For all kinds of plumbing material, see Forslund.

Al Evans was a passenger on yesterday's local to Portland.

C. G. Nichol was a business visitor in Hood River Wednesday.

J. K. McGregor transacted business in Hood River Wednesday.

No job too small or too big for me to figure on. See Forslund.

H. F. Bothfur returned home Sunday from a week's stay in Portland.

Go to the Mosier Lumber Co. for your sash, doors, screens etc.

You will save on horse feed by buying one of those whips at Forslund's.

Henry Bauer and mother returned on Monday from a visit with relatives in Portland.

J. M. Elliott returned Sunday night from Portland, where he spent Rose Festival week.

One more auto in town, so be sure to have good lines and harness. Get them of Forslund.

C. A. Hage returned Wednesday night from a fortnight's visit to the metropolis.

Miss Agnes Phillips returned yesterday from a visit with relatives at Hood River.

Now is the time to buy that piping and put in your water works before it advances. See Forslund.

F. R. Chown and wife, of Portland, spent Sunday in town with their son, W. E. Chown, and family.

The Mosier Lumber Co. can fill your orders for lime, cement, brick and plaster.

The Dalles is making arrangements for a monster Fourth of July celebration next month.

Parke Sturgess returned last Monday from Portland, where he spent Sunday with friends.

J. N. Mosier returned the first of the week from Portland, having spent the Rose Festival week with his family.

Mrs. R. M. Ross and Mrs. J. K. McGregor were passengers on Wednesday morning's local for Portland.

Chas. Oss moved his family back to Portland last week. Mr. Oss has secured his old position again with the railroad company.

Attorney S. W. Stark, of Hood River, has announced his candidacy for the District Judgeship.

Mrs. Amelia Stimson, of Amity, Ore., arrived in town Tuesday morning and is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. Stewart.

The Pacific States Telephone Co. has a force of workmen in town this week changing the line and setting new poles.

Miss Alice Davenport of The Dalles visited in town Wednesday, returning home yesterday, accompanied by her brother, John.

C. A. Frey returned Wednesday from a month's visit at his old home in Denver, and other Eastern cities. He seemed glad to get back to Mosier.

Rev. H. C. Clark left yesterday morning for Portland where he will meet his family, who have left Corvallis and who will return with him to Mosier.

The Dalles Fourth of July committee is sparing neither time, money nor effort to make the coming celebration the best that has ever been held in the city, and promise all kinds of a good time to those who attend.

Another globe-trotter passed thru town this week. This man started from Holland and has five years in which to round the circle. He claimed to be walking round the world on a wager. Walking's fine now.

Mrs. John Arthur, of Castle Rock, spent Saturday and Sunday with her son, P. L. Arthur, one of Mosier's popular druggists.

The many friends of Mrs. A. Stewart will be pleased and relieved to know that her health is greatly improved and that there are strong hopes of her ultimate recovery.

Monday's Oregonian says:—"Rev. R. H. Chaffee, of Mosier, was the first Prohibitionist to register 'Oregon Dry 1910' on a hotel register in Portland and perhaps in the State of Oregon."

Miss Irene Fisher, who is spending the summer with relatives at Hood River, visited here last Sunday with her parents, returning to Hood River Monday morning, accompanied by her sister, Miss Dolly.

Price Hunter and wife arrived in town last Sunday evening from their home at Alsea, and will spend a couple of weeks visiting relatives and friends. Mr. Hunter reported that his father was quite ill with pleurisy at the time he left home.

Rev. Mr. Bentzien and family, of Portlad, spent last Sunday in town, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Akers. Mr. Bentzien, who is assistant pastor at the White Temple (Baptist) Church, Portland, preached two very interesting sermons here, morning and evening.

J. R. Huskey, who recently purchased Bob Evans' property on Washington street, is having it remodeled and enlarged. He will move down from the ranch when it is completed.

D. M. Duvall today moved his family and household goods to Oregon City, near which place he has purchased an eighty acre farm. The Duvall family has lived in and near Mosier a number of years and will be missed from the community.

The Mosier ball boys played two games last Sunday, one at Underwood, where they lost out by a score of 2 to 3, and the other with Belmont, played on the Hood River diamond, Belmont winning, the score being 5 to 3. The boys are looking for another game Sunday. If patience and perseverance conquereth all things, as 'tis said, our boys should be able to "wax" anything in sight by the end the season—even the Huskey nine.

Died.

On June 8, 1910, at the home of her daughter in Portland, Mrs Mary J. Littlepage, in her 77th year. Interment wat at Corbett.

Mrs. Littlepage had been a resident of Multnomah county for 35 years. Six children survive her, five of whom were with her at the time of her death. She was the mother of C. J. Littlepage of Mosier.

Church of Christ Notes.

Next Lord's Day morniug our subject will be "Faith and Works," and in the evening, "Disobedience." We cordially and earnestly invite every one to attend these services. We want to tell you something.

Our choir is doing nicely and we ask you to come and hear some of our special music.

Last Sunday evening we dismissed our services to hear Dr. Bentzien, of Portland. Mosierites who did not go to hear him should be ashamed of themselves.

H. CAMPBELL CLARK, Minister.

SUMMONS.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR WASCO COUNTY.

Agnes Lee, Plaintiff, vs.
Augustus F. Lee, Defendant.

To Augustus F. Lee, the defendant above named:

In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit on or before six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, hereinafter stated, and if you fail to appear and answer said complaint, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in her complaint, namely: for a divorce from the defendant upon the ground of cruel and inhuman treatment, and permitting the plaintiff to assume her former name of Agnes Leslie.

You are notified that this summons is served upon you by publication for six weeks in the Mosier Bulletin by order of the court made May 17, 1910, directing that said summons be so published for a period of six weeks from the date of the first publication thereof.

The date of the first publication of this summons is May 20, 1910.
