NOTICE

The best way to build up your own town is to do your trading at home. Patronize your home merchants. If they succeed the chances are you will succeed. When you send a dollar to a mail order house you have the goods and they have the money. Trade at home and we keep both the goods and the money.

LOCAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Silas Beach, of Portland, arrived in Lexington Saturday evening. Mr. Beach is a brother of our fellow townsman, E. R. Beach, and has come to make an extended visit with relatives and old friends in hopes of benefitting his health. Mr. Mr. and Mrs. Beach left Monday with Mrs. Karl Beach for a long stay at her homestead in the mountains.

Mrs. W. G. Scott and daughter, Cecil, Mrs. M. E. Barton and family, of Blackhorse, and Mrs. Barton's mother and sister, Mrs. Brown and Miss Ruth, of Heppner, returned last Thursday from a weeks outing in the mountains. The Wheatfield family is very grateful to Mrs. Scott for our first huckleberries.

The Editor of The Wheatfield was greatly surprised last Thursday to receive a commission signed by Gov. Chamberlain, appointing us as one of the delegates to represent the state of Oregon at the National Irrigation Congress which meets at Sacramento, September 2. Morrow county has been well remembered having eight delegates to this meeting.

Remedy for Diarrhoea, Never Known to Fail

"I want to say a few words for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I have used this preparation in my family for the past five years: I have recommended it to a number of people in York county and have never known it to fail to effect a cure in any instance. I feel that I can not say too much for the best remedy of the kind in the world."—S. Jemison, Spring Grove, York County, Pa. This remedy is for sale by W. P. McMillan's Drug Store.

$25.00 REWARD

I will pay a reward of $25.00 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any person or persons unlawfully entering my blacksmith shop.
John B. White.

The Wheatfield has been very fortunate in completing a clubbing rate with Sunset Magazine, the magazine of California and all the far West. We can now offer our subscribers, Sunset Magazine, which includes a copy of "The Road of a Thousand Wonders", and The Wheatfield, one year for $1.75. Subscribe today and take advantage of this exceedingly liberal offer.

"Oh," exclaimed Mrs. De Collitay, "all the trunks are packed and shipped and I forgot to put in my bathing suit". "Never mind, dear," replied her husband, "fortunately I've sworn off smoking". "Eh? What has that to do with it?" "Why, you can pack your bathing suit in my cigar case."

A newspaper man is an enemy to bulletin board advertising on general principals, but there are occasions when a bulletin board may bring better results than a paper. The editor of a paper in Missouri, remarked not long ago that he had observed one in front of a store in his city which read, "Buy 4 U Buy Pants Come in and See Ours." He went in and there was not a confounded man in the store (they were all females) so he bought a fan and walked out.

An old gentleman, rather portly and clad in a light gray flannel, sat on a bench in the park enjoying the spring day.

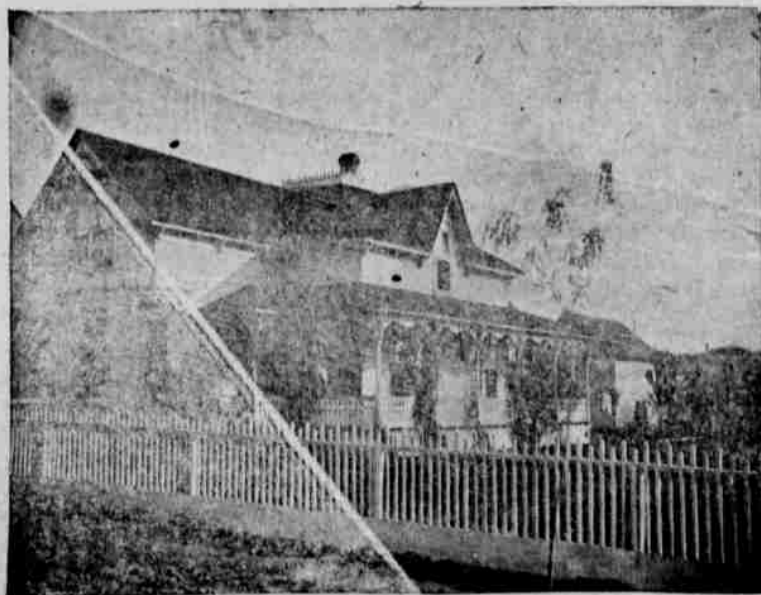

"What's the matter, sonny," he asked a small urchin who lay on the grass just across the walk and stared intently. "Why don't you go and play?"

"Don't wanter," the boy replied. "But it is not natural." the old gentleman insisted, for a boy to be so quiet. Why don't you run about?"

"Oh, I'm just waitin, the little fellow answered. "I'm just waitin' till you get up. A man just painted that seat about fifteen minutes ago".—Ex.

HAD AN AWFUL TIME But Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Cured Him

It is with pleasure that I give you this unsolicited testimonial. About a year ago when I had a severe case of measles I got caught out in a hard rain and the measles settled in my stomach and bowels. I had an awful time and had it not been for the use of Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I could
