LEXINGTON WILL CELEBRATE THE 4TH

LEXINGTON WHEATFIELD

VOL. II

LEXINGTON, OREGON, THURSDAY JUNE 27, 1907

NO. 40

LOCAL NEWS

Read The Wheatfield and be happy. Some fools and their money are parted only by death.

A man never realizes how insignificant he is until he attends his own wedding.

The only ship of state that the wild eyed anarchist recognizes is a big beer schooner.

Be sure you are right—then, instead of sitting down and thinking it over—go ahead!

"It is what one saves rather than what one earns that insures a competence for the future."

"No," said Little Saphead, "no woman ever made a fool of me." "What was it?" asked Miss Pert.

"Some men," said Uncle Eben, "sits down an' does a day's loafin', an' calls it bein' patient an' resigned."

"Economizing for the purpose of being independent is one of the soundest indications of a manly character."

"It is wonderful, isn't it, that they can make policemen's clubs out of paper? Rapping paper, of course."

"Some men," said Uncle Eben "will put in weeks prayin' for rain, an' den kick cos' dey git deir feet wet."

"Got any oysters?" asked the guest in a restaurant. "No sah," replied the sable waiter; "ain't got no shell-fish, 'cept eggs, sah."

She—Oh! Just look at the lovely apples those boys are getting. Do you suppose they grow wild? He—No; but I fancy the owner does.

"I told papa your poems were the children of your brain." "What did he say?" "Said they were bad enough to put in the reform school."

The trouble with some people is that they allow themselves to be discouraged by criticism, and the trouble with others that they do not.

A little bird sat on a telegraph wire

And said to his mates, "I declare, if wireles telegraph comes into vogue We'll all have to sit on the air."

J. B. Morehead, of Sand Hollow, was in our city yesterday purchasing supplies. He says he can do better with Lexington merchants than any place in the county.
