Beer Galore But No Water

One can get plenty of beer to drink in Shaniko, but water is a scarce article. The town has so outgrown the supply that water for the locomotives has to be hauled from Biggs in tanks, and for train use is taken on here. Last week a large drove of cattle awaiting shipment there were 60 hours without a sip to quench thirst.—Sherman County Observer.

Eastman-Carr

Wm. Stanley Eastman, one of our prominent and prosperous young ranchers, was married last Sunday, the 19th, to Miss Lela May Carr. The happy event took place at the home of the bride's parents in the White Salmon Valley, Skamania County, Washington. Rev. S. C. Lapham, of Portland, officiated.

Mr. and Mrs. Eastman will be at home on the home ranch after July first.

A host of friends in Portland and Mosier wish these young people a happy and prosperous Godspeed.

Strawberry Season Over

The Hood River strawberry season is just about finished now and there are still a few small shipments each day by express while the field pickers are cleaning up some of the later fields. The carload shipments were stopped more than a week ago and now the cherries, raspberries and blackberries are coming to the front in the fruit shipments. The strawberry shipment this year was not as large as it has been in former times when a large acreage was devoted to berries, but considering the early season the prices obtained by the growers were very good, averaging about $2.50.—Glacier.
