Died.

On last Friday the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Yonish died of cholera infantum, after a brief illness. The funeral was held Saturday afternoon, Rev. S. W. Stark officiating. Interment was in Odd Fellows cemetery.

Mr. Bouldin, representing the commission house of S. T. Fish & Co., of Chicago, was interviewing our fruit growers this week. He was trying to get a line of Mosier apples and prunes, but we understand that as yet he has not closed a deal.

G. G. Brockbank, representing the Pacific Monthly, was in town on Wednesday and made the BULLETIN office a pleasant call. The Pacific Monthly is a magazine devoted to the development of the Pacific Northwest and Oregon in particular. A nice write-up of Mosier appeared in the July number, and home-seekers in the East and middle West, reading it, have already written here for information regarding this particular section. The Pacific Monthly for October, which is the Home-seekers' Edition, will contain more information about Mosier and will be read by over 100,000 people whose eyes are turned towards Oregon.

FOR SALE—A homestead relinquishment in Mosier district. Good orchard land. Inquire at the BULLETIN office. 7-15-1-1.

Ladies Aid Meet.

The Ladies' Aid Society met at the pleasant country home of Mrs. Geo. Haacke last Wednesday afternoon. The following members were present: Mesdames Root, Robinson, Nancy Hunter, Richard Evans, Stewart, Stark, Allington, Craft, John Evans, Littlepage, Dunsmore, Fraedricks, Booth, Akers, Fosberg, Haacke, with Mrs. Taggart, of Portland, as a guest.

"Aunt Huldah" being present this time, the Society enjoyed an hour or so of her experiences as read by Mrs. Booth and Mrs. Root. After being busily engaged for some time, the ladies were treated to dainty refreshments by their hostess, assisted by Misses Annie and Lodica Haacke, after which they departed to their several homes, declaring they had spent a most pleasant afternoon.

The next regular meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. R. Evans, Sept. 8, at 2:30 p. m. A MEMBER.

PLEASANTLY SURPRISED.

A very pleasant surprise party was tendered J. K. McGregor last Monday night, at his home near town. The occasion was the anniversary of his twenty-fifth birthday (we dare not tell how many winters have whitened his venerable head). He no doubt feels humiliated sufficiently to have a late birthday and the whooping cough all in one year.

About a dozen of Mr. McGregor's friends met at the residence of his sister, Mrs. Booth, and at 10 o'clock they swooped down on him, taking him completely by surprise. The party was warmly welcomed by J. K. and his gracious wife, and the evening was merrily passed in games and pleasant converse. A luncheon of cake and lemonade was served and at a late hour the guests departed, having spent a most delightful evening.

Among those present, beside the host and hostess, and their father, James McGregor, were: Wm. Akers and wife, Dr. Robinson and wife, Miss Taylor, of The Dalles, R. Evans and wife, Mrs. McCawley, of Illinois, H. G. Kibbee and wife, Mrs. S. W. Stark, Mrs. Booth, Mrs. Cobb, Mr. Hudson and Robert Simpson.

The prune packers are extremely busy these days. The Association is shipping about two carloads a day.

GRAND VIEW.

Grand View is standing the dry weather very well. Crops are looking green and thrifty, and without irrigation.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Hurlbert, of Portland, arrived in Mosier last Sunday to visit the family of C. J. Littlepage. Mrs. Hurlbert is a sister of Mrs. Littlepage. Mr. Hurlbert is connected with the city engineering department of Portland. They express themselves as being much pleased with Mosier's climate and productions.

In passing thru Grand View one is struck with the fine appearance of Arthur Kuhn's young orchard. The trees, which were set out this last Spring, are making a fine growth, and judging from the absence of weeds in his orchard, Mr. Kuhn certainly lets no grass grow under his feet.

We are informed that C. C. Clement is going to build a handsome bungalow on his place this Fall. Judging from the plan of the structure, it will be an ornament to the community. Let the good work go on.

Sturgess Ridge.

Mrs. Walter McGregor left for her home in British Columbia on Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Sturgess spent a very pleasant day at Mr. Leonard's last Sunday.

W. E. Huskey is spending his vacation on the coast. Grandma Huskey's smiling face was seen in Mosier Saturday, tho we did not see her at the sale.

A gentleman by the name of John Ford has taken a contract from E. T. Johnson to do some clearing on what is known as the Hudson place. He expects his wife and child in a few days. He and his elder son are batching at present.

Mrs. Geo. Young has been visiting her parents in The Dalles. The night is getting chilly, the days cloudy and the smell of prunes reminds us that Fall is at hand and winter approaching. We hope every body will be ready for it.

ANNOUNCEMENT

TO THE PUBLIC:—

We have noticed some of our young society swells appearing in baggy trousers and creases running around the leg instead of lengthwise. This looks bad, not only to the general public, but to those discriminating young ladies who like to see a young man—especially if the young man happens to be a young lady's "steady"—well dressed. To afford opportunity to the men of Mosier to appear to advantage, so far as well pressed and well cleaned clothes are concerned, we have secured the services of an experienced tailor who can make your old clothes look like new and keep your new clothes in 1st-top condition.

Our lines of Fancy Soaps, Perfumes and Sachets are second to none in quality, but rather low in price.
