BIG ENOUGH for the BIGGEST GAME

Remington AUTOLOADING RIFLE

Five one-ton shots! As quick as you can pull the trigger and as straight to the mark as you can look.

Meeting a "big 'un" with this gun is like shooting a hole in a barn from the inside—and if the first ball shouldn't stop him, he can't gain a yard before he gets it again.

Remington Autoloading Rifle—solid breech, hammerless—ejects, reloads and cocks by recoil without the loss of an ounce of muzzle energy. The only automatic rifle which locks the cartridges in the chamber. Safest and best of big guns.

Made in .25, 30-30, 32 and 35 Remington calibers. "The Gun for the game Game." Inspect it at any dealer.

Managerie of Insects.
A managerie of insects will soon be installed in the Paris museum of natural history. Cages of glass, instead of steel, will be occupied by spiders, ants, bees, caterpillars and beetles, instead of lions, tigers, wolves and hyenas. Then it will be possible for the public to study the lives of ants underground and of bees in their hives.

A Doubtful Member.
In Miss Wood's kindergarten class, there were eight pupils, four girls and four boys. One of the boys, however had not yet reached the estate of kittens not to mention trousers. Accordingly when little Susan Phelps was asked by a visitor to tell how many boys and how many girls there were, her confused reasoning went as follows:
"There's eight, one, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, Miss Elliott," she replied. "And if he's a girl!"—she pointed at one who wore dresses in stead of manly garb—"why, there's five girls, and one, two, three boys. But if she's a boy, there's one, two, three, four girls, and one, two—four boys." She's really a boy, you know Miss Elliott," she confided, in conclusion.—Youth's Companion.

Hereditary Instinct.
When baby turns away from the amiable visitor who is trying to make friends, and rushes to mother and buries his face in her skirts, he is doing exactly what it was wise for child to do in the ancient forest, when strange and danger were the same thing, and not just rhymes as they are now.

FRENCH AIRSHIP CROSSES CHANNEL

Big Clement-Bayard Dirigible Makes Splendid Flight
Carries Seven Men From Compeigne, France, to London, in Six Hours Without Mishap.

London—Another chapter was added to the history of aviation when the French dirigible balloon, Clement-Bayard, made the voyage from Compeigne to London in the remarkable time of six hours, a journey requiring seven hours by the fastest express trains and boats. Compeigne is 45 miles northeast of Paris and about 195 miles by air route to London.

It was the first occasion on which a dirigible balloon has crossed the English channel. The over-water trip occupied 45 minutes.

The Clement-Bayard, with a crew of six, left Compeigne at 7:15 o'clock Sunday morning and reached London at about 1:15 in the afternoon, making the trip without a stop. Atmospheric conditions were perfect and the big airship traveled with a slight breeze behind. The behavior of the dirigible was splendid and the 440 horsepower motor worked to perfection. The passengers experienced no discomfort and were only troubled by the mist in crossing the English channel.

There was nothing to interrupt the smooth, swinging motion of the balloon, which averaged 33 miles an hour. An altitude varying from 300 to 700 feet was maintained, and all along the route over the land the aeronauts were cheered by thousands of spectators.

The balloon made a safe and easy landing at Wormwood Scrubs.

The dirigible carried M. Clement, of the Clement-Bayard firm, in command; Baudry and Leprieux, steersmen; Hebatier, engineer and designer; two mechanics, and Arthur Philip Ducros, members of the British parliamentary aerial defense committee. Only these seven were aboard, although the airship can accommodate 39 passengers in addition to the crew.

The course was by way of Amiens, Abbeville and Boulogne, and the balloon was steered readily with the aid of a compass.

The aeronauts experienced some trouble with the varying air currents. On this account they circled St. Paul's and the Tower bridge twice, dipped several times and flew close to the tops of buildings. They passed over the houses of parliament and along Hyde park, where there was a wild scramble of spectators.

The dirigible landed safely after describing large descending circles.

Kraut Scatters Loafers.
Sacramento—Quite a crowd of wharf employes, steamboat men and others were thrown into a small panic at the city wharf when a barrel of sauerkraut exploded during the midst of a discussion as to what caused the wrecking of the Los Angeles Times building two weeks ago. The explosion under ordinary conditions was enough to strike fear into the hearts of brave men, yet to have it come at such a psychological moment caused terror to reign for several minutes. The kraut had been left in the sun and had fermented.

Start Anti-Profanity Campaign.
Starrburg, Pa.—Fifty thousand persons headed by singing choirs instead of brass bands, paraded through the streets in a remarkable demonstration against profanity and growing use of impure language. The line of march was packed by curious thousands, but there was no enthusiasm displayed. The promoters of the parade had feared disorder in rougher districts, but no demonstrations were made against the marchers.

Thirty Mine Victims Found.
Starkville, Colo.—Thirty bodies have now been removed from the Starkville mine. Many now being brought out are in such an advanced stage of decomposition that they can never be identified. Twenty-five bodies are still in the mines and, according to the rescuers, have not yet been located.

Memorial to a Discoverer.

The town hall of Luneburg, in Hanover, contains a touching memorial to a pig who breathed his last three hundred years ago. This consists of a handsome glass case enclosing a ham in excellent preservation, and underneath a black marble tablet, with the following inscription in gold letters: "Passers by, here you behold the mortal remains of the pig which acquired for itself the imperishable glory by the discovery of the salt springs of Luneburg."

Olive Oil to Remove Cinders.

The man with the cinder in his eye was suffering great pain. Every one had a different method of relief to suggest, but nothing had the desired effect. At length one of the bystanders procured a little olive oil from the lunch room. This was poured into the eye and relief was instant. "I learned that method of dealing with cinders while abroad," said the bystander, "and I guess it is about as effective as anything after all."

Comfortable Prison.

Cottinje, the capital of the kingdom of Montenegro, has probably the most remarkable prison in the world. No walls surround it and the inmates, who furnish their own cells just as they please, seem to stay there only because they find their quarters comfortable. The diet is liberal, with wine on occasions and cigarettes to taste. There is no work to do; no distinctive garb is worn; and comparatively free intercourse is allowed with the outside world. On certain feast days the prisoners are allowed to entertain their friends.

PHYSICAL WRECK RESTORED TO HEALTH BY GREAT KIDNEY REMEDY.

I feel it my duty to furnish you with my testimonial as to what your remedy Swamp-Root did for me when I was a physical wreck from kidney and bladder trouble. Some years ago I was not able to do any work and when I had used $5.00 worth of Swamp-Root I could do a good day's work. I used about $10,000 worth altogether and would not take $10,000 for the good that it did me. I consider it a God-send to suffering humanity for the diseases for which you recommend it and have recommended it to many sufferers.
