 A. P. Bateham spent several days in Portland this week.
 Ora Hodge and Dan Bryant went The Dalles Sunday night.
 If you want a good Spray Pump, buy a Bean—for sale by A. STEWART.
 Mrs. James Hunter came up from Hood River on Wednesday to visit friends.
 H. F. Bothfur and J. K. McGregor were in Hood River on business last Monday.
 Mrs. Geo. Steelsmith returned to Portland last Tuesday, after spending a few days on the ranch.
 Mrs. Jas. Hunter of Menominee, who visited relatives here this week, returned to her home on Wednesday.
 H. J. Sieverkropp, of Hood River, has been in the neighborhood this week pruning the Heilbronner orchard.
 Drop a dollar and a half in the slot and draw a prize—the Mosier Bulletin delivered at your postoffice for one year.
 C. A. Fwey and Albert Behrens intend going to the former's ranch tomorrow to remain a week or ten days.
 We are pleased to state that Mr. George Ireland, who has been ill for several days, is again able to be on the streets.
 Mrs. Chas. Johnson came down from The Dalles Monday and visited a few days with her sister, Mrs. Wm. Johnson, who is ill at her home.
 C. F. Swander, of Portland, Corresponding Secretary of the Oregon Christian Missionary Convention, was in Mosier this Wednesday, looking over the field.
 Col. Henry Clay Bowers, manager of the Hotel Portland, and Master Murray Wright, of Portland, were guests of Mr. Ed L. Howe and wife, at Lehowa, last Sunday.
 Messrs Kolloek and Chapman of Hood River, were in Mosier a few days ago looking after the interests of the Salem nurseries, who are placing large orders of trees with several fruit growers here.
 Of sixty-five passengers who left Portland on the local last Sunday morning, thirteen, or one fifth of them, "got off" at Mosier. Had they been wise, the other four-fifths would have done the same. You can see Mosier grow.
 P. H. Stevenson of Condon, this week purchased the 40-acre fruit farm of G. E. Townsend, about two miles southeast of town. There is a fine bearing orchard on the place, and Mr. Townsend estimates that the fruit yield this year will be in the neighborhood of 1500 boxes.
 George Chamberlain, last Tuesday morning, received a consignment of 2,000 apple trees and 2,000 peach trees, which will be set out immediately on land east of Mosier owned by the East Hood River Land Co. Both the apple and peach trees are of the best commercial varieties.
 John Wellberg and family left on Tuesday morning's train for a trip to Portland, Astoria and other points. They are expected home tomorrow night. Messrs Bosler and Newlen have charge of the culinary department of The Pines Hotel during their absence, and Miss Jones is chief factotum.
 Albert Behrens, while working on the Pines Annex last Monday, received a very painful but not serious injury, unless blood poisoning results. He started to fall, and in trying to save himself, threw out his arm, which came in contact with a nail in the window sill. He was game, however and kept on working.
 Arthur Kuhn, recently from Portland, was a pleasant caller at our office this week and left his measure for the BULLETIN for a year. Mr. Kuhn has purchased a tract of apple land south of town and is busy improving it, combining business with an effort to benefit his health by an out-of-door life in our fine climate.
 Mrs. Myrtle Ellison, with her three children, of Williston, North Dakota, arrived in Mosier last Saturday morning and is visiting relatives here for a fortnight. Mrs. Ellison is a sister of Robert Evans of this place and a niece of Lee, Richard and Ira Evans. After visiting here she will go to Stockton, California, to visit her father. She may return to Mosier later and locate permanently.

 Alex Stewart.
 Dr. C. A. Macrum and wife, and Mrs. E. O. Jetty, of Portland, spent last Sunday in Mosier.
 Mr. Dudley of the Journal, was in town yesterday soliciting subscriptions for the Oregon Journal.
 All persons desiring their footwear repaired call at the Bulletin office and leave orders. All work done neatly and with dispatch.
 E. B. Wood, railroad detective for the O. R. & N. Co., was in town this week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wood.
 Mr. Pearl, a Portland gentleman who recently purchased the Coyle place near town, is up this week looking after his interests.
 We are closing out all makes of shoes except Hamilton Brown and J. Miller & Co., at from 20 to 50 per cent discount. Alex Stewart.
 Mrs. Katherine Kemp of Odell and Miss Alice Davenport, of The Dalles, have been here this week visiting their mother, Mrs. Mary Davenport.
 Mr. Geo. Ireland and wife left yesterday for the ranch, where they expect to spend the summer. Mr. Ireland, whose health is impaired, hopes to be benefited by the change to the simple life.
 G. H. Swetland and son, Neal, the latter accompanied by his wife, arrived in town last Friday from Portland. The Messrs Swetland are bringing into the country a portable sawmill, and have contracted to saw the timber on the Barton and Montague tract into apple box lumber. They will also start a box factory.
 E. J. Middleswart recently sold to three Chicago gentlemen, 160 acres of improved land, being a part of his valuable fruit ranch on the Columbia river, about a mile east of Mosier. The purchasers, who are all family men, will arrive here early next month and further improve their land. These are only a few of the many eastern investors in Mosier fruit lands who will come in this season. The sale of Mr. Middleswart's land was made through our hustling real estate man, George Chamberlain.

Notice
 Notice is hereby given that a meeting of the Commercial Club of Mosier will be held in Lamb's Hall on Monday night, April 12, next, at 7:30 o'clock, for the purpose of reorganizing the club and electing officers, and the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting. It is especially desired that every individual interested in the welfare of Mosier and vicinity be present at this meeting, to swell the membership and aid in the furtherance of matters of great importance to the community.

Poultry Hill Boomlets
 All nature smiles on Poultry Hill.
 John Barlingme is making the odd moments count on his homestead slashing and grubbing and otherwise improving his place.
 Mr. London was on Poultry Hill looking to improvements of his ranch. We are told he will have his house finished and remodelled, a new road built and all old fruit trees taken out preparatory to planting an extensive apple orchard next Spring.
 Many improvements are being made this Spring, in the neighborhood. Earl Bailey will clear up a splendid piece of land. Also James Camp has a new field plowed and planted.
 Alex Stewart, Mosier's oldest merchant, has a lot of geese at work cleaning up his Spring Dale ranch. The geese don't seem to know much about labor unionism but "scab it," working all sorts of long hours.
 Mrs. W. W. Winegar arrived last Saturday from Redlands, California, where she has been visiting her daughter. Mrs. Winegar is from the city of Quincy, Massachusetts. Mr. and Mrs. Winegar are well pleased with Mosier and will likely locate here.

TOOTH WASHES

IN EVERYBODY'S MOUTH are our Tooth Washers and the praise of them. They are pure, fragrant and antiseptic, cleansing both teeth and gums, removing the tarter and giving a sweet perfume to the breath. We also have tooth brushes, Powders and Soaps for dental purposes, and every requisite for the bath room and toilet. Our lines of Fancy Soaps, Perfumes and Sachets are second to none in quality, but rather low in price.
