J. K. McGregor returned on Wednesday from a business trip to Portland.

Mrs. J. E. Higley was shopping in Hood River on Tuesday afternoon.

E. T. Johnson, of Portland, was in town yesterday, looking after his land interests here.

C. T. Bennett was a business visitor at the county seat on Monday last, returning home Tuesday morning.

C. J. Littlepage, Park Sturgess, John Stranz and H. G. Kibbee were transacting business at the county seat last Saturday.

Geo. Carroll moved his family back onto the ranch this week, preparatory to beginning his Spring work.

Geo. Parrish and family returned on Tuesday from a fortnight's visit with friends in Eastern Oregon and Washington.

Visitors from Hood River in Mosier last Monday were Mayor E. McDonald, B. E. Duncan, H. M. Huxley, Chris Nickolsen, C. A. Bell and H. A. Cass.

Jack Burchett and family, of Dayton, Wash., arrived in town last Saturday. Mr. Burchett, who is a son-in-law of D. P. Harvey, has taken a position as block man in Denny & Harvey's meat market.

County Surveyor A. W. Mohr, of The Dalles, came down last Wednesday to do some surveying for J. N. Mosier and to run out a line on the proposed new road along the river between Mosier and The Dalles.

E. Brong, a prominent capitalist of Portland, was in town yesterday. While here he acquired a chunk of Mosier real estate—we know this to a certainty, for we saw it sticking to his feet. He wouldn't say how much more he contracted for.

Deputy Sheriff W. E. Huskey returned home Sunday morning from a week's hunting trip on the DesChutes. He was hunting two boot-leggers and bagged one, the other being too slick, given for the astute judge.

John Denny has determined to work off some of his superfluous averdupos and with that end in view he will leave the meat market for awhile and work outside. He has taken a contract to grub off a piece of land for Ed F. Reeves.

Celebrate Tin Wedding.

Last Friday night a number of friends gathered at the "suburban" residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. McGregor, to assist them in celebrating the tenth anniversary of their wedding, each guest bringing some useful article of tinware.

The evening was most pleasantly spent in social chat, music, and a brain-racking word contest, which consisted of filling in missing words in sentences, each word to be supplied containing the word "tin," as a prefix, suffix or syllable. The guests had previously drawn slips of paper from two boxes, one for the ladies, the other for the gentlemen, each slip containing a number and the name of some article of tinware. When they had compared numbers and names and had paired off, the guests then set to work to solve the problem of "Jane." At the conclusion of the contest it was found that of the 23 missing words to be supplied, the two "dishpans" had correctly filled in 21 of them, winning the prize, a handsome cake plate for the lady and a transparent picture for the gentleman.

At the conclusion of the contest dainty refreshments were served. Mrs. J. H. Porter and Mr. T. Lelliott favored the company with solos, and at a late hour the guests departed, having spent a delightful evening, and wishing the host and hostess many happy returns of the occasion.

The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Moe, Hood River; Mrs. H. E. Waite, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Akers, Mr. and Mrs. A. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Littlepage, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. T. Lelliott, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Fraedricks, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Bothfur, Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Young, Dr. and Mrs. D. Robinson, Dr. and Mrs. N. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Kibbee, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ginger, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Ross, J. N. Mosier.

Church of Christ Notes.

We had good congregations on Feb. 6 and our Bible School was the largest yet. Come, and see a live school.

Next Lord's Day morning our subject will be "Personal Evangelization," and in the evening, "Citizens of Aliens, Which?" Come and hear these themes presented. Welcome to all.

Special Offer to our Subscribers

We are making a special offer to our subscribers that will appeal to them, particularly those who are fruit growers or are interested in fruit growing.

Our offer is to give the MOSIER BULLETIN and BETTER FRUIT One Year for Two Dollars.

Every person in Mosier District should subscribe for his home paper, and every person should have that publication, BETTER FRUIT, which is invaluable to the man who would make a success of fruit-raising. In fact, he can't afford to be without it. Here is your opportunity to get the two papers for almost the price of one. This offer is for all our present subscribers, who renew their subscriptions to the BULLETIN on or before March 1, as well as for all new subscribers.

This offer withdrawn March 1st

SCHOOL NOTES.

Ted Young and Lyle Cook are again in school, after an absence of several weeks.

Notice for Publication

[Publisher.]
Department of the Interior.
U. S. Land Office at The Dalles, Oregon December 10th, 1909.

Notice is hereby given that Charles E. Hawver, whose post office address is Salt Lake City, Utah, did, on the 5th day of March, 1909, file in this office Sworn Statement and Application, No. 04697, to purchase the SW1-4NE1-4, NW1-4SE1-4, E1-2SW1-4, Sec. 12, Tp. 1 N., R. 11 EWM., and the timber thereon, under the provisions of the act of June 3, 1878, and acts amendatory, known as the "Timber and Stone Law," at such value as might be fixed by appraisal, and that, pursuant to such application, the land and timber thereon have been appraised, the timber estimated 259,000 board feet at 75 cts per M, and the land $205.75; that said applicant will offer final proof in support of his application and sworn statement on the 2nd day of March, 1910, before the Register and Receiver of the United States Land Office, at The Dalles, Oregon.

Any person is at liberty to protest this purchase before entry, or initiate a contest at any time before patent issues, by filing a corroborated affidavit in this office, alleging facts which would defeat the entry.
