THURSDAY AUGUST 1, 1907.

NOTICE

The best way to build up your own town is to do your trading at home. Patronize your home merchants. If they succeed the chances are you will succeed. When you send a dollar to a mail order house you have the goods and they have the money. Trade at home and we keep both the goods and the money.

LOCAL NEWS

Read The Wheatfield and be happy
For sale at all times the finest Berkshire pigs and shotes, males or females also half breeds Poland china and Berkshire. B. F. Swaggart.

"You say you were in the saloon at the time of the assault referred to in the complaint?" asked the lawyer.

"I was, sir."

"Did you take cognizance of the bar-keeper at the time?"

"I don't know what he called it, but I took what the rest did."

A verdant looking old fellow recently entered the office of a down town woman's exchange, and after a moment's hesitation inquired of the lady in charge: "Is this here the Woman's Exchange?"

"It is," replied the lady.

"Well" continued the country man, somewhat sheepishly, "I'd like to swap off my old woman for 'most anybody you happen to have on hand."

When you pull down the town in which is your home, you are pulling down yourself, and when you build up your town you benefit both yourself and your neighbor. Try and banish from your mind the mistaken idea that all good things are away off in some other locality. Give your town all the praise it can legitimately bear. It certainly will do you no harm and will cost you nothing; and above all patronize your home institutions—including the printing office.

The fellow who sticks up for whiskey has a taste for it or wants to make a living from its sale and he heeds a big dose of genuine salvation. A man with an appetite for whiskey will part with his money quicker to appease that appetite than for anything else on earth. When he gets his shirt chock full of distilled damnation he has a voice like a fog horn, eyes like a dragon and a breath that would make a skunk's choicest product smell like rosewater. He will go home to the wife that he has promised God and man to love and protect, and lie to her about everything he can think of. He's drunk—drunk on villainous whiskey. Whiskey makes a man or woman a liar and it makes him unfaithful to his wife. Whiskey makes man a drivelling idiot and a fit subject for the mad house. A drunkard usually ends his miserable career in the alms house, the padded cell or on the gallows. Whiskey makes the drunkard and the drunkard has caused more trouble than all the other evils combined. The only way to stop the drunkard is to choke out the saloon and the sale of whiskey.

Remedy for Diarrhoea, Never Known to Fail

"I want to say a few words for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I have used this preparation in my family for the past five years and have recommended it to a number of people in York county and have never known it to fail to effect a cure in any instance. I feel that I can not say too much for the best remedy of the kind in the world."—S. Jemison, Spring Grove, York County, Pa. This remedy is for sale by W. P. McMillan's Drug Store.

HAD AN AWFUL TIME
But Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Cured Him

It is with pleasure that I give you this unsolicited testimonial. About a year ago when I had a severe case of measles I got caught out in a hard rain and the measles settled in my stomach and bowels. I had an awful time and had it not been for the use of Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I could not have possibly lived but a few hours longer, but thanks to this remedy I am now strong and well. I have written the above through simple gratitude and I shall always speak a good word for this remedy.—Sam. H. Gwin, Concord Ga. For sale by W. P. McMillan's Drug Store.
