Dr. David Robinson was very pleasantly surprised last night by a number of his friends who met at his residence to help him celebrate the anniversary of his birth. Particulars of the occasion were not obtainable at the time of going to press, but it is safe to say that the good doctor was properly surprised and that the affair was a most enjoyable one.

Mrs. T. L. Evans, Mrs. M. A. Evans and Master Norton Evans came up from Corbett Wednesday morning, bringing with them Miss Agnes, the 16-year old daughter of Mrs. M. A. Evans, who is suffering with quick consumption. She was taken up to T. L. Evans' ranch on Seven mile in hopes that the higher altitude would benefit her.

To use a full page advertisement in each of the eight greatest magazines in the United States would cost, for one issue, $17,860. The Ladies' Home Journal has the highest rate, $5,000. That seems like pretty costly publicity, yet many firms use that much space regularly. By line the rate is $7 and more according to position in the magazine. The most successful firms are those who use the full page advertisements. Those who think fifty cents or a dollar or so a month is "too costly" would stare in amazement if they had to pay for a line in one of these publications.—Ex.
