C. J. Kopet, of Milwaukie, Ore., was here the first of the week looking over the town with a view to putting in a drug store. He seemed favorably impressed with Mosier, and may return in the near future.

Ed Woods came down from La Grande Wednesday evening and left for his home in Portland yesterday with his family, who have been visiting relatives here for several weeks.

C. D. Wise, of Portland, was in town last Monday, and made this office a pleasant call. Mr. Wise had been back in the hills south of Mosier looking after some timber land in which he is interested.

E. B. Spalding and S. P. Smith of Spokane were here last week in company with John Heimrich and the three made a trip into the Interior Saturday. It is presumed that they were looking over the route of the extension of the Great Southern road, Dufur Dispatch.

J. E. Cole had the misfortune last Sunday to lose a valuable young milk cow. The animal broke the picket rope and in feeding around, the rope became caught about one of her hind legs, and in struggling to free herself she fell into a ditch and broke her neck.

The counties of Wasco and Wheeler will get together and build a bridge across John Day river at or near Clarno Ferry. A bridge at this point has long been needed. Much travel passes over the road between Shaniko and Fossil and the ferry is not a safe means of transportation across the river when it is swollen by spring and winter rains.

Passenger train No. 3 west bound, ran down a man named Walter Baty at Rowena, last Wednesday morning. Baty was taking a valuable horse from Portland to Fairfield, Wash., on a freight train. The freight had pulled onto a siding at Rowena to let the belated train pass and Baty had stepped off the freight along with his back to the approaching passenger train, which was whistling around the curve. He was warned to get off the track, but was apparently confused and the train caught him, crushing his skull and breaking both legs. He was taken at once to The Dalles but died before reaching that place.

Shipping Strawberries

A. P. Batcham has shipped a number of crates of strawberries to Spokane this week and last. The first shipment brought him $8 per crate. Last year the first berries shipped realized $12 per crate, the late season this year accounting for the difference in price.

The berry picking season will open in full blast at the Batcham farm about next Monday. Part of the pickers have already arrived and the full crew will be ready for the busy season by Monday morning.

School Notes

Final Examinations are being given in every grade this week.

Everyone is cordially invited to be present at the Commencement program to be given at Stroup's Hall, Monday evening, May 24th, at eight o'clock. No admission is charged.

After the graduating exercises next Monday evening, a banquet will be given the Eighth Grade in Lamb's Hall. Everybody come. Adults, 25 cents; children over 6 years, 15 cents.

Rev. Gilmore of the First Congregational Church of Hood River, will preach the baccalaureate Sermon at the Baptist church here at eleven o'clock Sunday morning, May 23d. The public is cordially invited to be present.

Hard Lines.

Some people certainly seem to get more "hard luck" in this world than ought to be coming to them. J. P. Tryon, of Glenwood, Wash., was in our office last Tuesday and recounted a few of the trials which he has undergone this Spring. In the first place his wife has been sick at the hospital at The Dalles for a long time. Then while he was away from home a valuable mare was killed; then he lost a hundred head of lambs, and to cap the climax, about a fortnight ago his little daughter was frightfully burned on the leg. Verily, "it never rains but it pours." Mr. Tryon was in Mosier visiting his father, who is very ill at his home near town. Mr. Tryon stated to the BULLETIN that he sold his wool clip to The Dalles Scouring Mill for 18c per pound.

Any and all persons claiming adversely the lands described, or desiring to object because of the mineral character of the land, or for any other reason, to the disposal to applicant, should file their affidavits of protest in this office, on or before the 24th day of June, 1909.

For Sale

Ten or more acres of good fruit land, 3 1-2 miles from Mosier Station on the little Mosier Creek. Level road and plenty of good water from creek and springs the whole year. Contains several good springs, one of them having enough force to supply water in a house and for irrigation. This tract of land is one of the best locations in Mosier District. Sheltered from high winds and contains good deep, rich soil, from the creek, which borders the east, the land lies toward the west, with a gradual slope to the foothills. One dozen 3-year-old Spitzenberg trees are growing on it. Will make a very pretty home. Price per acre, $100, half cash, balance on easy terms.

Come and see it. Owner,
CHRISTIAN WYSS,
Mosier, Ore.
