Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Ross spent Wednesday in Portland.

Our new church will be completed a week from tomorrow and will be dedicated Oct. 31st.

Say! Where do you get your Sheet Music? Why! at Paul Hubbard's Music House in Hood River.

Mr. George Ireland and wife have moved from the ranch and will spend the winter in town.

Mrs. Gove, the principal of our public schools, spent Sunday in her place near Hood River.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Bothfur were visitors in Portland on Monday and Tuesday last.

D. D. Hail, O. E. Willson and C. B. Chick were business visitors in Portland the first of the week.

There are five new buildings in course of construction in the town. Are we stepping along? If you think not, just stop, look and listen.

Mr. Henry Wolf, a friend of Mr. Wolverton, from Iowa, is interested in fruit-land in Mosier. He has been so favorably impressed that he may locate here.

The Mosier Fruit Growers Association commenced picking the first apples of the season, last Tuesday at Mr. John Carroll's ranch.

Ray Sturgess came up from Portland last Saturday to attend the funeral of his uncle.

Attorney Sam Stark and wife of Hood River spent last Saturday in town.

Mr. Reynold Noack, who has been a resident of Mosier for over a year, is making preparations for a visit to his home in Minneapolis.

Mr. Bruce Wolverton of Portland is spending the week on his place East of town. He has four men employed and is doing considerable clearing and is setting out 300 young apple trees.

P. L. Arthur, of Arthur & Burt Drug Co., returned Monday from a business trip to Portland, where he has been placing orders for new supplies, with which to meet the increasing demands of the trade.

A number of people, who were converted during the revival services which have been carried on the past two weeks by the Rev. Mr. Jones at the Baptist Church, were baptized in Mosier Creek last Sunday. Several others went to Hood River and were baptized in one of the churches there.

Mr. C. A. Frey, Contractor, has started the work on Mr. J. E. Cole's new Tonsorial Parlors, which when completed, will be one of the best equipped establishments of its kind, this side of Portland. All are cordially invited to inspect them when completed.

Mr. Nick Johnson of Huntington, will open a dental parlor at the residence of Mr. D. Duvall next week. He has purchased Mr. Wilson's bungalow and will occupy it after Dec. 15th. We extend him a most cordial welcome.

Mrs. Carrie McCawley, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. H. F. Bothfur, for the past two months, left on Monday last for Portland and Seattle. After a few days spent at the Exposition she will return to her home in Illinois.

Mr. Frank Ginger was a visitor at Hood River on Wednesday. Frank drove his thoroughbred colt and made the remarkable time of nine hours and forty-five minutes. The colt did not seem to mind the pace at all and Mr. Ginger expects great future development.

Willie Carroll, son of John Carroll, was severely hurt Monday morning at recess time, while hanging on a bicycle, ridden by one of his playmates. A thorough examination was sustained on his head, it is hoped that under the expert care of our local practitioner, the little fellow will soon recover.

The funeral of Henry Werberg, who died on Oct. 8th at his home in La Grande, was held in Mosier on Monday last. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Boulton of The Dalles and interment was made in Odd Fellows cemetery.

Mr. Werberg was the father of Mrs. Wm. Johnson of this place.

Mosiers Four Hundred.

A most pleasant evening was enjoyed by a gathering of young people at the home of Miss Bertha Booth on Friday last.

Miss Bertha favored us with a piano solo in the early part of the evening that spoke very highly for the home talent of Mosier and was followed by a vocal selection rendered by Mr. Lelliot, which was highly applauded.

The remainder of the evening was spent in playing games of various kinds until refreshments were served.

Those who attended agreed that they were exceptionally well entertained.

Oh! now let's look happy, we'll soon have a good waiting-room in Mosier.

Mr. Haze has been appointed station agent at Mosier. We have not had time to get acquainted but we trust he is one of those railroad men who realize that they hold a public position in which it is their duty to be as obliging as possible to the traveling public, thus making it a pleasure to do business at the depot.

Millinery Display. Beginning Monday, October 11th, Miss Elsie Denny will have for display and sale at Mrs. Graham's Bakery, a fine line of Ladies' and Children's Fall and Winter Hats, including all the latest styles and shapes. Come early and make your selections.

We are going to reduce our stock of Rhode Island Red and White Leghorn chickens and will sell about 400 of them in large or small lots. Will also sell several incubators and brooders.
