When You Take Cold

One way is to pay no attention to it; at least not until it develops into pneumonia, or bronchitis, or pleurisy. Another way is to ask your doctor about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. If he says, "The best thing for colds," then take it. Do as he says, anyway.

When the bowels are constipated, poisonous substances are absorbed into the blood instead of being daily removed from the body as nature intended. Knowing this danger, doctors always inquire about the condition of the bowels. Ayer's Pills.

Bread and Butter.

There is no place in which bread and butter can be so beneficial or poisonous as in the nursery. The worst thing you can give a young baby, under a year old, is bread, says a writer. But later on bread becomes useful. It should never be given new to a child at any age, but stale bread or toast, or bread baked crisp in the oven, is excellent for children. They really want more crisp foods nowadays, and if this fact was taken to heart the next generation would suffer less from decayed teeth and weak digestion.

Pleasant News for Author.

A local author went to the library to get a copy of his own latest book. He had a friend with him. "Is 'Fate and Fussing' in?" he inquired. "Yes, sir," answered the librarian, promptly. "But how do you know without looking?" "It's never been out yet!"—Cleveland Leader.

Catarrh and Blood Disease—Doctors Failed to Cure.

Miss Mabel F. Dawkins, 1214 Lafayette St., Fort Wayne, Ind., writes: "For three years I was troubled with catarrh and blood disease. I tried several doctors and a dozen different remedies, but none of them did me any good. A friend told me of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I took two bottles of this medicine and was as well and strong as ever. I feel like a different person and recommend Hood's to any one suffering from catarrh."

Cradles Unfashionable.

Cradles are going out; children are not wearing them any more. People tell us that rocking is unhygienic; babies, according to modern idea, should go to sleep naturally in a stationary germ-proof bed, with antiseptic pillows and sanitized rattle. Sentiment may save the cradle for a little while, but sooner or later it will go to the dusty attic along with the hair-cloth sofa. Maybe the infant of to-morrow will bear up somehow under these accumulated misfortunes, will struggle along somehow to maturity, but what about the artists, the poets, the song writers? What a world of sentiment and melody has been woven around the theme of the mother and the gently rocking cradle! What kind of song will the poor poet of the future be able to make about an enameled iron crib with brass trimmings!—Success Magazine.

HETTY GREEN.

She Will Turn Over All Business to Her Daughter.

Mrs. Hetty Green, celebrated for years as the richest and shrewest business woman in the world, will soon retire from active business life and will turn over the handling of her immense fortune, estimated at $50,000,000, to her daughter Sylvia, now Mrs. Matthew Astor Wilks.

For months it has been rumored that Mrs. Green's health is failing, and these rumors have been partially substantiated during the last few weeks by the irregularity of the aged woman's visits to her office in the Chemical National Bank, and her feeble appearance when she does materialize there. Among the few persons in close touch with Mrs. Green it is understood that for years she has been quietly training her daughter to successfully manage her immense fortune, and that since her daughter's marriage to Mr. Wilks, with its accompanying possibility of an heir, this training has been increased. It is reported that the transfer of the active control of Mrs. Green's millions to her daughter for management is only a question of a few weeks at most.

Hetty Green is 73 years old. Her age, coupled with her monotonous business routine, has begun to tell upon her. She no longer is able to put the snap and dash into the handling of her affairs that characterized her in the past, although her shrewdness, it is said, is as keen as ever. One of Mrs. Green's greatest disappointments in life, it is said, has been the non-inclination of her son, Edward H. R. Green, who lives in Texas, to become as famous a financier as herself. At one time she put $20,000,000 into southwestern railroads for her son, so that he might become a railroad magnate. The accumulation of wealth, however, is not a fad with Edward H. R. Green, who is content to live well and carry on sufficient business at the same time to keep his mind occupied. Sylvia, the daugther, takes more after her mother, and it is on this account that the control of her mother's enormous fortune will soon be turned over to her.—New York American.

Shouldn't We Have a Finger In?

Germany and England are bending every energy to the commerce and the profits that have hardly stirred our imagination, says Charles Johnson Post, in Success Magazine, in an article entitled, "Our Chance in South America." "No method of conciliation, no appeal to this market do they neglect; the training they give their business agents for this particular field is the best in the world; consequently they are getting the business that should be ours, despite the fact that their ports are twice the distance from South American countries as are our ports. Our lack of trade is not the result of any lack of ship subsidies or steamer lines; we have ample lines of steamers to handle the slight amount of commerce that has so far drifted to us. The difficulty lies in the fact that we have not the orders for goods and fall in the ability to get them against this foreign competition. It gets down to a question of selling—of salesmanship. Perhaps our splendid vanity in our national shrewdness has its weak spots.

Always Worth Waiting For.

If success seems abominably slow in being attained, it is worth while remembering that the quickest and surest way to render it absolutely impossible to give up trying for it, or to try for it like some people act when they find themselves in deep water—throw their arms and feet all about in desperation.

Healthy England.

We have much to learn from England in the way of hygiene. England owes her great superiority in that respect to special laws and regulations, and also to the cheapness of "necessary" foods.—Paris Hygiene.

In Other Words.

"The situation was funny enough to make a horse laugh," said the Chicago girl.

"Indeed!" exclaimed the Boston maid. "I never witnessed an equine cachinnation."

A Dictum.

It is a frame of mind here, as it was a frame of mind there. To zealously cherish the sanity of existence. To labor, albeit in what a turmoil of grim stress, with the twinkle of mirth in your heart and the light of compassion in your eye. Never to give over the pursuit of beauty in all things. Never to abandon the inkling of dreams, however vague and dim in the dust of daily endeavor. Thus shall you increase the perception of your soul and realize the joy of life.—Robert Bowman Peck.

LISBON CAPTURED; KING IS PRISONER

Army and Navy Bombard the Royal Palace.

Blue and Green Flag of Revolutionists Placed on Palace and Royal Standard Hauled Down.

London, Oct. 5, 3:40 a. m.—Definite news has been received here that a revolution broke out yesterday in Lisbon, the capital of Portugal. Most of the army and navy are with the revolutionists, warships having bombarded the royal palace, and report has it that the king, Manuel II, is virtually a prisoner there. The royal standard has been torn from the palace and the flag of the revolutionists flutters in its place.

The royal palace stands above the river Tague in the western part of the city, and the attack upon it by ships of the navy is understood to have been simultaneous with the uprising in the city.

The Santander correspondent of the Reuter Telegram company confirms the report of the revolution and adds that the rebels have captured the palace, taking the king prisoner.

A dispatch from Santander, Spain, says that the German steamer Capo Blanco, lying off Lisbon, has sent a wireless dispatch to the effect that the rebels have hauled down the royal standard from the palace and hoisted a blue and green Republican flag in its place. This report says warships began the bombardment of the royal palace as soon as the uprising in the city began.

The Times, in its issue this morning, does not confirm the report that the king is a prisoner. It contains no dispatches from its Lisbon correspondent, but it prints the Matin's wireless dispatch and says it has reason to believe that the news of the revolution is true, although the rumors that the king is a prisoner are not well supported.

"We have given King Manuel notice to quit. The coming revolution will be a kindly affair. We shall kill the least possible number of persons."

In these words Dr. Alfonso Costa, the most advanced of the Portuguese Republican leaders, warned the world of the intentions of the revolutionary party immediately after the general elections at the end of August. Part, at least, of his prediction seems to be verified in the brief undetailed dispatches at hand this morning.

TRAINMEN DISOBEY ORDER; THIRTY-SEVEN ARE KILLED

Staunton, Ill.—Thirty-seven persons were killed and from 16 to 25 were injured in a collision on the Illinois Traction system two miles north of here. At least three of the injured will probably die.

The collision was between local train No. 14, northbound, and an excursion train, No. 73, loaded with passengers on their way to view the parade of the Veiled Prophet, at St. Louis. The accident apparently was due to the disregard of orders by the crew of train No. 14, in charge of M. A. Leonard, conductor, and John Lierman, of Staunton, motorman.

Train No. 14 had orders to pass train No. 73 at Staunton. The latter train was running in two sections, and the orders given to No. 14 were explicit that it wait for both sections. The first section of No. 73 had passed when the crew of No. 14 pulled out on the main track and started north. At Dickerson's curve, a sharp bend two miles from here, the two trains met.

Hills rise north and south from the curve. Train No. 14 and the second section of No. 73, both on the down grade, were making 40 miles an hour when they met at the sharpest part of the curve. Confronted with death, the crews of both trains set the brakes and jumped for their lives. All escaped without serious injury. None of the passengers had a chance for life.

Signal Sent 5600 Miles.

New York—A new long-distance record for wireless transmission is claimed by the Marconi Wireless Telegraph company, which announced that the officials were informed in a dispatch from London that Mr. Marconi, who is now in the Argentine republic, has successfully received signals directly from Glace Bay, Nova Scotia, and from Clifden, Ireland, at the high-power station now almost completed in the Argentine republic.

The distance covered is estimated at 5,600 miles.

Columbia is Largest "U."

New York—Columbia is the largest university in America, according to the official registration, which was announced after the new and old students had been enrolled for 11 days. The total number in the university to date is 7,058, which is 456 more than were enrolled at the final registration a year ago, and 1,330 more than had registered at a corresponding date last year. It is expected that at the end of the present month, when the final registration figures are in, the total will be well on toward 8,000.

Fire Destroys $1,500,000.

New York — Fire in the vicinity of Twenty-fourth street and Eleventh avenue swept an area 500 by 300 feet, causing damage estimated at $1,500,000. Chief Croker announced that it was the greatest burned area in his experience in New York City. For nearly three hours the fire was beyond control of the fire department and was stopped at length by action of apparatus which, combined, threw water at the rate of 25,000 gallons a minute.

Tax on Franchise Fails.

Atlanta, Ga. — The Western Union Telegraph company was held not liable for taxes on a Federal franchise valuation of $950,000 by an opinion handed down in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals here in the case of the Western Union company against W. H. Wright, controller of the state of Georgia.

The Heavy Heart.

Great calamities do not embitter existence. It is the petty vexations, the small jealousies, the little disappointments, that make the heart heavy and the temper sour. Don't let them. Anger is pure waste of vitality. It helps nobody and hinders everybody. No woman does her best except when she is cheerful. A light heart makes busy hands and keeps the mind free and alert. No misfortune is so great as one that sours the temper.

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

The Real Thing.

Fred, aged three, had been a naughty boy, and his mother had punished him. He felt very much hurt and complained to his auntie about his mamma's spanking him. Auntie said: "It is not you that mamma spanks, but a little devil inside of you who makes you do naughty things." After sitting very still for five minutes he said: "It beats all how it hurts me when that devil gets spanked."—The Delineator.

Physician's First Thought.

A physician was driving along the street when his horse took fright and ran away. He was thrown violently to the sidewalk, and knocked senseless. Presently he recovered a little from his unconsciousness, and, noticing the crowd which had gathered about him, remarked: "What's the matter, gentleman? Anybody hurt? I'm Doctor B——. Can I be of any service?"

Embarrassing Habit.

Hiccoughs are distinctly mortifying to the victim. As they are signs of poor digestion and may mean bad stomach trouble, if of frequent occurrence, they should be treated medicinally. Saying Grace.

I own that I am disposed to say grace upon twenty other occasions in the course of the day besides my dinner. I want a form for setting out upon a pleasant walk, for a moonlight ramble, for a friendly meeting, or a solved problem. Why have we none for books, those spiritual repasts—a grace before Milton—a grace before Shakespeare—a devotional exercise proper to be said before reading the "Faery Queen?"—Charles Lamb.

Peculiar Excuse.

A teacher in a girls' school recently had the following excuse for absence handed her by one of her pupils: "It gives me much pleasure to write to you because I have a worryment, and you should please excuse my Annie, who does not come by you because she has to go to the hospital with her sister's sore eyes."

His Awful "Break."

The little god of bad breaks is ever seeking victims. He made a young man at a social gathering the other evening blush for a week. The young man had been introduced to a young woman. "Why, I know a lady by the same name in Kansas City," he remarked, "only she's a beautiful girl." The young woman froze him to the spot, and he was glad of an excuse to leave the gathering.

No Protection for Seagulls.

Seagulls have increased in numbers so enormously in Devonshire, and have caused so much damage to fish, that the Devon Sea fisheries committee has passed a resolution in favor of the removal of protection from the birds and their eggs. It was estimated that one gull ate ten fish in twenty-four hours.—Pall Mall Gazette.

DYSPEPSIA

"Having taken your wonderful 'Cascarets' for three months and being entirely cured of stomach catarrh and dyspepsia, I think a word of praise is due to 'Cascarets' for their wonderful composition. I have taken numerous other so-called remedies but without avail, and I find that Cascarets relieve more in a day than all the others I have taken would in a year." James McGune.
