward.

If near a trolley line, cream can be sent to the city market and realize more profit than butter in the old way and with less work.—Bessie L. Putnam in American Cultivator.

In using a cough syrup, why not get the best? one that comes highly recommended is Bees Laxative Cough Syrup, contains Honey and Tar and is superior to other cough syrups in many ways. Children always like it because it contains no opiates, is a laxative and is guaranteed to give satisfaction or your money refunded. Try it. Sold by W. P. McMillan.
