 The dance at Stroup's Hall last Friday night was not largely attended, but those present seemed to have a good time, as it was early morning before they left for their homes. The Hood River Trio Orchestra furnished good music.
 Wallace Kibbee of Portland, a nephew of H. G. Kibbee, of the Bulletin, visited in Mosier a few days last week, returning home Sunday on No. 7. Mr. Kibbee is a printer in the employ of the Kilham Printing Co., of Portland.
 The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Mosier Fruit Growers' Association will be held in Lamb's hall, on Saturday, April 3, 1909, at 10:30 a. m., for the purpose of electing directors and transacting such other business as may come before the meeting. J. M. CARROLL, Sec.
 Fred W. Wilson, of The Dalles, spent last Sunday in our neighborhood, looking over his extensive land interests. Mr. Wilson has some very fine apple land, some of which is in bearing trees. He was accompanied by Deputy-Sheriff Clep Allen and H. E. Hero. They returned home Sunday night.
 A practice very annoying to patrons of the railroad is that of long lines of freight cars being run onto the siding and allowed to stand from ten minutes to half an hour just at the time these same patrons desire to go to or from the depot to the town proper. In consequence, they either must wait the pleasure of the train crew, or walk a long distance around the train. Occasionally the train is cut at the crossing, but it should be at all times.
