Its Painful End.

The last of the Labrador ducks was about to die.

"Isn't the thing of dying, in itself," gasped the duck, "that grinds me? Isn't the fact that while my race hereby becomes extinct, the gaunt, ungainly, worthless shitepokes will live on?"

Uncheered even by the reflection that the carrion crow survived the dodo, the hapless bird breathed its last.

Caught.

The lawyer for the defense found it necessary to weaken the testimony of the principal witness for the prosecution.

"Mr. Sklybo," he said proceeding to cross-examine him, "did you ever live on the seacoast?"

"Yes, sir," responded the witness; "I have lived half my life in a seacoast town."

"You are familiar, then, with salt water fish?"

"Yes, sir."

"Well, just as a matter of information, will you please tell me how a flounder swims—whether horizontally or vertically?"

"Why—er—"

"That is all, Mr. Sklybo; you may stand aside."—Chicago Tribune.

ATLANTIC GLOBE SIGHTS.

The hardest job on earth is apologizing.

The greatest tragedy in the life of a boy is rain on circus day.

Every man engaged in a lawsuit claims he was forced into it.

Occasionally you find an old widower who doesn't like the marrying yoke.

A good way to fight the saloon is to make the home more agreeable for men.

The men have enough other foolish notions without caring much for cut glass dishes.

As we become older, we are about convinced that it is possible to catch anyone in a lie.

The women say that unless you are very careful, it is easy to get an ugly carpet on your floor.

There is one thing an agreeable man's enemies can always say about him: "He is polite."

Now comes an original sort of Reformer, and says that prices are high because of trading stamps!

The stepmother never lived who was misrepresented and abused as much as that word "entertain."

What has become of the old-fashioned man who attended a wedding and insisted on kissing the bride?

The women say nothing makes them quite so tired as for a man to tell them what a Devil he has been.

Would a bride rather have a half dozen heavy silver spoons as a wedding present than a dozen light silver spoons?

An editor in a Kansas town sold out because he never received "sympathy" and "encouragement." He never deserved either.

As soon as a man's hat is taken from him at a reception, he whispers to his wife: "How soon can we get out of here?"

FASHION HINTS!

Our sketch shows a somewhat extreme but popular type of gown just at present. Soft silks or sheer materials are best for this style. The hat is one of the Oriental turban affairs, the sole trimming being a d. berly bow of velvet at the side-back.

SAYINGS OF SAGES.

Much may be said on both sides.—Fielding.

The heart will break, yet broken live on.—J. Q. Adams.

Keeps a clean hearth and a clear fire for me.—Tennyson.

Integrity without knowledge is weak and useless.—Johnson.

God helps them that help themselves.—Benjamin Franklin.

Some rise by sin, and some by virtue fall.—Shakespeare.

Invention is totally independent of the will.—B. R. Haydon.

How swift the shuttle flies that weeps its shroud!—Young.

No man knows so well where the shoe pinches as he who wears it.—Lincoln.

Where there is a mother in the dove matters speed well.—A. Bronson Alcott.

The ball never rings of itself; unless some one handles or moves it, it is dumb.—Plautus.

We begin to die as soon as we are born, and it ends in linked to the beginning.—Lucretius.

Skin Chance for Her.

A missionary who was making his way through a backwoods region came upon an old woman sitting outside a cabin. He entered upon a religious talk and finally asked her if she didn't know there was a day of judgment coming.

"Why, no," said the old lady; "I hadn't heard of that. Won't there be more than one day?"

"No, my friend; only one day," was replied.

"Well, then," she mused, "I don't reckon I can get to go for we've only got one mule, and John always has to go everywhere first."—New York Sun.

The Origin of It.

"Senator," said the interviewer, "it is rumored that you intend to retire from politics."

"Well, well," replied the senator, "it's queer how rumors start. I suppose this one grew out of the fact that I attended church with my wife last Sunday."—Catholic Standard and Times.

Red, Weak, Watery, Watery Eyes, Relieved by Murine Eye Remedy. Write for Free Booklet. Address: Murine Eye Remedy Co., Chicago.

Curious Remedies.

In some parts of England one of the best cures for a swollen neck is to draw a snake nine times across the throat of the suffering one, after which the snake is killed and its skin sewed in a silken bag and tightly sewed around the neck. Another way, almost as good, is to put the live snake in a bottle, which is tightly corked and buried near the roots of a covebush, and as the helpless snake decays the swelling in the neck of the patient will disappear.

Might Help Some.

"It's up to you to do something to help our Neighborhood Improvement Association."

"I'm for it. I'll make my daughter sell her piano."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

TELL TALE EYES.

Black (dark brown) are the sign of a passionate ardor in love.

Light brown or yellow denotes inconsistency; green, deceit or coquetry.

Dark blue, or violet, denote great affection and purity, but not very much intellectuality.

Clear, light blue, with calm, steady glance, denote cheerfulness, good temper, constancy.

Pale blue, or steel colored, with shifting motion of the eyelid and pupils, denote deceitfulness and selfishness.

Russet brown eyes, without yellow, denote an affectionate disposition, sweet and gentle. The darker the brown the more ardent the passion.

Blue, with greenish tints, are not so strongly indicative of these traits, but a slight propensity to greenish tints in the eyes of any color is a sign of wisdom and courage.

Gray, or greenish gray, with orange and blue shades, and ever-varying tints, are the most intellectual, and are indicative of the impulsive, impressionable temperament—the mixture of the sanguine and bilious, which produces poetical and artistic natures.

Eyes of no particular color (only some feeble shades of blue or gray, dull, expressionless, dead looking), belong to the lymphatic temperament, and denote a listless, feeble disposition, and a cold, selfish nature.

Practical Charity.

"See the poor stray cat!"

"Why not toss him some meat?"

"No; I believe in teaching others to help themselves. I will throw out some crumbs to attract the birds and maybe the cat can catch one."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

The Turkish Drum.

The darabouks, or Turkish drum, resembles a long vase, the bottom covered with parchment.

Mate Astonishment.

"Why don't you ladies thank a man who gives up his seat in a street car?" asked the censorious person.

"As a rule, we can't," replied Miss Cayenne. "We're so surprised that it takes our breath away."—Washington Star.

Unexpected.

"That's a fine umbrella you are carrying."

"Thank you."

"For what?"

"For not claiming it!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

GERMANY'S JEAN VALJEAN.

Millionaire Philanthropist Who 46 Years Ago Was a Bandit.

Herr Charles May, of Berlin, may be termed the Jean Valjean of Germany. Millionaire whose time and money were spent in doing good, author of religious books and altogether a splendid figure of Christian manhood. May was just a few days ago branded by a jury as the perpetrator of many violent crimes in southern Saxon mountains forty long years ago, where he led a band of desperate brigands. May, who is 70 years old, collapsed and was put under guard to prevent his committing suicide. The charges were made by Wilhelm Lebius, a trade union leader. May sued for libel. The jury decided that Lebius had proven the allegations in a court at Charlottenburg, a suburb of Berlin. Not only was it proven that Herr May had been a notorious bandit, but there is no doubt but what he is the author of a long series of cheap novels written many years ago in which he describes the deeds he had committed. Herr May is a splendid linguist, speaking even Chinese and Choctaw.

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

ZEPPELIN AIRSHIP LOST IN STORM

Disabled Motor Makes Craft Helpless Against Gale.

Ship Lands on Tree Tops and is Badly Damaged—Passengers Reach Ground on Rope Ladder.

Dusseldorf, Germany.—Count Zeppelin's passenger airship Deutschland, the greatest of all the famous aeronaust's models, lies in the Teutoburgian forest pierced by pine trees, a mass of deflated silk and twisted aluminum. The 33 passengers and crew aboard the airship when it struck the pines after a wild contest with a storm, escaped uninjured, climbing down from the wreck on a rope ladder.

Herr Colesmann, general manager of the new airship company; Chief Engineer Duers, of the Zeppelin ship, and Charles Wannenberg, who had charge of the crew of 10, and 20 newspaper men sailed from Dusseldorf for a three hours' excursion.

In the high wind one of the motors refused to work and the other two did not give sufficient power to make any headway in the gale. The airship drifted, away in the violent gusts and sometimes leaning at an angle of 40 degrees. All the while the engine-men were at work repairing the disabled motor.

When this was done all four screws were driven at their full power. Under normal conditions the engines were capable of driving the airship at a speed of 40 miles an hour, but the helmsman was unable to keep his course and the great craft was swung about at the mercy of the winds.

Colesmann did not dare to come aboard, for fear of overturning, and decided to drift with the gale toward Osnabruck, also a garrison. He then decided to continue on to Senne.

Suddenly he perceived a whirlwind coming, and ascended to a height of nearly 4,000 feet to avoid the center of it. With the whirlwind came a heavy downpour of rain.

After half an hour the Deutschland came down to permit observations and it was seen that the Teutoburgian forest lay below. The forward motor stopped again and Colesmann sent five of the correspondents to the aft gondola to ballast the vessel.

The Deutschland sank rapidly, having lost much gas in the high altitude, and dragged along the top of the dense forest. A heavy branch of a tree broke through the bottom of the cabin amidships, throwing two of the guests to the floor. Other branches ripped through the gas compartments and the whole great structure settled down 30 or 40 feet from the ground.

BUYING AUTOS AND LAND.

Middle West People Securing Tracts for Homes Elsewhere.

St. Joseph, Mo.—Fifteen million dollars spent for automobiles and more than $18,000,000 spent elsewhere for the purchase of land tells what the West is doing with some of its money, according to information compiled by Graham G. Lacey, a banker of this city, who has obtained replies to a series of questions addressed to bankers in Kansas, Nebraska, Missouri and Iowa.

Reports from 251 banks showed that approximately $18,000,000 had gone out of their section for the purchase of lands in other states, and 234 banks reported that a heavy amount had gone out of their sections for such purposes. For autos, 427 banks reported that a total of $15,000,000 had been spent.

Out of 639 replies received, 293 stated that agricultural conditions were good, the remainder reported such conditions as only fair. A good wheat crop was reported by 20 per cent of replies, fair by 38 per cent, and bad by 42 per cent.

Fifty-one per cent reported that the banks were carrying more real estate loans for their customers at this time than they were carrying a year ago.

Ruef Appeals to Court.

San Francisco—Abraham Ruef has filed with the District Court of Appeals an appeal from his conviction and sentence for bribing ex-Superior Furey to vote for a trolley franchise for the United Railroads. It is one of the longest statements ever presented to the court, containing over 12,000 pages, included in 24 volumes. The entire trial is reviewed, and many alleged errors are presented as grounds for a reversal of judgment and a new trial. Ruef was sentenced to 14 years' imprisonment and now is out on bail.

Genoa, Nev., Destroyed.

Carson City, Nev.—Genoa, the county seat of Douglas county, 211 miles south of this city, was almost completely destroyed by fire. The loss is estimated at over $100,000. The court house, Masonic Hall, and several other brick structures were completely gutted by the flames. Firefighting apparatus was forwarded by a Southern Pacific train from this city to the scene in the hope of checking the flames, which threaten the surrounding farms. Genoa is the oldest town this side of the Sierra Nevada mountains.

Louisiana Raps Suffrage.

Baton Rouge, La.—The upper branch of the Louisiana legislature went on record as not only opposed to woman suffrage, but refused to allow women to act as members of boards of an educational or a charitable nature, even though they be elected to such board by men. They came to this decision when Senator Guendon tried to have passed his bill allowing women membership on educational and charitable boards.

Chile Wind Wrecks Ships.

San Francisco.—The Merchants' Exchange has received advices from Valparaiso, Chile, that the German steamer Irmingard is ashore off Corral and is believed to be a total loss. The crew was saved. Several other vessels the names of which are unknown, have been wrecked as the result of the storm which has raged several days on the coast.

Cure Your Dandruff

Why? Because it is annoying, untidy. And mostly, because it almost invariably leads to baldness. Cure it, and save your hair. Get more, too, at the same time. All easily done with Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula. Stop this formation of dandruff!

Does not change the color of the hair.

Formulas with each bottle. Show it to your doctor. Ask him about it, then use as he says.

The new Ayer's Hair Vigor will certainly do this work, because, first of all, it destroys the germs which are the original cause of dandruff. Having given this nature completes the cure. The scalp is restored to a perfectly healthy condition.

Constipation

For over nine years I suffered with chronic constipation and during this time I had to take an injection of warm water once every 24 hours before I could have an action on my bowels. Happily I tried Cascara, and today I am a well man. During the time I used Cascara I suffered untold misery with internal piles. Thanks to you, I am free from all that this morning. You can use this in behalf of suffering humanity. B. F. Fisher, Rossmore, Ill.

Pleasant, Palatable, Potent, Taste Good, Do Good, Never Sicken, Weaken or Grip. 10c. Box. Never use a Cascara tablet stamped C. C. C. Guaranteed to cure or your money back.

A Fire Drill.

"What kept you so late at the factory?"

"We were having a fire drill."

"Isn't that something new?"

"Nope; the boss was trying to drill it into the heads of the men that if they didn't improve the class of work they were turning out they would be fired."—Houston Post.
