The Easter millinery display in Mosier was gorgeous, not to say bewildering.

Mrs. Cora E. Ward, editor of Echo's Echo, was in Mosier the first of the week.

Miss Annie Shogren of Portland visited over Sunday with relatives in Mosier.

D. W. Hudson and daughter Mattie were visitors in Hood River last Saturday.

Twelve dollars a hundred for live lamb! Mary's little pet is not long for this world.

Eighteen Italians arrived on Monday night to work for Denny & Harvey clearing land.

Dr. Nick Johnson and a hired man are putting in long hours on his orchard these days.

Buy Spray outfits of the Mosier Fruit Growers' Association. They sell the "Hardie."

Miss May Shogren returned last Friday night from a three weeks' visit with friends in New York.

Miss Maude Bateham came up from Portland last Saturday to spend a few days with her father.

W. H. Kerslake spent a few days at his ranch this week planting onions and currying the old gray horse.

Work has commenced on the basement of a 5-room bungalow in the new addition in the west part of town.

The river has subsided to the normal spring stage, and the carrot patch on the flat is again out of danger.

William Baker, president, secretary and membership of the local painters' union, is painting the Pine Tree hotel.

The Rev. H. Campbell Clark, pastor of the Mosier Christian church, is spending the week at his home in Corvallis.

Work on J. E. Cole's 9-room residence is progressing rapidly, and the family expect to take possession about April 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Burlingame returned to their home at Cooks, Wash., Wednesday after spending a few days in Mosier.

Ground has been cleared for the Mosier Lumber Company's yard next the railroad tracks and fronting Main street from the west.

Petrified wood is found in various parts of the Mosier district. Can there be any connection, immediate or remote, between this fact and the indifference shown in some quarters towards promotion work?

It is semi-officially announced that, beginning next Sunday, the Mosier band will give Sunday concerts at the baseball park from 1:30 to 3 p. m. This move calls for a band stand, which no doubt will be provided by the commercial club.

The Mosier Lumber Co. is putting in a line of lumber, lath, shingles, moldings, sash and doors, also lime, plaster, cement and brick. Call and have a talk with me for anything in the building line.

GEO. HAACKE.

Miss Mattie Hudson gave a party Monday night to a score or more of her young friends in celebration of her 17th birthday anniversary. Games and plays filled the evening with enjoyment. Light refreshments were served. Miss Hudson received many congratulations and, as was fitting, more compliments.

The ball game here on Sunday afternoon between two picked-up nines resulted in a 5 to 7 score. The play for several innings was snappy, but the weather is yet too cool for the ringer necessary to fast play. Hard practice will develop a team from the material at hand that should give a good account of itself during the season. Among the more interested spectators were three fluffy youngsters, ranging in age from two to five, who sat on a log in the shade at deep right and roared enthusiastically when bad errors produced lively action.

Successful Entertainment.

"District School," given Saturday night under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society, kept the large house in a gale of laughter during the entire evening. It was an all-star cast, hence individual mention is out of the question. The proceeds of the entertainment amounted to $55.

J. F. and F. A. Mooker of Port Townsend, Wash., were in town Tuesday looking for desirable apple land.

A meter installed at the post-office corner would have determined approximately the movement of real estate Monday.

When John Wellberg's dining room is finished the dinner bell will be more nearly "the tocsin of the soul" than it is now.
