SWEDISH SANITARIUM

Our method of treating diseases is not a new one but an old and well tested one, worthy of a trial to any discouraged and hopless sufferer. Being graduates of Sweden and employing all the European methods the results in curing are miraculous to which hundreds of patients in all stations of life will testify. Our methods are not entirely drugless but we adhere to the use of physical methods as much as possible such as Electricity, Chiropractic, Hinsen rays, Bake-oven, Manipulations, Baths of all kinds, Physical Culture, also the famous Nauheim treatment prescribed so much in Europe for heart trouble and asthma.

Our Sanitarium is especially equipped with a modern surgery and a staff of Surgeons and Physicians of wide experience and high repute. We cure Rheumatism, Diseases peculiar to Women, Chronic Constipation, Kidney, Bladder, Liver and Stomach Trouble, Blood and Skin Diseases, Paralysis, Habits of various sorts of both old and young, and all Nervous and Chronic Diseases. Testimonials on file from patients cured whom you can write to. Write or call for particulars. Consultation free. All questions confidential. Charges moderate. Address Drs. Nasbeth, Swedish Sanitarium, 63 Market St., Cor. 12th, Portland, Ore.

Thackeray's Correction.

A distinguished foreigner visiting Epsom Downs in Thackeray's company noticed, St. James' Budget affirms many men dressed as sailors who were not, to native and experienced eyes, the real article.

"Ah," said the visitor, "these are, I suppose, what you call your British tars?"

"Oh, no," replied Thackeray. "Only Epsom salts."

Only One More Resource.

Elderly Uncle—Spent your entire patrimony, have you, Archibald? Gone through everything?

Scapegrace Nephew—Yes, uncle; everything but the bankruptcy court.

Count 'Em.

"Let me off," said the professor, "at Minute street."

"Don't know of any such street on this line, sir," answered the conductor.

"I suppose you call it 'Sixty-second,'" rejoined the professor; "but what is the difference?"

Whereby the professor made another lifelong enemy.

Slight Coolness Between Them Now.

Mrs. Jenner Lee Ondego—Do you know, I have never seen my husband without his beard. Some day I am going to ask him to shave it off, so I can see what he really looks like.

Mrs. Seldom-Holme—O, no; don't do that! You'll be sorry. I knew him before he ever had any beard.

You Can Have a Model Kitchen as cool and white as a dairy. No smell, no smoke, no heat, no dust. No old-fashioned contrivances. The

New Perfection
WICK BLUE FLAME

is the latest practical, scientific cook-stove. It will cook the most elaborate dinner without heating the kitchen.

Boils, bakes, or roasts better than any range. Ready in a second. Extinguished in a second. Fitted with Cabinet Top, with collapsible rests, towel rack, and every up-to-date feature imaginable. You want it, because it will cook any dinner and not heat the room. No heat, no smell, no smoke, no coal to bring in, no ashes to carry out. It does away with the drudgery of cooking, and makes it a pleasure. Women with the light touch for pastry especially appreciate it, because they can immediately have a quick fire, simply by turning a handle. No half-hour preparation. It not only is less trouble than coal, but it costs less. Absolutely no smell, no smoke; and it doesn't heat the kitchen.

The nickel finish, with the turquoise blue of the enameled chimneys, makes the stove ornamental and attractive. Made with 1, 2 and 3 burners; the 2 and 3-burner stoves can be had with or without Cabinet.

Cautionary Note: Be sure you get this stove—see that the name-plate reads "New Perfection."

LOMBROSO ABSENT-MINDED.

Criminologist Took No Thought of Money—Amusing Adventures.

One side of the late Prof. Lombroso's character little known to outsiders made him adored by his children, especially his two daughters, who looked after him as though he were a child.

His two greatest domestic characteristics were disregard of appearances and absent-mindedness, says a London letter to the New York Sun. When he was invited out in the evening it was the work of two or three days to get him keyed up to putting on his dress clothes, and even then he was capable of weakening at the last moment and going out just as he happened to find himself.

Once when going to Rome he lost his overcoat, but was not in the least discouraged, as he entered the first shop of ready-made clothing and bought the top-most warm thing which came to hand without even looking at it. It proved to be a long, bright, bottle-green cloak, which came down to his heels and in which he looked, with his broad-brimmed felt hat, like a figure attired for the carnival.

His absent-mindedness was so great that when under the care of the home circle he never attempted to look after the money and would even leave the house to go shopping without ever looking to see if he had his purse with him. Naturally when he traveled the consequences for his pocket were disastrous. He invariably arrived home without a penny, no matter how much he had taken with him, having either lost it or had it stolen.

In Vienna once he lost his purse, which frightened him so that when he recovered it he resorted to the expedient of dividing his funds into various small sums, which he concealed about his person in all kinds of unlikely places, so that at least he would not lose it all at one time. There was a note in the lining of his hat, another in his boot, several pinned to his shirt, and so on, but, notwithstanding this, he arrived home in his usual penniless condition.

FASHION HINTS

Very sheer white muslin and embroidered flouncing are used in this dainty lingerie dress.

The hat is a combination of ecru straw and plaited net ruffles. A small bunch of pink flowers nestles under the lace on the right side. The ribbon on the crown and at the waist, is also pink.

The Hinter.

"If there is one thing I hate," said the determined young business woman as she sat down to lunch in a down town restaurant, "it's the hinter. If someone wants to borrow an umbrella or some money from you let her say so right out, not come shambling into your office, take away all your valuable time beating around the bush and droping fool hints on the way. I don't take a hint. I'm not dense, but I want to discourage the habit. I think it shows cowardice.

"Take the man who wants to come to see you. Why can't he say, 'May I call?' No, he hasn't the courage of his convictions, but he has to hem and haw, look sheepish and hint for dear life. I won't have a man like that in my house. Same thing with girls. Don't you hate the kind that suggests to a man that a taxi is so comfortable and she does loathe the street cars, or the one who asks him if he's seen the lovely display at a certain candy store or the 'cute' little boxes they send with Thorley's flowers. It would be safer for her if she kept off the subject, for the chief fun in doing things lies in planning them, and nothing is so maddening as to have others make the suggestions. The hinter only makes herself unpopular, and the sooner she knows it the better. Keep quiet or say right out what you want.

"Now, don't hint that you'd like an oyster cocktal, because you won't get one if you do. Sing out like a little woman—have one? Good!"

Appropriate Decoration.

"I see where 'Cook hats' are to be all the rage this winter. I wonder how they will be trimmed."

"I should judge with wreaths of the ice plant.

Natural Uprising.

"Do you believe any one can bring about the levitation of tables by means of spirits?"

"Certainly, if they get to falling too heavily under them and try too hard to get up."—Baltimore American.

Keeping Cupid on the Job.

"That widow is a good manager, isn't she?"

"Manager! I should say so. She got that house of hers practically fixed up like new for nothing."

"How did she manage it?"

"She was engaged to the carpenter till all the woodwork was finished, and then she broke it off and married the plumber."—Baltimore American.

Reflection.

What is likely to lead a person to reflection? A looking glass.—London Telegraph.

Biliousness

"I have used your valuable Cascarets and I find them perfect. Couldn't do without them. I have used them for some time for indigestion and biliousness and am now completely cured. Recommend them to everyone. Once tried, you will never be without them in the family."—Edward A. Marx, Albany, N.Y.

Meyerbeer and Thunder.

Meyerbeer, like Handel, composed best in a thunderstorm. He had a room made at the top of his house with glass roof and sides, so that he might enjoy these conditions to the full whenever they presented themselves. It is said that no beast of the field, no raven or nightjar, could scent the approach of a storm more unerringly than Meyerbeer, and nothing was allowed to interfere with his solitary enjoyment of it when it arrived. Wherever he was he would leave at the first premonitory rumble.

Drives away Flies, Mosquitoes and Gnats. It protects horses and cattle from attacks of insects, enabling them to feed and sleep in peace. It prevents loss of weight and strength from worry caused by attacks of insects, and from the irritation of their bites and stings. There is a satisfaction in the relief it affords domestic animals from the scourge of maddening parasites and flies, besides the profit in returns. Horses do more work on less feed and cows yield more and better milk when relieved from the frenzy incited by constantly fighting a swarm of voracious, insatiable insects.

GOOD NATURE WON CONGRESS

Taft's Record of Achievement Rivals "Big Stick."

Many Reforms Refused to Ex-President Are Granted to Taft—Only One Measure Failed.

Washington, D. C.—Through conciliation and compromise, and in a friendly spirit of co-operation, President Taft secured from congress, during the session just closed, more important legislation than has been enacted in any other one session of recent years. His whole legislative program, with the exception of one bill, is now law.

In no single session of the strenuous Roosevelt administration were so many important bills enacted, nor did congres so nearly carry out the wishes of the executive. In those days congress yielded to the big stick, and gave grudgingly; in the late session congress met the president more than half way and gave him all that for which he made a special plea—all save the anti-injuction bill.

From the administration standpoint and from the party standpoint it was a remarkably successful session, for the platform pledges largely have been fulfilled and harmony has been restored between the executive and congress.

PRESIDENT PORFIRIO DIAZ
Aged 80 years, re-elected President of the Republic of Mexico.

It is noteworthy, too, that the most important legislation of the session forms a part of the much-exploited "Roosevelt policies." This legislation was repeatedly urged by President Roosevelt, but congress turned a deaf ear. Yet the lawmakers allowed themselves to fall prey to the persuasive smile and touching entreaty of President Taft, and passed for him the very bills that had been denied his predecessor. All of which demonstrates the wisdom of a remark made by President Roosevelt when he declined to accept another nomination. He then said that some other man, in sympathy with his views, could accomplish more with congress than he himself.

The legislative record of the recent session, is ample answer to those who charge that Taft is disloyal to the Roosevelt policies.

Of all the legislation enacted in compliance with the recommendation of the president, the interstate commerce bill, creating a court of commerce and enlarging the powers of the interstate commerce commission, takes first rank. It was the foremost feature of the Taft programme, and the one on which he spent most time and effort; collaborating as he did with his attorney-general, and with the leading lawyers of congress to get most effective law possible to devise. Many of the changes made by this law were advocateed by President Roosevelt, but congress put aside his recommendations and waited for his successor to renew them.

Next in importance, undoubtedly, stands the postal savings bank law. This, also, was on the Roosevelt program, but never during the former administration would congress pass this bill, though all manner of pressure was brought to bear by the executive.

Puter Saves Litigation.

Appleton, Wis.—Word has been received from George Baldwin, who, with his mother, Mrs. Catherine Baldwin, and a party of friends are now in the Yellowstone park, en route home from a tour of the West, that he has made a satisfactory settlement with S. A. D. Puter out of court. George Baldwin's father, the late Judge Baldwin, who made several million dollars in timber lands, was among those who accused Puter, McKinley and others in connection with a land fraud deal in Oregon.

Rebels Make Gains.

Bluefields, Nicaragua—A column of the provisional forces under General Arzino Cruse has captured La Libertad and Juigalpa, important towns in the department of Chotanles. This column is part of General Mena's army, detached to occupy advantageous points within reasonable distance of Acoyapa. General Mena, with the body of his troops, is within gunshot of Acoyapa, which is guarded by several hundred of the Madriz forces. General Celon, another provisional leader, has taken Sanubaldo.

First Ship in From Nome.

Seattle—The steamship Senator arrived from Nome, the first vessel to come out of Bering sea since the close of navigation last fall. The senator left Nome June 17 and had a light passenger list, only 46 persons being aboard. The spring cleanup at Nome has not begun, and only a small amount of gold, valued at $87,000, was brought out. Passengers arriving from the North report that the season is very backward.

Our New Hair Vigor

Ayer's Hair Vigor was good, the best that was made. But Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, is better. It is the one great specific for falling hair. A new preparation in every way. New bottle. New contents. Ask your druggist to show it to you, "the new kind."

Does not change the color of the hair.

Ayer's — Formula with each bottle. Show it to your doctor. Ask him about it, then do as he says.

As we now make our new Hair Vigor it does not have the slightest effect upon the color of the hair. You may use it freely and for any length of time without fear of changing the color. Stops falling hair. Cures dandruff.
