Port Orford—Curry county is to have a bank, the first institution of the kind that has ever opened its doors to the patronage of that wealthy section of Oregon, says the Coos Bay Harbor. A county nearly as large as the state of Rhode Island and without a bank is an item of more than passing interest. The bank will be at Port Orford. George D. ## SEARCH FOR OIL KEEPS UP.

Malheur County May Be Largest Oil Field in West.

Union—J. P. Wilbur, director of the Union National bank, of Union, stated that he is quite certain that oil will be discovered in paying quantities in Malheur county, where he has just been to look into the oil prospecting going on there.

"Seven out of 22 incorporated oil and gas companies in Malheur county," stated Mr. Wilbur, "are drilling steadily day and night at depths varying from 500 to 1700 feet. After a recent thorough examination by Chester Washburn, United States oil geologist, he states positively that, in his estimation, Malheur county would in time be the largest oil-producing field in the West."

If oil is found in the quantities expected by Mr. Wilbur, he thinks it will be piped to Portland, and will thus aid in developing this part of the state, as well as the place where it is discovered. The discovery of oil, Mr. Wilbur declares, will aid in the reclamation of much arid land in Eastern Oregon and Idaho, as cheap fuel for pumping the necessary water will then be available.

The total taxable property of the district is nearly $3,000,000. One additional grade and one more high school teacher are provided for in the estimates for next year.

The Natural End.

The "actors" that Lionel knows most about are the sort that do lofty feats in the circus. He has a proper appreciation of the danger of their calling and the means adopted for their safety. Recently, declares a writer in the Buffalo Express, he heard his father mention the name of Sir Henry Irving.

"Who is Sir Henry Irving, father?" asked Lionel.

"He was a great actor," said the father.

"What show is he with?"

"He isn't with any show now. He's dead."

"What happened? Did he miss the net?"
