Mrs. Belle Booth left Friday for a visit with friends at Walla Walla.

E. D. Fraedricks returned this morning from a trip to the Indian reservation in Idaho which is now being opened for settlement.

Mrs. Finney, of Portland, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Grose, arrived in town yesterday and will spend a couple of months on the homestead at Finney Springs.

Miss Christine Godbersen went to The Dalles on Wednesday to make final proof on her homestead. Rev. Simpson and Will Kruger were her witnesses.

Alex Stewart is having a mammoth closing-out sale and is offering everything in his store at greatly reduced prices. Read his big Red Ink advertisement on the inside pages of this issue.

Misses Jennie and Grace Kent, who have been visiting their sister, Mrs. Higley, for a few weeks, left for Portland on Saturday last. They will visit the Seattle Fair before returning to their respective homes.

Mr. Herbert Eastman who is an employee of the U. S. Postal Service at Ashland, Oregon, has been spending a few days with his brother, Stanley Eastman, at Fairmont Ranch, Seven Mile.

Frank Ginger had the misfortune to lose one of his bay horses last Saturday. The animal fell thru a bridge. It was valued at $250—or was it $2.50?

Mrs. Susie Denny and Miss Smith, of Stillwater, Okla., arrived in Mosier Wednesday evening and are visiting Mr. John Denny and family. They visited the Seattle Fair and will return home thru California.

S. E. Bartmess, an undertaker of Hood River, came up yesterday and removed the body of Mrs. Esther Reno to Hood River, where it will be re-interred in Idlewild Cemetery. Mrs. Reno died in 1897.

Mrs. N. B. McGregor, mother of Mr. Carl Bowman, and Mrs. Dunn, mother of Mrs. Bowman, arrived yesterday from New Westminster, B. C., in response to a telegram announcing the serious illness of Mrs. Bowman.

R. W. Evans brought into our office this morning some fine samples of Little Club, Velvet Chaff and Blue Stem wheat, which show a remarkable growth. The grain was planted April 15 and cut July 8. It is not very tall, but the heads are exceedingly large and plump, some of them having four grains to the bush. Mr. Evans cut the grain for hay.

Mrs. Ed Wood, of Portland, spent the first of the week with Mr. Wood's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Wood.

Miss Helen Brower, of Portland, is visiting this week with the Misses Fosberg, near town. Miss Brower is a former resident of Mosier.

Miss Jeanette Rainous, who has been visiting friends at Estacada for a couple of months, arrived home last Saturday night.

Mrs. Floyd Allington and Mrs. G. Parrish returned yesterday from a visit with relatives and friends at Kelso, Wash., and other points.

E. A. Rainous left last week for The Dalles, where he has accepted a position with The Dalles Iron Works.

Felix Edwards, who has been a resident of Mosier for a year or more, left on Sunday for Portland, where he has secured a good position.

B. I. Dasent, of Portland, spent a couple of days in and about Mosier this week, gathering data for the Mosier Booklet which the O. R. & N. Co. will get out this fall, setting forth the wonderful possibilities of Mosier District as a producer of fruit of the finest quality. Mr. Dasent is a gentleman of large experience in publicity campaigns, and no doubt his write-up on Mosier will be most attractive, as he expressed himself as most agreeably surprised at the country about here, and predicted a great future for this section. He left yesterday for Hermiston on a similar errand as that which brought him here.

Ladies Aid Meet.
(This article was handed in too late for publication last week.)

The Ladies' Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. Craft Thursday afternoon. There was a full attendance. The Aid ladies had the pleasure of entertaining a number of visitors, among them being Mesdames Roup, McCawley, Bailey and Winegar.

Plans and ideas concerning a Bazaar to be held in December were discussed, and those present showed much enthusiasm. All were busy with some piece of work for the Bazaar. After the regular business meeting was over and the ladies were busy sewing, reading from Alice McGowan's "Huldah," by Mrs. McGregor, Mrs. Bathur, Mrs. Booth and Mrs. Winegar, constituted the program.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. As it was then evening, the members departed to their several homes, no one regretting the fact that she was a member of the Mosier Ladies' Aid Society.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Clarence Dunsmore, in Grand View.
A MEMBER.

If the general industrial strike, which is threatened in Spain within the next 48 hours, succeeds, Spain will probably be a Republic. Only a sudden weakening on the part of the strike leaders can prevent a great upheaval. The strike will probably spread throughout all of the municipalities and their employees and it is expected that the overthrow of the present governmental regime will speedily result.

READ THIS.
In accordance with the plans as adopted at the publicity meeting last Wednesday it was decided to begin the community advertising campaign by having a photographer come out and take pictures of different localities that would be suitable for use in the book on Mosier which the O. R. & N. Co. will publish. All those who know of such localities, please call at the Bulletin office at once, so that they may be listed.

FOR SALE—A homestead relinquishment in Mosier district. Good orchard land. Inquire at the BULLETIN office. 7-16-t-f.

STURGESS RIDGE
Every thing is lovely and in a prosperous condition on the ridge. Geo. Young and Mr. Hanna were within eight mile of "Mt. Hood" Sunday, report it cool and pleasant. Theo. Coats, we hear, holds the ribbons of a four horse team carrying supplies to the R. R. camp, Sherar's bridge on the Deschutes River.

We hear Otto Hage arrived at his old home all O. K. His brother C. A. Hage is rather lonesome but could not leave his ranch to visit Germany just now.

I wonder what makes G. W. Grose so quiet; never heard a sound as I passed by Saturday. Think he must have been thinking how many boxes of apples he will have this fall.

Grandma Ireland is up and around the house again. Mr. and Mrs. Young made a flying trip to Hood River Tuesday of last week. They think some of locating there.

Mr. Lelliott and family and Mr. Proctor and family of "Windy Flat" spent a very pleasant Sunday at "On Top" ranch. If you want a "jolly" time there's the place to go.

Grandma Huskey visited Mosier one day last week.

It appears to me the Wedding Bells have been jingling quite lively this summer. We have three brides on the ridge now.

The Sturgess boys cut a Bee Tree one night last week, got some honey but more fun. Aunty Porter can give you points on the Bee dance.

Miss N. Hunter, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. N. A. Hunter, went to Hood River Monday evening to attend the installation of the officers of Laurel Rebekah Lodge No. 87, I. O. O. F. Several visitors were present. After the work of the evening all were invited into the banquet room, where ice cream and cake was served and enjoyed by all. The officers installed were: N. G. Mrs. Theresa Castner; V. G. Miss E. May Davidson; Sec., Mrs. Nettie Moses; Treas., Mrs. Susie Mayes.

The lumber has arrived for the new section house, which will replace the one burned on the morning of July 3rd, and for the station agent's house, and both houses will be pushed to completion as rapidly as possible.

The Ladies' Aid Society will meet with Mrs. Clarence Dunsmore next Wednesday. Conveyance will be provided for all members wishing to go.
