Miss Grace Duvall last week accompanied her father on his trip to Little Falls and Astoria.

Messrs. Burggraf and Vogt were business visitors in The Dalles on Tuesday last.

W. H. Kerslake was a visitor at the county seat on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. H. E. Waite, of Portland, arrived in town on Tuesday evening for a few days' visit with her daughter, Miss Bertha Booth.

Ed. L. Howe and wife and the latter's mother, Mrs. Biles, came up from Portland last Sunday, and will spend some time at Lehowa.

Messrs. Robt. Simpson, T. C. Godberson, and Frank Ginger went to The Dalles on Tuesday last as witnesses for W. P. Finny, who made final proof on his homestead.

D. C. Napper, who has been 'on the lift' with rheumatism for the past fortnight, is able to get about again, with the aid of a "wooden leg."

Another land deal was consummated in Mosier last week, when Burggraf and Vogt sold to E. E. Martin, of Portland, a small tract of land owned by Curtis Bros. for a consideration of $3,000.

At a meeting of the school board last Tuesday, the present teachers, Mrs. Amy L. Gove and Miss Bertha Booth, were engaged to teach during the coming year.

Louis Bauer arrived in town on Tuesday last, and will spend a few weeks with his mother and two brothers, who are making a garden out of a wilderness on their ranch, recently purchased from Gerald Wyss.

Messrs C. S. McCorkle and Geo. Crawford, two prominent ranchers of the Wanuc neighborhood, spent Wednesday afternoon ane evening in town, the guests of the Bulletin man. They report crop conditions in their section most favorable.

Another young Mosierite has suddenly sprung into prominence. James A. Sturgess, who has resided in Mosier for the last eighteen years, has decided to follow up the vocation of a real estate agent, and has accordingly opened up offices in the Bulletin building. As Mr. Sturgess is well acquainted with this district, and is intimately acquainted with many of the settlers, we see no reason why he should not meet with the same success that has attended the efforts of his brother agents. His advertisement appears in another part of this issue.

ORGANIZE OIL COMPANY

The Hood River Oil Company was organized Saturday with a capital of $500,000 by the election of H. J. Hibbard, H. F. Davidson, F. M. Loy, A. A. Jayne and C. L. Morse directors. The company has obtained large holdings near Vale, Ore., at present the center of an oil excitement.—Hood River News.

An Appeal to Civic Pride.

Every person in Mosier knows that there is no more beautiful spot on earth, so far as natural scenery is concerned, than Mosier. Even Switzerland, with all its beauty, cannot surpass us. So, seeing that God and nature have done their part in making this a beauty spot, it is up to us, now, to complete the job.

In view of the fact that Mosier is again to be honored by a visit from the Portland Commercial Club, it behooves every citizen, old and young, to try to maintain the good impression that was made when they were here before. Also, remembering that this is the tourist season, when strangers from all over the world are visiting this beautiful Western land of ours, and that first impressions are usually lasting ones. Hence this appeal.

Having been asked several times by the public to take the initiative in inaugurating another "clean up" day, the Civic Improvement Club, at a meeting held last Monday, decided to ask every citizen of Mosier to see that his own premises are cleaned by Tuesday, May 10th. After you have your own place spick and span, make it your duty to see that your neighbor goes and does likewise. Every city, town and village almost, in the state of Oregon, has had "clean up" day and the civic pride of the Mosier citizens should be so strong that they will not allow themselves to be outdone. So make Monday, May 9th, clean-up day, and then you will be sure that every tin can and pile of rubbish will be gone by Tuesday. If anyone refuses to comply with this request the Civic Club will be glad to have his name, as they know, from past experience, that no resident of Mosier will refuse to aid in this movement unless physically unable to do so.

CIVIC IMPROVEMENT CLUB.

BALL GAME SUNDAY.

The local ball tossers will cross bats with the Husum aggregation next Sunday on the home diamond. The Mosier boys have been doing some good practice work lately, and they expect to make the Washington lads earn their money.

Mrs. E. Hunter, Secretary of the C. W. B. M., will speak at the Christian Church, on Monday.

On Wednesday last Mr. Phil. Arthur went to White Salmon, where he will follow the vocation of a carpenter. For the past five months Mr. Arthur has been in charge of the DeBussey ranch in Mosier. He has purchased a fine residence lot in White Salmon and will commence building operations immediately.

On Wednesday evening next a debate will be held at the Christian Church by the Young People's Branch of the W.C.T.U. The subject for debate will be "Resolved: That the state governments are justified in using force to quell a strike." There will be four speakers each for the affirmative and the negative sides, and as this subject has been brought before the public mind so much lately, the debate should prove most interesting.

On Sunday last the Loyal Bereans held another of their most enjoyable weekly meetings at the Christian Church, about twenty members answering to the roll call. The class is steadily growing in numbers and popularity, and, under the able teaching of Mr. John Carroll, it is expected that many more young men and women will be added to the ranks. The class will hold its monthly devotional meeting tonight at 7.15 o'clock, when every member is expected to attend.
