WANTED:—A girl to work for board and tuition and attend school. Address P. O. Box 245, Hood River, Oregon.

Paul Evans who has been quite ill with typhoid fever at the hospital in Walla Walla, is reported much improved and will soon be able to return home.

ANNOUNCEMENT

To The Public:—

We have noticed some of our young society swells appearing in baggy trousers and creases running around the leg instead of lengthwise. This looks bad, not only to the general public, but to those discriminating young ladies who like to see a young man—especially if the young man happens to be a young lady's "steady"—well dressed. To afford opportunity to the men of Mosier to appear to advantage, so far as well pressed and well cleaned clothes are concerned, we have secured the services of an experienced tailor who can make your old clothes look like new and keep your new clothes in tip-top condition.

Orders left at the BULLETIN office will receive prompt attention.

E. A. Franz, one of Hood River's hardware merchants, was a business visitor in town Wednesday last.

Mrs. Ella B. Stevenson left on Sunday for Phoenix, Arizona, where she will join her husband, who has located there. Mrs. Stevenson is held in high esteem by the people of Mosier and she will be greatly missed from the community.

THE BULLETIN GIVES ALL THE NEWS

STURGESS RIDGE

G. W. Grose and wife entertained Miss Elder, of Rose Hill, and N. P. Sturgess and wife, of On-Top ranch, last Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Grose, mother of G. W. Grose, left the Ridge for Finney's Springs, to be gone a month.

R. Huskey made a trip Sunday up on the Ridge. Where does the young lady live, Russ?

Mrs. Walter McGregor went up to her son's on Saturday. She intends returning to her home in British Columbia this week, providing her son's wife continues to improve.

Mrs. Fowman's mother and sister will remain until she has completely recovered. G. W. Grose and family spent a couple of days at Finney's Springs this week.

The days are passing rapidly and soon the smell of prunes will be in the air. As the trees are heavily loaded we will certainly have our share.

GRAND VIEW.

Has the weather been hot enough for you?

Don Littlepage has joined the force of prune pickers at Selingers.

John Miler and C. J. Phillips made a business trip to The Dalles last Saturday.

Agnes Evans has again established "Camp" with her mother on her uncle's place in Grand View. She is improving quite rapidly.

Marjorie and Billy Hurlburt of Portland are spending their vacation with their uncle, C. J. Littlepage.

It is with regret that we chronicle the removal from our neighborhood of Clarence Dunsmore and wife. We shall miss their comings and goings and the gleam of their light at night.

We are glad to hear that Bertie Bell is much improved in health, owing greatly to the efficient nursing of his cousins, Charlie and Virgil Reno.

The entertainment and basket social at Oak Knoll, last Saturday eve, was a success in every way. The arrangement of the decorations and the credit with which the pupils acquitted themselves, attest the ability of their teacher, Miss Young. Quite a number from The Dalles were present, as were also "Buster Brown" and "Tige." The selling of the baskets netted over $18.00.

School District 64 Entertains.

Residents of District No. 64 enjoyed a treat in the form of an entertainment and basket supper at Oak Knoll school house, last Saturday evening. The following program was very creditably rendered by the scholars:
Selection, Phonograph Song, (School) "Oak Knoll"
Song, "Hello, Central," Silvia Fleming, Alex Carlson, chorus.
Dialogue, "Rival Orators," May and Ellsworth Miler.
Recitation, "Spot," Geo. Miler.
Song, "Teddy Bear, Poor Teddy Teddy Bear," Six Children
Selection, Phonograph Dialogue, "Entertaining Sister's Beau," Four Children
Song, "Sailing," School
Recitation, "Barbara Frietchie," May Miler.
Selection, Phonograph Recitation, "The Ride of Jennie McNeil," Bernice Fleming
Song, "I'm the Captain of the Broomstick Cavalry," Three Children.
Selection, Phonograph Dialogue, "Dad Says So, Anyhow," Beinda Jane and Josh Wattles.
Selection, Phonograph Recitation, "When the Bright Side Comes 'Round," Alex Carlson.
Dialogue, "Good Night," Bernice Fleming and Ellen Carlson
Selection, Phonograph Dialogue, "Interviewing Servant Girls," School
Song, "Once I was a Baby," Silvia Fleming, Lois Osborn
Dialogue, "Buying Eggs," May and Ellsworth Miler.
Recitation, "Nellie and Her Bird," Silvia Fleming.
Recitation, "Seein' Things at Night," Alex Carlson
Recitation, "Tommy's Prayer," Miss Young.
Song, "Old Black Joe."

The phonograph was donated for the evening by Mr. French, of The Dalles, and was much appreciated by the audience.

Miss Young deserves great credit for the admirable training of the children, especially in the various recitations, of which "Barbara Frietchie," "The Ride of Jennie McNeil" and "Seein' Things at Night" were notably well rendered.

The able reading of "Tommy's Prayer," by Miss Young, was enthusiastically received by the audience, to which she responded with "An Ode to the Hair Brush."

At the close of the program Miss Young was most agreeably surprised by the gift of a picture, presented by Miss May Miler in behalf of the school.

The school house was beautifully and artistically decorated with festoons of pine cones and lattice work of Virginia Creeper, and lighted with Japanese lanterns.

The neat sum of eighteen dollars was realized from the sale of baskets, the money to be applied to the purchase of a bookcase for the school.

A great game of base ball was pulled off in our town last Sunday. Although it was not advertised to any extent, quite a number of enthusiasts were out to witness the game. It was a pitcher's battle from the start and neither side had any chance until the fourth inning when the Mosier team got one man over the plate. Mosier had the game tied up from that time, as the Grand View aggregation was never dangerous at any time. Final score, 4 to 1 in favor of Mosier.

READ THIS.

In accordance with the plans as adopted at the publicity meeting last Wednesday it was decided to begin the community advertising campaign by having a photographer come out and take pictures of different localities that would be suitable for use in the book on Mosier which the O. R. & N. Co. will publish. All those who know of such localities, please call at the Bulletin office at once, so that they may be listed.

PRIVATE SALES ANY TIME
The moving picture show, which exhibited here Tuesday night, was a rather dull affair. The audience was kept waiting a tiresomely long time, listening to a second-class canned music factory, before the moving pictures were put on. The subjects were "chestnuts," the lights poor and the films so worn that satisfactory results could hardly be expected.
Clarence Densmore moved his family into town this week, and is occupying the house recently vacated by Fay Bosler.
