REVENGE THE CAUSE. Mosier Bulletin

Issued Each Fridey

MOSIER.....OREGON

and advanced across the platform, smil-EVENTS OF THE DA ing and bowing, to meet M. Kokovsoff the Russian finance minister, half a dozen revolver shots were fired in quick succession by a Corean in the crowd.

died 20 minutes later.

tally wounded.

SHIP STRIKES REEF.

of Maine.

on the stormy sea.

Newsy Items Gathered from All Three of them struck Prince Ito and at the second he fell unconscious. He Parts of the World.

Less Important but Not Less Interesting Happenings from Points Outside the State.

A San Diego, Cal., woman died from fright on seeing a dog fight.

The czar and King Victor have agreed on a policy for the Balkans.

De la Grange, the French aviator, has made 54 miles an hour in his m oplane.

Senator Newlands says it will be too great a burden to place a ship subsidy acy to take the life of the former resilaw in force.

Prince Ito was regarded almost universally in Corea as the real benefactor of that country.

The government's prosecution of the ister of finance, for what was believed sugar trust may fail because of the to be an important conference. The limitation statute.

The United States Steel corporation privy council of Japan. shows greatly increased dividends for the quarter just ended.

Joseph Suter, who accompanied Dr. Cook to Mount McKinley, says the explorer did not reach the summit.

A thief looted the Cheyenne, Wyo. pesthouse of all the furniture, which he sold to a second hand store.

C. M. Levey has resigned from the Northern Pacific and has accepted the Glasgow for St. John and Baltimore! vice presidency of the Western Pacific. Four of the victims, young Scotch Astoria is taking steps to celebrate boys, were passengers, and the others a 100th anniversary in 1911. were members of the crew. Captain its 100th anniversary in 1911.

Eureka, Cal., is indignant at the bomb outrage against the Japanese.

Reports say the Chicago & Alton is about to absorb four smaller railroads.

Labor union men are suspected of blowing up buildings of hostile Indianapolis contractor.

Lead miners of South Dakota threat en to go on a strike. Two thousand men are affected.

Raisin grapes are so plentiful in Southern California that growers are using them for horse feed.

The president is on his way down the Mississippi to attend the deep Gannel Rock light, while really diswaterways conference at New Orleans.

President Taft has declared himself Machias Seal island, several miles in favor of bonds for river and harbor southwest, steered the ship many miles work. Speaker Cannon approves the off her course.

Mrs. Charles Netcher, of Chicago, is carrying the most life insurance of any her policies aggregating $1,-Ito's Death Is Likely to Draw Japan 000.000.

The bank at Sulphur Springs, Colo. has been closed. The chief owner has been arrested, charged with having bought the institution in order to wreck it.

may fight a duel.

Oklahoma has commenced suits against three trusts.

Bomb throwing and other disturb-

OREGON STATE ITEMS OF INTEREST Assassin of Prince Ito Boasts Deed Done for Corea Harbin, Oct. 27.- As Prince Hiro-bumi Ito, president of the Japanese privy council, alighted from his train GRAZING IN POOR SHAPE.

Cattle Men Will Probably Have to Feed During the Winter.

Portland-T. P. MacKenzie, super isor of grazing of the national forest rip of inspection of the grazing lands n the Deschutes country. He found A panic resulted from the fusillade he grazing lands in not as good conand when it had subsided, it was found that Prince Ito's private secretary redition as has been the case in other ctions of the state, and in all prob ceived a bullet, as did Japanese Consul ability the number of cattle allowed General Kawakan and General Manager on the ranges will be materially les-Tanaka, of the South Manchurian railway, who had moved closer to the grazing season. prince as the firing began. It is

In some sections of the mountains thought that these three are not morthe grass was practically gone, while t was but seldom that real grass was The assassin was not hard to locate, countered in sufficient quantities to as he stood defiantly in the crowd, reeep the cattle over winter. Many volver in hand. He proved to be a Coattle owners in the Bend country are lanning to feed considerably during he winter. The coming of the railrean, and, with two companions of the same nationality, bossted of a conspiroad into the country has so aroused the farmers, however, that they do not ent general of Corea in satisfaction ther about a temporary setback.

for the alleged tyranny of the prince While the cattle owners will proba-ly suffer a temporary loss, owing to over the Coreans. Prince Ito had come to Harbin to then umber cutting down of meet M. Kokovsoff, the Russian mincattle they are allowed to graze on the government forests, they will gain in partial he end in that with a rest, grass which, properly cared for, will last for years without another rest. conference was suggested by Prince Ito in his capacity as president of the Little trouble is anticipated as the cattle owners have learned that the actions of the national forest service are for the best, and they make no effort to resist.

Twenty Lives Lost in Wreck Off Coast APPLE LAND $1650 AN ACRE.

Eastport, Me., Oct. 27 .- Twenty New Record for High Price Established lives and perhaps more were lost today At Hood River.

in the destruction on shallow Seal cove Hood River-The record price for an of the steamer Hestia, bound from pple orchard was broken at Hood River when Clyde E. Mason, of Chieago, a mechanical engineer, paid, $16, 500 for 10 acres in eight-year-old trees. The varieties are Newtowns and Spitz Newman and 20 or more of the crew ever been obtained for fruit land at Of the 40 persons who were aboard Hood River. The purchase does not nelude any buildings, and J. W. Rod the steamer when she piled on the he agency of the Briggs-Ament com-valley, and joins a number of high priced tracts. Mr. Mason is accompaied by his family, and will remain lere. While the price is thought by apple and reach the stranded vessel. A northeasterly gale is said to have

3-year-old orchard for $1,000 an acre, and another sale of $700 per acre for land that had been cleared, but not set to trees. cerning the gleams of a lighthouse on

New Road Is Assured.

Salem-A. Welch, president of the City on its way to Eugene. A branch will be built, according to Mr. Welch, from Salem to Mehama and the Saniam mining country, and $150,000 will Two members of the Cuban cabinet are resumed it may be that the Japan- be expended on a local street railway

Work on Irrigation Project.

CHAPTER II.

Young Rancher Buys 2,500 Ewes at "A Crooked Path," "Maid, Wife or W dow," "By Woman's Wit," "Beaton's Bargars." "A Life Interest," "Mona's Choice," "A Woman's Heart." $5 25 Each.

Heppner-One of the biggest sheep deals that has been made in this sec-* ervice, has returned from a six weeks' tion this season has just been consum mated. Jim Farley, one of the progressive young sheep men of this sec-tion, bought 2,500 head of 1 and 2-The two ensuing days were full of year-old ewes from Molahan & Bryne at $5.25 per head. The deal involved an investment of about $14,000 by Mr. ed before the opening of the 1910 Farley, but he figures that the increase and wool will make him a profit, although the price paid is about the top notch. With the present outlook for wool prices and the general upward tendency of the stock sheep market, the price paid by Mr. Farley is not considered too high.

Another sale involving over $6,000 was made the latter part of last week by the purchase by Paul Hisler of 2,000 lambs from Hanse Neel, of Lone Rock. This was a sp'endid band of lambs which will be fed by Mr. Hisler at his Butter creek ranch. The price paid was $3.15 per head. took not the slightest interest

Wallowa Has Mammoth Sunflower.

Wallowa-John Henry Wilson, of Lower valley, two miles north of this city, has a large sunflower head on exhibition, measuring 55 inches in circum ference. The sunflower grew on unirrigated land. The plant attained a height of 11 feet. Mr. Wilson also grew wheat that averaged 41 bushels an acre on 37 acres of unirrigated land. In spite he general belief that tender vegetables cannot be grown in Wallowa county

Mr. Wilson has excellent crops of water melons, muskmelons, beans sweet corn and other tender vegetables

Start Roseburg-Coos Bay Survey. Marshfield-That six or eight surveying forces will be put in the field within 10 days to survey the proposed electric line from Coos bay to Roseburg, is stated by J. H. Somers, who represents jamin. locally the promoters of the road, Messrs. Haas and Kuettner, of Portland. Mr. Somers left for Portland on business connected with the road. He ellef that she could manage every states that the matter of the bond will one's affairs considerably better than be satisfactorily arranged and gives assurance that there will be no delay in the work of starting the survey.

Good Roads Are Agitated. Pendleton-That the good roads cam paign inaugurated recently by the County Good Roads association is to be waged relentlessly in every part of the county was indicated at the last meeting of the association. A vice presi dent was appointed for each precinct. and, aside from spreading the gospel of good roads, he will be expected to form subordinate organization in his neighborhood. This will be followed by rousing meetings in which the entire county will participate.

Road-Building Rushed

Prairie City-The first train over the ew railroad from Austin to Huckle berry flat, the top of the grade over Dixie mountain, will be run Wednes hopes, you have destroyed my affection for you, you cease to be my son." "Stop!" cried Hugh, in such a tone of command that his mother obeyed. "You must and shall hear me. Pray sit down. I have a good deal to say. He resumed his walk for a moment, while he strove to collect himself. Mrs. Saville was silent, watching him with cruel, glittering eves. "You have a right to be angry."

Hugh began, throwing himself into a chair near his mother's. "You have been a good mother to me, and you deserve that I should have consulted you-but knowing that you would do your best to forbid or prevent the mar-excitement-pleasurable excitementriage, even to the length of writing to Mrs. Saville. Her keen eyes shone cruelly to Kate, I determined to say with a hard glitter as she thought that nothing till the deed was accomplish ed. Now hear me. I first met the Hilher son was probably saved from committing some dangerous folly, and tons in Naples nearly two years ago, launched afresh on a career which when I was with the Mediterraneon squadron. My uncle Everton was promised honor and promotion. In truth, Mrs. Saville's hopes and ambithere, and I had leave now and again tions were centered on her second son while we lay off Sicily: You know I never bother about women, mother; Her eldest was an apathetic, well-bred, but before I knew Kate Hilton a week, briefless barrister, of dilettante tastes. was fathoms deep. I don't know given to writing elegantly-expressed whether other people think her beautipapers in the more exalted periodicals on obscure passages in Shakespeare, ful or not, to me she is the best and loveliest----- Mrs. Saville made a and latterly in Browning, on the derlmotion of the hands expressive of disvation of obsolete words, and other such topics, in which ordinary mortals gust and repulsion, while a contemptuous smile curled her thin lips There, I will not trouble you with de-Mrs. Saville was the only child and tails," continued Hugh, grimly. "She sole heiress of an exceedingly wealthy sang-well, like a prima donna, and Sheffield manufacturer. She had marshe used to let me sing with her but ried the accomplished, amiable, distinthe more I showed her-well, the feelguished-looking younger brother of the ings I could not repress, the colder and Earl of Everton, an impecunious peer more distant she grew. She drove me whose sole means of existence was dehalf mad. Then I was ashore, as you rived from the rent of the family manknow, and went off wandering abroad. sion and domains. Mrs. Saville was hoping to meet her, as I did. Still an extremely ambitiouns woman; she had a keen desire for personal distinc she kept me at arms'-length, but something told me that she wasn't as intion, and in her own mind had resolved that as her eldest son must in different as she seemed." "No doubt!" ejaculated Mrs. Saville the order of things succeed his uncle "About six weeks ago, I went to and become Earl of Everton, so Hugh must marry a woman of rank and for Nice, and found old Hilton very illtune, and thus she would be free to so bad that I could scarce get speech of Kate. They were lodging in the give the bulk of her belongings to support the title which would devolve outskirts of the town. Then he died very suddenly at the last, and Kate. ipon her eldest son. He was a stead unnerved with watching and grief for preproachable young man, but her the old man, who, though by no means heart, her pride, centered in her Bena good father, was never actively un-Mrs. Saville's love was a somewhat kind, broke down and clung to me. onerous obligation; she had a very She was friendless, penniless, helpless. tough, inexorable will, and a profound I took the command and insisted on her marrying me." "Have you done yet?" asked his they could themselves-a doctrine in nother, harshly. which her younger son rarely agreed. "Nearly. Have a little patience. As woman I ask you what opinion you His mother's greed for power was greatly developed by her early widowwould have of a man who could have hood, though the deceased Honorable deserted the girl he loved with all his her husband was a peace-loving soul heart and soul in such desolation? who rarely contradicted her. Such was Could I have helped her, given her the condition of things at the beginmoney, protection, anything, save as a husband? She was not her usual Receiving no reply to her telegram, proud self, or she would have seen Mrs. Saville sat up late on the followthrough the thin excuses with which ing Wednesday, hoping her son might I veiled your silence. Now, mother, be arrive, and retired to rest weary with tender, womanly-ay, and reasonable. Make up your mind to the inevitable. Kate is my wife. See her before you When her maid brought her early condemn me, before you banish me. announced that "Mr. Hugh arrived Give her the protection I cannot stay about half an hour ago, and has gone to give. I have left her with the kind old Frenchwoman in whose house he Whereupon Mrs. Saville ordered her father died. I dared not endanger my breakfast to be brought to her in her career, my reputation, by losing an own apartment, that she might not dehour: so, for her sake as well as my lay her son's refreshment, and preown; I tore myself away. I don' pared leisurely to meet him in her think I ever asked you a favor: now pray you, if you ever loved me, take morning-room. She was already there to greet him when he came up-stairs. my wife to your heart; let her live near you; give her a chance of win

"Well, my dear Hugh! I am glad to see you. My best congratulations. ning your good opinion, your -----Have you read the Secretary's letter' scornful laugh interrupted him.

ted the presence of his imperious mistress, who sat down to write with a steady hand and a curious scornful smile on her lips.

Mrs. Saville's son did not come to luncheon, and Mr. Rawson's partner wrote his regrets that the head of the firm had left the off . before Mrs. Saville's note had arrived, and they did not know when he would return, but that the writer would wait on Mrs. Saville at once if she wished, and vould telegraph.

So the obdurate mother's intention of destroying her will at once was for the moment frustrated. She therefore ordered the carriage, and, after paying a round of visits, took a long drive, reaching home just in time to see Atkins inspecting a pile of luggage being placed on a cab. He hustled the men who were assisting out of his lady's way, saying officiously, as he did so, 'We have nearly cleared away everything. Just one or two boxes are left for to-morrow. I did not like to take them so late into a private house, and it's a goodish step to Porchester Terrace.

"Do what you like," said Mrs. Saville, coldly; "do not trouble me." And she passed through the hall, thinking, angrily, "So that weak-minded man Rawson is giving that miserable, ungrateful dupe, my son, shelter and encouragement! I will call him to account for this."

It was a wretched evening. Mrs. Saville was to dine with a distinguished dowager, and, with Spartan courage, arrayed herself in her best and went forth to smile and utter bland nothings about her dear boy's haste to get off in good time, about his good fortune in being appointed to the flagship, and many more things about her mingled regret and satisfaction-polite inventions with which she vainly hoped to throw dust in the world's shrewd eyes.

Next day detection took the wings of the morning and came flying in the shame of Lady Olivia Lumley, newspapers in hand. Breathless, excited, she arrived before mid-day, a mark of unauthorized familiarity.

"Oh, my dear Mrs. Saville, my dear Elizabeth, have you seen what is in the newspapers? I came off at once. I could not bear that any one should break it to you but myself." And she held out the paper doubled down at the announcement among the marriages.

"No, I have not," cried Mrs Saville, savagely, snatching the paper, crushing it, and throwing it from her, "but I heard all about everything yesterday morning. I have disowned and banished my son. I will never see him again. But if you have come here 'o gloat over my rage and distress, you will be disappointed. I have merely cut off an offending member. He is not worth regretting. If you ever dare to mention the subject again, I shall decline to hold any communication with you or to give a reason for cutting you. The world can fill up the blanks. (To be continued.)

AN ASSET TO SAN FRANCISCO.

Presence of Chinatown Is Now Re garded as Desirable.

When the earthquake of April, 1906, was followed by the fire which destroved San Francisco, its citizens congratulated themselves that "Chinatown was gone." the Bohemian says.

It seems odd that after so colossal a catastrophe, so trivial an episode should engross the minds of men. But for many days the disappearance of Chinatown figured not only in familiar conversation, but in the newspapers

"Well, at least, Chinatown is gone," was a common remark, followed by

"It's an ill wind that blows nobody good." The gratification of the citizens over the destruction of Chinatown when their own property had also been destroyed seems peculiar now, when seen in the perspective of three years. These congratulations were caused, of course, by the fact that San Francisco's old Chinatown was noisome and insanitary. It was so malodorous that it affected the value of property around its borders.

It was in the heart of the city, too,

Hence the proposal to prevent the return of the Chinese to their old quar-

At first that is Soon there devel. oped opposition. Many Chinese owned the land on which their buildings stood. When they heard that there was opposition to their rebuilding

they complained to their consul-general. He threatened to make the matter an international one, as being an invasion of treaty rights. Then, too, the white landlords yearned after their former Chinese tenants. They threatened legal proceedings if those tenants were prevented from returning. But what was most effective of all was the keen rivalry that sprang up for the possession of San Francisco's Chinese colony. Los Angeles, with 300,000, and Oakland, with 200,000 inhabitants, strongly desired to add San Francisco's 30,000 Chinese to their population. After the disaster Oakland did, for a time, house them all. But Los willing to dispense with what was not

The Mean Thing.

"But why does a horse have to wear

"The same things may be said of blinders, Mr. Speedy? I think they are horrid and cover up the eyes."

the hat you are wearing, madam."

Very Abrupt.

Spring Poet-Yes, sir; I can write

Irate Editor-Well, then, suppose you just right-about-face and head for

A Hot One.

The Book Agent-Madam, at least I

Miss Cayenne-That's all right-so

A friendly thought is the purest sift that man can afford to man .-- Carlyia long as you're not required to prove it.

Houston Post.

the door?

about anything, sir.

claim to be a gentleman.

ter was unanimously approved

as well

Salem, Eugene & Eastern railway, announced that work would immediately commence on the building of the main ine between here and Eugene, and that it will be well under way in 90 days. The main line will parallel the Southern Pacific on the east of that road, going out by the Reform school and touching Washington, Oct. 27.-A probable at Turner, Marion, Peoria and Junction esult of Ito's assassination will be an indefinite postponement of the negotiations regarding railroad conditions in Manchuria. When these negotiations pecially America, regarding the exact meaning of that part of the treaty of Portsmouth which declared a treaty of enbergs. The price per acre, which is $1650, is $50 an acre higher than has were last seen in a ship's boat, tossing ford, who sold, reserves the crop. The orchard, which was sold through shoal early today only six are positively known to have been saved. They were forced to cling to the pany, is situated on the east side of the vreck, shifting their precarious positions as the steamer was tossed by the seas. It was not until 3 p. m. that lifesavers were able to man their boats men to be top-notch, it is not regarded as high, because of the recent sale of a been responsible for the Hestia's fate. although it is partly due to the man at the wheel, who, believing he had seen ances continue in Spain.

cultivation of any special interests by President Taft delivered addresses at Houston and Dallas, Tex.

The czar of Russia was welcomed in Italy with great enthusiasm.

Wilbur Wright is teaching army officers in the use of the Wright aeroplane.

Moros in the Philippines are successful in smuggling modern rifles into the islands.

A magnetic storm on the Atlantic seriously crippled the cable service across the ocean

The Portola festival ended at San Francisco with a parade of floats and a dance on the streets.

Officers of a Nashville, Tenn., bank have been arrested for taking deposits when the institution was insolvent.

The national convention of the W. C. T. U. at Omaha has declared for tion.

The Copper River railroad in Alaska has 82 miles of the 200 completed. More than 3,000 men are at work on the line.

The New York ice trust is on trial for its life.

Nicaragua rebels.

The entire Spanish cabinet has resigned and Liberals fill most of the combination in violation of the Texas places.

Marjorie Gould scorns all foreign suitors, and says an American will do for her.

insists that moral conditions there are pared by the court at once. worse than ever.

The government has dropped the land fraud prosecution against Dr. E. B. Perrin, of California.

San Francisco is almost joy mad over the Portola festival.

Oklahoma bankers think the bank guarantee law is a failure.

Lovett has been elected president of Union Pacific, and will practically be Harriman's successor.

Deaths by tuberculosis are said to b on the decrease on account of the fight that is being made against the disc

A great colebration was held in York commemoration of the surren der of Lord Cornwallis.

A man died at Hastings, Neb., claim ing to be Schlatter, the divine healer, but is believed to have been an impostor.

Senator Newlands, of Nevada, proposes that all Western congressmen unite to obtain funds for waterways and irrigation.

A Swedish professor, accused of bombo-throwing, has become insane.

Los Angeles women have won their fight against smoking on street cars.

Russia is preparing to enforce her

Japan or Russian in Manchuria. There is said to be a striking resem blance between Japan's claims to superiority in Manchuria and those of

MURDER MAY ALTER POLICY

Nearer to America.

Russia to a dominant position in Manchuria, and this community of interest might have had important results had the meeting between Prince Ito and Minister of Finance Kokovsoff taken place.

> General Howard Dead. Burlington, Vt., Oct. 27.-General

Oliver O. Howard, last of the Union commanders of the Civil war, died suddenly at his home here last night of heart disease. He was 79 yeasr old. Last week General Howard was in Ontario delivering his lecture on "Abraham Lincoln." His last public appear ance was at London Saturday night. On Monday he returned to his home here and apparently was in his usual local option as a step toward prohibi- good health. Last night he was attacked by heart trouble and was dead when a physician reached the house.

Texas Fines Oil Firms.

ard Oil company of Indiana was today fined $65,000 in the District court here for violation of the Texas anti-trust Guatemala is still accused of aiding liceragua rebels. confessed to having entered into a anti-trust laws, and judgments amounting to about $175,000, were entered against the companies by Judge Cal- in this vicinity, and the trial will be houn. Forfeitures of charters, permits made on the property of Dr. Owens The Municipal association of Portland and ousters from the state will be pre- Adair, on her tidelands between the Mexican Towns Flooded.

Mexico City, Oct. 27 .- At least two lives lost and damage of 5,000,000 pesos to crops, grain and fine hardwoods resulted from yesterday's cloud burst in the state of Tabasco, according to information received tonight. Five hundred families are homeless in Atasta alone. Other cities and towns inudndated are Huinaguillo, Tenosique.

Jalapa, Tlacotalpam, Tlapa, Santa Rosa and a number of smaller villages along the Mescalpa river.

Four Warships in Mississippi New Orleans, Oct. 27 .- The United States warships Mississippi, North Carolina and New York arrived here today preparatory to the visit of President Taft to the Deep Waterways convention, beginning Saturday. This is the first time that more than one war

Mississippi.

Ito's Son Hears Sad News.

Genoa, Oct. 27 .- Prince Ito's son, Hirokuni, arrived here tonight from Klemmer place on the west side have who informed him of his two and three year cld Spitzenberg and onsul.

himself by great effort and showed W. Rodamar, who recently came from @4; fair to good, $3.50@3.75; lambs, accountable stay in that vile place. rule over Finland by arms if necessary. little of the grief he evidently suffered. Iowa.

Salem, crossing the Willamette river at caused, trains will be running out this point and connecting with the Eu- Prairie City the first of the year. gene & Eastern.

> Car Shortree Affects Union La Grande-The car shortage of the > > PORTLAND MARKETS.

17 %c; squabs, $1.75@2 per dozen.

Pork-Fancy, 9@9%c per pound.

Veal-Extra, 10@11c per pound.

Weston-Preliminary surveys for the Northwest is being keenly felt here proposed Pine creek irrigation project according to the statements of some of have been in progress for the past sev- the large shippers from this section. eral days. Thorough investigagtion Only two cars per day could be secured has been made of several prospective to ship the large quantity of hops from dam sites on Pine creek for several the Wallowa valley.

miles above town, and while no information is given out in detail, it is stated that there are no difficulties in the way toward securing admirable Wheat-Bluestem, $1@1.03; club, reservoir sites. Surveying the canal 92c; red Russian, 90c; valley, 91c; route on the east side of Weston is fife, 92c; Turkey red, 92c; 40-fold, 95c. now in progress and will extend sev-Barley-Feed, $26.50@27 per ton; brewing, $27.50. eral miles below the city. Oats-No. 1 white, $28@28.50 pe

Large Shipment of Mutton Sheep. Corn-Whole, $35 per ton: cracked

Wallowa-One of the largest ship $36. ents of sheep ever made from this county was sent out recently. A spe-ial train of 26 double deck cars, carry-$14@17 per ton; Eastern Oregon, $18 ng nearly 4000 sheep, left this place @20; alfalfa, $15@16; clover, $14 in the afteroon for La Grande. The sheep were purchased from local heepmen by Portland and Seattle firms and were shipped to the coast markets.

Austin, Tex., Oct. 27.-The Stand-All are mutton sheep, and were pur-d Oil company of Indiana was today chased mainly from John Goebel, of regular butter prices. this city, and Jay Dobbin and Faulconer brothers, of Joseph. Ten cars

Search for Oil Will Begin.

Astoria - Another association has en formed to bore for gas and oil $1.25@1.50 per dozen; quinces, $1@ mouth of Young's bay and Warrenton. 1.25 per box; cranberries, $8.50@9 Connected with Dr. Adair in the enter per barrel. rise are E. L. Ferguson and D. M. Stuart, who own adjacent property Oil driving machinery has been orderd potatoes, 134 @2c per pound.

and will be ready for installation within a short time. rutabagas, $1.10.

Top Price for Peach Trees. Talent-C. M. Lee has sold four acres of peach orchard to C. W. Hope for $3,000. The tract is set to new varieties. Sixty trees of the Applegate variety are three years old; S0 trees two years old are of the Sooner variety. The rest are younger and of different varieties.

Elgin Apples Win Prizes.

Elgin-At the Union county fair at a Grande, the Elgin exhibit captured first prize on general display, and reeived eight first prizes and four seeonds. Elgin is planning a general ex-hibit on October 22 and 23, and will vessel has breasted the current of the finish the season at the National apple $3.25@3.75; best cows, $3.60; fair to show.

Eastern Man Buys Orchard.

Hood River-Twenty acres of the 4.75 He was met by the Japanese been sold for $17,000. The trees are $7.25@7.50; stockers, $5@6.

told Atkins to give it to you." 'Do you imagine I am as weak a fool "Yes, he did," said Hugh, shortly; then he kissed his mother's brow and stood looking at her with a troubled expression.

cup of tea, the following morning, she ning of this narrative.

unfulfilled expectation.

o his room."

haps six or seven-and-twenty, rather above middle height, broad-shouldered. and seeming shorter than he really was. His features were good, and a pair of large handsome brown eyes lighted up his face, which was square and strong; his hair and thick moustaches were light brown, with a red life?" dish tinge.

"Why, Hugh, you are looking ill and vorn. You do not seem like yourself Why did you not arrive last night? "I came as quickly as I could: the trains at this season are inconveni ent," he returned, still in an absent tone. He had a pleasant, deep-chested voice, and, though he had never given Hav-Timothy, Willamette valley, much time to its cultivation, could sing a good second.

"If you had started on Monday night cheat, $13@14.50; grain hay, $14@15. after you had my telegram, you might Butter-City creamery, extras, 36c have been here yesterday. per pound; fancy outside creamery, "I could not, mother." And he be-33@36c; store, 22%@24c. Butter fat gan to pace the room in quarter-deck prices average 1%c per pound under style.

"Why?" persisted Mrs. Saville, with Eggs-Oregon, 35@36c per dozen. ague uneasiness Poultry-Hens, 15@15%c; springs,

"Because I had a rather particular 4 %@15c; roosters, 9@10c; ducks, 15 ngagement on Tuesday morning." @16c; geese, 10c; turkeys, 16%@ "What do you mean?"

"I had arranged to be married on Tuesday morning, and I could not disappoint the parson and the consul, to Fruits - Apples, $1@2 per box say nothing of my flancee," he returnpears, $1@1.50; grapes, 80c@$1.25 ed, with a grim smile, and pausing in per crate, 15c per basket; casabas, his walk opposite his mother.

"Married!" she repeated, growing white and grasping the arms of her Potatoes-50@65c per sack, sweet chair. "Hugh, this is a supid, vulgar

"It is not, mother. I am married Sack Vegetables-Turning, 75c@1 as fast as church and state can bind per sack; carrots, $1; beets, $1.25; me. If I look haggard and seedy you need not wonder, for it isn't pleasant Voll. Onions-Oregon, $1@1.25 per sack.

to leave your bride almost at Vegetables - Artichokes, 80c per dozen; cabbage, ¾@lc per pound; church door. I can tell you." "Madman!" she hissed through her cauliflower, 40@90c per dozen; celery,

50@85c; corn. $1@1.25 per sack; flashed with fury. "To what adventurhorseradish, 9@10c per dozen; pepess have you fallen a victim?" pers, 5@6c per pound: pumpkins, 1@ "Hush," he said, with some die

14c; radishes, 15c per dozen; sprouts, nity; "you must not speak disrespect-E@9c per pound; squash, $1@1.10: tofully of my wife. To-morrow or next Hops-1909 crop, 24@26c per pound; day you will see full particulars in the 1908 crop, 20c; 1907 crop, 12c; 1906 newspapers."

Wool- Eastern Oregon, 16@23c per pounds mohair, choice, 24c. Cattle-Best steers, $4.75; fair to good, $4@4.50; medium and feeders, good, $3@3.25; common, $2.50@2.75; bulls, $2@2.50; stags, $2.50@3.50; calves, Hight, $5.25@5.50; heavy, $4@ Ily, I belleve; but that I don't care a

Hogs-Best, $7,85@8.05; blockers, Sheep-Best wethers, $4.25@4.50; father's death. The youth controlled Newtown trees. The purchaser is H. fair to good, $3.75@4; best ewes, $3.75 matoes, 40@60c.

crop. Sc

as my son? such an abject weakling? No. I shall have nothing to do with you or your wife. Go; I shall not see you again. You have never asked me He was a fair, sunburnt map of per a favor? Have I not paid your debts?' "Yes, at Rawson's request, not mine nor should I have incurred them had my allowance been measured by the needs and habits with which I had been brought up. Did you ever love my father, that you are so hardened against the first love of your son's

> "I had a proper affection for my husband, but I should never have for gotten myself for any man. I repeat it, you cease to be my son from this hour. You shall have the quarter's allowance now due to you, but after this not a penny more. See how you will get on with the beggarly pittance you derive from your father. To-morrow I shall see Rawson about altering my will. What wife will compensate you for a life of poverty and obscurity?' "Poor we may be, but obscure, if I live, we shall not be," said Hugh, rising, and looking steadily at his moth er, while he spoke very calmly. may deserve some censure for not informing you of my plans, but this treatment I do not deserve. And yet I believe you have a heart, though so calked and coated with worldliness that its natural impulses are hopeless ly deadened, your natural good sense blinded to the relative value of things. What would the wealth of a kingdom be to me, if I knew the woman I love was groping her way painfully, with a bruised spirit and bleeding feet, through the rugged ways of life with out a hand to help her? No, mother, your son is man enough to risk every-Angeles began bidding for them. San thing rather than that. I will obey you and go. Good-by. God be with Francisco contemplated the action with mingled feelings. She was quite you. I will never see your face again until you ask me and my wife to visit wanted, but when she found that her "Then it is farewell forever," said former undesirables constituted an Mrs. Saville, sternly, "Take my thanks asset which was sought for by two for this repayment of all the care and rival cities, she concluded she wanted set teeth, while ner keen black eyes thought and affection I have lavished them herself. on you.'

Hugh stood half a minute gazing at her, then, turning sharply, left the room without another word. Mrs. Saville had risen to utter her last sentence, and now walked to the fireplace to ring sharply.

"What!" she almost screamed, "are "Tell one of the men to be ready in you in such haste to blazen your disten minutes. I want to send a note to grace to the world?" Mr. Rawson. It requires an answer,"

"I may as well let you know she said to the butler. "And, Atkins, once," he continued, not heeding her I shall not want you any more to-day; interruption. "My wife was Miss Hill. you had better assist Mr. Hugh. He is ton, daughter of the late Captain Hilpretted for time. I wish everything ton, an old cavalryman, of good fambelonging to him in this house to be packed and removed by to-morrow rap about."

evening at the furthest. You under "I expected this,' said Mrs. Savilla stand me," said his mistress, sternly; in a low, concentrated tone, and rising "everything must be removed. And, in her wrath. "Some inner voice told Atkins, telegraph to Mr. Saville 1 me evil would come of your long, unthink he has returned to his chambers: he was to be away only a week. Now leave me. Never let me set eyes | Say I want him to come here to lunch-