Burglars Make Haul.

On Tuesday afternoon, while the family of George Gardner was away from home, sneak-thieves entered the house and stole a number of articles, among them being a watch, some razors and a coat belonging to one of the boys. The thieves were not apprehended, tho a couple of "Pinkerton's beat" have been set on their trail.

That same evening, between 9 and 10 o'clock, some parties, presumably the same outfit, were heard going through the living rooms of A. Stewart, over the store. Mrs. Stewart, thinking it was a member of the family, at first paid no attention to the noise, but later phoned to her husband, who was attending college. On his arrival home he made a thorough examination of the house and store, but could discover nothing missing, and it is supposed that the marauders were frightened away. It behooves residents to look well to their doors and window fastenings, as the light-fingered centry are making themselves obnoxious all along the line.

Church of Christ Notes.

On account of sickness and other hindrances, our attendance last Sunday was not as good as usual. Let everyone rally and help the Lord's Cause.

The subject next Lord's Day morning will be "Deacons in the Church of Christ", and the evening subject will be "Disobedience."

For awhile, on Sunday mornings, we expect to teach the scripture as to the officers, parts and principles of the Apostolic Church, but no man's theory will be given.

H. CAMPBELL CLARK, Minister.

Fred Forslund went to Portland this morning on business and to see the wind up of the Rose Festival.

Frank Keith, who has been visiting his aunt, Mrs. A. H. McLane, returned this week to his home at Hoquiam, Wash.

The local team put up a good game of ball last Sunday, but the Underwood boys beat them by one point, the score being 5 to 6. The Mosier team will try conclusions with them again next Sunday, on the Underwood diamond.
