A social dance will be given tomorrow night in Stroup's Hall. Newman's Orchestra will furnish the music and a good time is assured every one.

Mrs. Pauline Leedy and two friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Porter, arrived last Sunday from Youngstown, Ohio, and will remain until Spring.

Mrs. Alex Stewart was taken to the hospital at Hood River on Monday morning, where she could be under Dr. Dumble's special care and receive professional nursing.

Hardwick & Wright, who have the contract for building the addition to the schoolhouse, are making rapid work with the foundation and will be ready for the lumber as soon as it arrives.

Mr. C. R. Cressman and family, of Portland, who have been camping near town for about a month, left Monday for their home. Mr. Cressman, who was in very poor health when he came to Mosier, is very much improved.

H. M. Perry, a railroad man of Chicago, arrived in Mosier last week and will spend the summer and fall with his friend, R. D. Chatfield. Mr. Perry expressed himself as well pleased with the country here, this being his second visit to this section.

A whale was caught off the Japanese coast recently which measured over 200 feet in length. The jaw bones were 40 feet long and weighed 55 tons. The tail measured 30 feet. The jaw bones were sent to the Museum of Natural History, in New York.

J. M. Swirsky, of Portland, was a Mosier visitor on Monday and Tuesday. Mr. Swirsky owns two tracts of fruit land in the Grand View neighborhood. His smaller tract of 20 acres has 10 acres set to apple trees. On the larger tract, consisting of 160 acres, he will install a system of water works, which, when completed, will supply water to the residents of his neighborhood.

A new fruit, which the owner of the tree upon which it grows calls "Almondcot", is being shown by G. L. Aggers, of White Salmon. It is the product of grafting an almond to an apricot tree. The fruit is about six inches in circumference, of a dark wine color and shaped like a tomato. The fruit is described as being very palatable, and Mr. Aggers thinks it will prove a good canner.

Go to the Mosier Lumber Co. for your sash, doors, screens etc. Mrs. E. E. Fraedrick and sons were visitors in The Dalles yesterday.

Miss Irene Fisher, of Hood River, visited her parents here this week.

Wm. Marsh went to Portland Tuesday to see his mother, who is still in the hospital.

Thos. McCusker, of Portland, came up Tuesday evening and went Wednesday morning to look after this Mountain View Orchard tract.

Dr. C. A. Macrum came up from Portland Tuesday and will spend a few days here recuperating. The doctor is recovering from a two weeks' serious illness.

Jim Sturgess is resting from his labors as a real estate agent and on Wednesday left for The Dalles to work with the telephone outfit that is changing the poles and wires.

Geo. Evans and family returned last Saturday from a fishing trip to Lost Lake. George says the fishing was good and that huckleberries are plentiful this year.

The forty-foot addition to the packing plant of the Mosier Fruit Grower's Association is completed and everything in readiness for prune packing, which opens the first of next week.

Mr. Lee Irving and family, of Yreka, spent Tuesday night in town, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Akers. They were enroute home from an automobile trip thru California and Old Mexico. Mrs. Irving is a cousin of Mrs. Akers.

Rev. Ralph Chaffee last Sunday completed his services as pastor of the Methodist Church at Mosier. He will go from here to Long Beach, Cal., where he will spend a month or so, and this Fall will continue his ministerial studies in a theological university.

Miss Nada Clark was the victim of an agreeable surprise party last Tuesday evening, when a goodly number of her friends dropped in on her at the Clark's temporary quarters in the basement of the Christian Church. Several very pleasant hours were spent, after which refreshments were served, the guests then dispersing to go to their various homes.

Don't be a knoeker. Don't be a clam. Don't get frost in your pedal extremities. BOOST for MOSIER! Are YOU boosting? Get your shoulder under and lift up. Have everlasting, abiding faith in your town and show your faith by your works. Prove that Mosier has no mossbacks who "ride the saw and drag their feet." Get busy and don't forget the big Commercial Club meeting to be held August 13th in Stroup's Hall.

Mrs. D. Robinson visited friends in The Dalles last Monday and Tuesday.

The Mosier Lumber Co. can fill your orders for lime, cement, brick and plaster.

Mrs. T. W. DeBussey, of Hood River, spent a couple of days this week on her ranch east of town.

W. H. McRae and wife, of Spokane, spent several days in Mosier this week, investigating real estate values. Mr. McRae is a prominent lumber dealer in his city and has been all over Oregon and Western Washington looking for a location suitable for fruit raising. He said of all the places he had visited none appealed to him so much as Mosier, and it is probable that he will decide to locate here.

The Mosier Commercial Club is getting ready to entertain a large number of guests at the big booster meeting to be pulled off a week from tomorrow night—the 13th inst. A large sign has been painted and placed on the Stroup building, where all may see it and where it will be a constant reminder to every citizen of Mosier district that he will neglect a business and a social duty if he does not attend. Much good is expected to obtain from this meeting, and all are earnestly requested to be present. It will wake up the dreamers and do them good.
