NOTICE

The best way to build up your own town is to do your trading at home. Patronize your home merchants. If they succeed the chances are you will succeed. When you send a dollar to a mail order house you have the goods and they have the money. Trade at home and we keep both the goods and the money.

Lots of good resolutions are stillborn. A sworn foe is seldom as harmful as a fool friend.

There are no free passes on the road to success.

All men are not liars. Some lack sufficient originality.

A woman's only reason for carrying a watch is to tell how late she is.

The only time some people are liberal is when they give themselves away.

The fellow who is content to follow the crowd will never get to the front.

The only way to really enjoy life is to let the other fellow do the worrying.

Most of us live to rejoice in the fact that we didn't marry the girl we fell in love with at first sight.

Many a man who preach the golden rule on Sunday would cheat his neighbor in a horse trade on any of the other six days.

When you hear a man talking about the things he would have done if he had ever had a show, you can size him up as a loafer.

SIS HOPKINS' SAYINGS

A pompadour often elevates a low brow.

Pa says you can't stand still and run a farm.

Many a milkmaid wears pumps, but not on her feet.

Pa says the coming man is seldom the best fellow a-going.

Sweet are the uses of adversity—as far as lawyers are concerned.

A bee may be busy, but did you ever see a girl getting ready for a ball?

By way of experiment Peruna Muggins puts peroxide on her horse hide trunk.

A society queen is so uppish that she refuses to occupy a lower berth in a sleeper.

Bentfacia Boggs lately had a violent attack of indigestion and thought it was love.

Ma says if more men were like cob-

would be fewer divorces.

It seems to me that some men never seem to lose the soft spot they bring into the world with them.

Gracie Grapenut of Battle Creek, says the only cereals she cares for are those that are in the magazines.—Rose Melville.
