John Burggraf was a business visitor at the County seat on Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. Ray Osborne, of Portland, visited this week with her cousin, Mrs. J. E. Cole.

Now is the time to buy that piping and put in your water works before it advances. See Forslund.

Dr. C. A. Mcrum came up from Portland last Sunday and spent the day on his fruit ranch near town.

J. P. Carroll celebrated a birthday anniversary last Tuesday by eating ripe Red Astrachan apples from his orchard.

Bingen, Wash., is soon to have a box factory. A company was organized this week with a capitalization of $25,000.

The Misses Retta and Clara McNeill, formerly of Mosier, now living in Portland, spent last Saturday and Sunday in town.

C. H. Dunsmore and wife returned last Saturday from a week's visit with Mrs. Dunsmore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. VanNorthwick.

The dance given in Stroup's Hall last Saturday night, by the ladies of Mosier, was well attended and a most enjoyable time had by all.

H. C. Clark went to Hood River last Friday evening to meet his daughter, Miss Nada, who came from Camas, where she had visited a friend for a week.

E. E. Macy, of Kansas, visited with Mr. and Mrs. John Evans several days last week. This is Mr. Macy's third visit to the West, and he says Oregon looks good to him.

G. A. Ruscher and family, of Kelso, Wash., visited this week with his sister, Mrs. F. Allington. Mr. Ruscher is returning from a trip by wagon into interior Oregon.

The old dryer has been razed to the ground and workmen are busily engaged in the erection of a forty foot addition to the warehouse of the Mosier Fruit Growers' Association.

J. A. Weister, expert photographer for the O. R. & N. Co., is in Mosier this week securing pictures of orchards and scenery round about, for future use in advertising the country.

Last Saturday evening Mr Stanley Turner, of Red Bluff, Cal., came to visit H. C. Clark and family, and remained until Tuesday evening of this week. He is a city mail carrier.

Mrs. L. Vickers' of The Dalles, visited last Friday with her sister, Mrs. Dick Evans. Mrs. Arissa Evans, who had been here visiting her son, Ira, and other relatives, accompanied her home on Saturday.

The two rogues, who broke into Nichol & Co.'s store last Thursday night, were captured in Portland on Monday. In a valise, which they shipped by freight from White Salmon to Portland, was a kit of burglar's tools, a pint bottle of nitro-glycerine, three revolvers, caps, fuses etc., and six Ingersoll watches, which Nichol & Co. claim are missing from their store. The yegmen gave their names as Roy Jones and William Reis. It is presumed they are part of a gang that has been operating in Oregon and Washington lately.

For all kinds of plumbing material, see Forslund.

Go to the Mosier Lumber Co. for your sash, doors, screens etc.

You will save on horse feed by buying one of those whips at Forslund's.

The Mosier Lumber Co. can fill your orders for lime, cement, brick and plaster.

F. R. Howard, of Hood River, this week installed a new 60-line switchboard at the central station here, and it is a dandy—as good as the best.

Work will begin next week on the Mosier Creek bridge. New stringers and a new deck will be put in. The bridge has been unsafe for some time.

Mrs. L. Russell and Miss Carrie Evans, of Portland, and Miss Selma Vickers, of The Dalles, are visiting this week with the family of R. W. Evans. The Misses Evans and Vickers are nieces of Mrs. Evans.

We call attention to the notice of a meeting of the Commercial Club to be held tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock. Business of great importance is to be transacted and every member of the club should make an effort to be present.

H. C. McAllister, Master Fish Warden, has resigned his position and Edward Clanton, of Grants Pass, has been appointed to succeed him. McAllister threw up his job to take charge of the anti-prohibition movement in the state.

Mrs. Geo. Sellinger, her daughter, Mrs. Lantry, B. L. and Zeno Sellinger, and Edgar Sellinger, a nephew, came up from Cascade Locks yesterday and will remain a few days, occupying their new home. They will then go to Trout Lake, Wash., to spend the summer.

Don't forget the big time promised at the Fourth of July celebration at The Dalles next Monday. The committee in charge has a fine program which will fill the day from early morning until late at night. If you want a good time go to The Dalles next Monday.

Miss Bertha Booth returned last Saturday from Walls Walla, where she has been visiting friends for several weeks. She spent several days here and then went to Hood River to visit Mrs. Gove. From there she will go to Portland to remain until school opens here in the Fall.

F. W. Woodcock, of Seattle, spent several days in town this week looking over the valley with a view to investing. Mr. Woodcock has been all over the West and has inspected the best orchards in the United States, and he made the statement that the finest orchard he had seen anywhere was right here in Mosier.

Bailey—Duvall

At 2 p. m., on June 28, 1910, in the Church of Christ, at Mosier, Ore., was solemnized the marriage of Ralph M. Duvall and Floss E. Bailey, by H. Campbell Clark, minister. The ceremony was witnessed by relatives and a few intimate friends.

These young people are well known in this community and need no introduction. They departed on the 4:15 train, and go to make their home near Oregon City.

The many friends of this couple wish them happiness and prosperity in their new relations. While there are always some thorns in life's pathway, may the roses largely predominate and hide the thorns, is the wish of their friends.

A Friend.

School Meeting Tomorrow

Bear in mind, all ye patrons of Mosier School District, that a meeting will be held tomorrow at the school house to determine whether or not an additional room to the school house shall be built. This question vitally concerns all, and all should be present. Don't leave it for a few to settle the question.
